ANATOMICAL APPLIANCES.

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN, having specially honoured Mr. HEATHER BIGG, of 29, LEICESTER-SQUARE, (Author of "Artificial Limbs, their Construction and Application,") with a command to construct Mechanical Appliances for those Crimean Soldiers particularly recommended to her gracious consideration, Mr. BIGG begs to invite Officers and others who are labouring under loss of limb, &c., to an inspection of the Models for Artificial Legs, Artificial Arms and Hands, Spinal Apparatus, &c., he possesses.

Mr. HEATHER BIGG having been for several years Anatomical, Surgical, and Orthopædic Mechanician to the Royal Hospitals of Chelsea and Greenwich, the Hon. Board of Ordnance, the Hon. East India Company; St. George's, Middlesex, University College, King's College, Royal Free, Guy's, and St. Thomas's Hospitals, has devoted considerable time and experience to the construction and adaptation of every variety of Anatomical Appliance, and takes this opportunity of inviting the attention of the Medical Profession to the new and valuable Inventions he possesses for affording mechanical aid in cases of talipes varus, valgus, calcaneus and equinus; lateral, posterior, rotative, and anterior curvature of the vertebræ; inguinal, femoral, umbilical, and ventral hernia; and every variety of Anatomical Deformity.

Surgeon to the Central London Ophthalmic Hospital, and Assistant-Surgeon to St Mary's Hospital.

With 169 Engravings on Wood, 8vo, cloth, 18s.

"The most complete treatise on operative ophthalmic surgery in our language."—'Dublin Journal of Medical Science.'

"His work throughout bears evidence of an intimate acquaintance with the principles of general pathology, and of the sound common sense which characterises the British School of Ophthalmic medicine, and which strongly contrasts with the fancies and conceits promulgated at some of the Parisian cliniques."—'American Journal of Medical Science.'

"It must have cost Mr Walton much labour, but he has already been rewarded, for it stamps his character at once as a sound and experienced ophthalmic surgeon.'"—'Medical Times and Gazette.'

ON DISEASES OF THE URINARY AND GENERATIVE ORGANS (IN BOTH SEXES).

Part 1. Non-Specific Diseases.

Part 2. Syphilis.

By WILLIAM ACTON,

Late Surgeon to the Islington Dispensary.

Second Edition, 8vo, cloth, 20s.

"Mr. Acton's work must be diligently studied by every practitioner who would desire to benefit instead of injuring his patient. It has a distinctive and pre-eminently diagnostic value."—'Medical Gazette.'

"The present edition of Mr. Acton's work is very much enlarged, and contains a most valuable collection of matter."—'The Lancet.'

"A section on which great labour has been bestowed is that on Spermatorrhœa."—'Provincial Medical Journal.'

"We have no doubt Mr. Acton's treatise will take its place among the standard treatises in medical literature—a position to which its merit so well entitles it."—'Dublin Medical Press.'

PSYCHOLOGICAL MEDICINE: AN INTRODUCTION to the PRACTICAL STUDY of INSANITY.

By DANIEL NOBLE, M.D.,

Visiting Physician to the Clifton Hall Retreat, Manchester.

Second Edition, 8vo, cloth, 10s.

"A valuable and most able treatise, which is by itself sufficient to establish for the author a high reputation as a psychological writer. . . . . It is replete with interesting and well-selected cases; its style is simple, lucid, and elegant, and its teaching sound and judicious."—'Asylum Journal of Mental Science.'

"This work the author (though not according in everything it contains) would strongly recommend to the perusal of every one entering upon the practice of the profession."—Dr. Carpenter, in Preface to the Fifth Edition of his 'Human Physiology.'

"By far the best elementary treatise on the subject with which we are acquainted, and one whose perusal we can strongly recommend alike to the medical practitioner, the law-administrator, the law-maker, and the student of human nature."—'Westminster Review.'

A PRACTICAL TREATISE on the DISEASES of the TESTIS, and of the SPERMATIC CORD and SCROTUM. With numerous Wood Engravings.

THE MICROSCOPE AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLINICAL MEDICINE.

By LIONEL BEALE, M.B.,

Professor of Physiology and General and Morbid Anatomy, in King's College, London.

With 232 Engravings on Wood, post 8vo, cloth. 10s. 6d.

E U T H E R A P E I A.

By ROBERT GARNER,

Surgeon to the North Staffordshire Infirmary.

8vo, cloth, with Engravings, price 8s.

"In concluding our notice of Mr Garner's work, we desire to express the pleasure we have experienced in its perusal. It is the production of a thoughtful mind, well stored with the literature of our profession, and enriched by the lessons of experience."—Medical Times and Gazette.'

"Mr. G. is a country surgeon of considerable scientific attainments, sound judgment, and extensive practical experience in his profession. A chapter devoted to the nervous system contains some new views."—'Athenæum.'

"This is a highly respectable, and, indeed, valuable, production—an elegant picture or framework of medical science, as at present received by the profession."—'The Critic.'

COTTLE'S MANUAL OF PHYSIOLOGY.

Fcap. 8vo, cloth, 5s.

"A very good outline of the system."—'Med. Gaz.' "Likely to become a favourite."—'Lond. Journ. of Med.' "On the whole, very creditably put together."—'Brit. and For. Med. Rev.' "This is a happy condensation of a difficult subject, and a boon to students."—'Med. Circular.'

A MANUAL OF THE PRACTICE OF MEDICINE.

By G. H. BARLOW, M.D.

Physician to Guy's Hospital.

Fcap. 8vo, cloth, 12s. 6d.

"We can most conscientiously say, on an attentive perusal of his work, that the author has accomplished his object in a most complete manner. We question if any other book which treats on the practice of medicine, always excepting Dr. Watson's large work, will be read by the student with so much pleasure as the one under notice. Dr. Barlow's 'Manual' will, we predict, prove one of the most attractive of the excellent series published by Mr. Churchill."—'Association Medical Journal.'

"The student has long been in want of a good elementary work on the Practice of Medicine. In Dr. Barlow's 'Manual' that want is supplied; and we have no question that it will at once be installed as the favourite text-book in all medical schools."—'Medical Times and Gazette.'

HUMAN OSTEOLOGY.

With Plates, showing the Attachments of the Muscles.

By LUTHER HOLDEN, F.R.C.S.,

Demonstrator of Anatomy at St. Bartholomew's Hospital.

8vo, cloth, 16s.

"The preparation of this work must have been attended with great expense, and with no small labour to the author. We give it our most hearty approval, and recommend it to every student and anatomist. Mr. Holden is already favourably known as the author of an excellent manual of dissection, and the present work, which he designs as supplementary to it, entitles him to rank still higher as an anatomist and surgeon."—'Edinburgh Medical Journal.'

"Mr. Holden's book should be in the hands of every medical pupil the moment he commences his preliminary career, so that he may enter upon his metropolitan studies with the enormous advantage of 'knowing the bones,' and so be able to set to work at once on 'the subject.'"—'Association Medical Journal.'

"We exclaimed, on examining the illustrations and text, 'How strange this was not thought of before!' and so it really seems, for a more simple or complete mode of learning osteology cannot be conceived. The bones are presented in faithful lithographs, and the exact origins and insertions of the muscles indicated respectively by red and blue lines on the surface of the bone. Every student should have this work."—'The Lancet.'

"The book is profusely illustrated with plates; and in order to assist the student to the recollection of the origins and insertions of muscles, those spots are distinguished by red and blue lines on the plates. This novel feature in Mr. Holden's book will be duly appreciated as a powerful aid to the memory."—'Medical Times and Gazette.'

ON THE TOPICAL MEDICATION OF THE LARYNX IN CERTAIN DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY AND VOCAL ORGANS.

By EBEN. WATSON, A.M., M.D.,

Lecturer on the Institutes of Medicine in the Andersonian University, Glasgow.

8vo, cloth, 5s.

"We recommend this very practical and well-written work very cordially to our readers."—'Medico-Chirurgical Review.'

"The work is an able and original exposition of the value of the new treatment. . . . . We strongly recommend it to the notice of the profession, fully satisfied that it is valuable, not merely for the direct information it contains, but also for the practical suggestions which will arrest the perusal of every page."—'Dublin Quarterly Review.'

"Any one who wishes for a full and complete statement on the subject should read Dr. Watson's volume."—'Lancet.'

THE MODERN TREATMENT OF SYPHILITIC DISEASES, both Primary and Secondary. Comprising the Treatment of Constitutional and Confirmed Syphilis, by a Safe and Successful Method. With numerous Cases, Formulæ, and Clinical Observations.

By LANGSTON PARKER,
Surgeon to the Queen's Hospital, Birmingham.

Third Edition, 8vo, cloth, 10s.

"Those who have to contend against this most frequent disease cannot do better than consult Mr. Parker's very useful work. His treatment appears to us highly judicious."—'British and Foreign Medico-Chirurgical Review.'

"The third edition of Mr. Parker's valuable treatise may be almost regarded as a new work, so much is it extended and improved. It contains the result of twenty years' experience in the treatment of syphilis, during which period the author states that he has personally treated more than eight thousand cases. In it the Profession is presented with an admirable collection of cases, carefully tabulated and indexed. Mr. Parker's opinions are moderate and judicious, and we consider that he takes a sound view of the mercurial and non-mercurial treatment of the disease."—'Dublin Quarterly Journal of Medical Science.'

THE DISEASES, INJURIES, AND MALFORMATIONS OF THE RECTUM.

By T. J. ASHTON,
Surgeon to the Blenheim-street Dispensary;
Formerly House-Surgeon at University College Hospital.

8vo, cloth, 8s.

"We can conscientiously declare that we find in it more information than is to be obtained from any single volume yet published on the subject of which it treats."—'Lancet.'

"It is the most complete of all the works at present under consideration."—'New York Journal of Medicine.'

"Mr. Ashton's work is by a man who evidently knows his subject practically, and has enjoyed ample opportunities of illustrating his statements by cases which have fallen under his own observation. His book will do much to rescue a large class of diseases from the hands of ignorant impostors."—'Medical Times and Gazette.'

"It may be consulted with much advantage by those who are engaged in the treatment of diseases of the rectum and anus."—'Association Medical Journal.'

"We know of no work in the English language so complete and practical in all its bearings, and we conclude by strongly recommending it to every Surgeon as a valuable treatise on a most important class of diseases."—'Medical Circular.'

"We recommend the volume to our Medical brethren, regarding it as a most useful and valuable addition to our literature, and are certain that it will conduce to its author's reputation as a practical surgeon."—'Half-yearly Abstract of the Medical Sciences.'

ON THE DISEASES OF CHILDREN.

Translated from the French of M. BOUCHUT,

With Notes and Additions,

By PETER HINCKES BIRD, F.R.C.S.

8vo, cloth, 20s.

"The English reader is much indebted to Mr. Bird for bringing M. Bouchut before his notice in so complete and satisfactory a form. We recommend the work very strongly, to the student of medicine in particular."—'Medico-Chirurgical Review.'

"We most cordially thank the translator and annotator for introducing this really good work to the notice of British practitioners. M. Bouchut's treatise is now presented to the profession in an accessible form; and with the copious notes added, it is indeed, well worthy of a place in our libraries."—'Edinburgh Medical Journal.'

"The introduction of M. Bouchut in an English dress is one that should be cordially welcomed. It is a complete encyclopædia. It possesses certain recommendations that constitute it the best work in our language for the student and young practitioner, and we most cordially recommend M. Bouchut's treatise as thus presented to us by Mr. Bird."—'The Lancet.'

"We can very confidently recommend this treatise as a valuable exponent of the hygiene, pathology, and therapeutics of infancy and childhood; and we are gratified that, through the present English translation, it has been rendered accessible to the profession of this country generally. Mr. Bird has not only succeeded in presenting a very good rendering of the original, but has materially enhanced the value of the work by the notes and the additions he has made to it, embracing the views of various recent continental and English writers, especially of the later German writers, by whose accurate and extended observations our knowledge of infantile pathology has been greatly enhanced."—'American Journal of Medical Science.'

ON ARTIFICIAL LIMBS, THEIR CONSTRUCTION AND APPLICATION.

By HENRY HEATHER BIGG,

Anatomical, Surgical, and Orthopædic Mechanician to the Government Hospitals of Chelsea and Greenwich, &c.

With Engravings on Wood, 8vo, cloth, 3s.

"The author has done well to publish his experience at the present time."—'Lancet.'

"The surgeon who desires to procure an artificial limb for a patient may consult Mr. Bigg's pamphlet with advantage."—'Medical Times.'

"Every Medical man must have felt at some time or other the necessity of possessing such information as this book conveys."—'Medical Circular.'

THE PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICE OF SURGERY.

By WILLIAM PIRRIE, F.R.S.E.,

Regius Professor of Surgery in the Marischal College and University of Aberdeen, Surgeon to the Royal Infirmary, &c.

8vo, cloth, 21s.

"Professor Pirrie has produced a work which is equally deserving of praise as an admirable text-book for surgical pupils, and as a book of reference for experienced practitioners."—'London Journal of Medicine.'

"This work deserves to be made generally known, in consequence of its remarkable merit as a treatise on the Principles and Practice of Surgery."—'Edinburgh Medical and Surgical Journal.'

"A text-book on Surgery which will be acceptable, not only to the author's own pupils past and present, but useful in the hands of all who affect the literature as well as the practice of surgery."—'Medical Times and Gazette.'

"We have much pleasure in giving it as our deliberate opinion, that by far the greater part of the work is most carefully, judiciously, and ably written."—'British and Foreign Medico-Chirurgical Review.'

ON LEUCORRHŒA; ITS PATHOLOGY AND TREATMENT.

By W. TYLER SMITH, M.D.,

Physician-Accoucheur to St. Mary's Hospital.

With Engravings, 8vo, cloth, 7s.

"This volume is of very great value; it contains matter of importance which is really original. It is a book which ought to be in the hands of all interested in obstetrical studies. The whole Profession must be gratified to see the true spirit of science carried into the troubled questions in regard to leucorrhœa, and to observe the great progress recently made in the investigation."—'Monthly Journal of Medicine.'

"Very valuable, both in a scientific and a practical point of view."—'Association Medical Journal.'

"The foregoing cursory examination of Dr. Tyler Smith's will be sufficient to prove its value, and, we hope, more than enough to induce every practitioner to study it for himself. A blind attachment to a routine practice has hitherto often rendered the treatment of leucorrhœa nugatory, if not baneful; for the future, however, our practice must be more successful, since it will be guided by the light of science."—'The Lancet.'

"From the perusal of this work we have derived infinite satisfaction. We regard it as the most valuable, and, in every respect, as the best treatise which has yet appeared on the subject."—'Dublin Quarterly Journal.'

AN ESSAY ON THE ACTION OF MEDICINES IN THE SYSTEM: being the Fothergillian Prize Essay for 1852.

By FREDERICK W. HEADLAND, M.D., B.A., F.L.S.

Second Edition, 8vo, cloth, 10s.

"The very favourable opinion which we were amongst the first to pronounce upon this essay has been fully confirmed by the general voice of the profession, and Dr. Headland may now be congratulated on having produced a treatise which has been weighed in the balance, and found worthy of being ranked with our standard medical works."—'The Lancet.'

"Every one who takes an interest, as every one ought to do, in the progress of that most obscure of all subjects, the modus operandi of remedies, should find a place for Dr. Headland in his library."—'Edinburgh Medical Journal.'

"The rapidity with which the first edition of this work has been disposed of shows that the subject upon which it treats is one upon which the profession anxiously seek information; and the earnest and thoughtful criticism which the author has bestowed upon the subject ensure to his essay a high rank in medical literature."—'British and Foreign Medico-Chirurgical Review.'

On 1st of January, 1857, No. XVIII, price 4s., illustrated with Plates and Engravings on Wood,

THE QUARTERLY JOURNAL OF MICROSCOPICAL SCIENCE.

ON THE CONTAMINATION OF WATER

BY THE POISON OF LEAD: and its Effects on the Human Body.

By JAMES B. HARRISON, M.D.

Second Edition, fcap. 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

"The chief object of the author is to point out the modes and channels by which lead and its salts may imperceptibly and inadvertently be introduced into the organism, and thus produce poisonous effects, and we certainly think that he has produced a treatise which may be useful in directing the attention of many members of the profession to causes of disease not always suspected."—'Edinburgh Medical and Surgical Journal.'

"This little treatise contains an able and excellent description of the deleterious effects observed to arise from the continued use of water holding compounds of lead in solution or suspension. Dr. Harrison has evidently bestowed considerable attention on the subject of chronic lead-poisoning. His descriptions are exceedingly graphic, and through every page of the volume we have evidence of his diligent research and accurate habits of observation. . . . . We are assured our readers will find in it much information, useful not only to the physiologist and practitioner, but to the medical jurist."—'Dublin Medical Quarterly.'

Published on January 1, 1857, and to be continued half-yearly, price, 2s. 6d.

THE LIVERPOOL MEDICO-CHIRURGICAL JOURNAL.

In making this announcement, the Conductors of the Journal have only to state that it will be open to Original Articles on any branch of Medicine, Surgery, or the collateral Sciences; to Reports of Cases and the Proceedings of Societies; and that, in order to secure a purely scientific character, no political matter will be admitted.

The Conductors believe that, considering the large field for observation which exists in this and other provincial towns, and the number of those under whose notice it lies, there must still remain a large mass of unrecorded facts, as well as numerous conclusions, of scientific and practical value drawn from them, which, though influencing the practice of individuals, fail to produce all the benefit which they might effect were they widely known, and which are often forgotten for want of a published account of them.

The Conductors solicit the communication of Original Articles, Reports of Cases, &c., from the Medical Men of Liverpool and other places who may be willing to aid this Journal. It will be their earnest endeavour to make the selection of materials for publication entirely dependent on their scientific value. Communications for the Conductors of the Journal may be addressed to the Publishers.

THE MEDICAL CIRCULAR AND GENERAL MEDICAL ADVERTISER,

Price 5d. Stamped; 4d. Unstamped; Annual Subscription, 17s. 4d.

Half the Price of any existing Medical Journal, nevertheless the mirror of all and of every passing Medical Event.

This Journal is distinguished from all others by features peculiar to itself.

1.—Its Leading Articles invariably apply to the most prevailing topics of the day, and are characterised by a bold and fearless tone, a spirit and a piquancy, not to be found in those of any other Medical Journal.

2.—A Clinical Lecture of some distinguished Professor appears in almost every Number of the Journal.

3.—Also, Weekly Reports of the Proceedings of the various Medical Societies.

4.—It is a Key to all the other Medical Journals, by recording any interesting facts they may contain, leaving the wearisome verbiage and unprofitable communications by which they are encumbered, untouched; thus saving that most precious commodity of the busy Practitioner's Life, TIME.

5.—Notices of every Medical Work immediately on its being sent to the Office.

6.—Under the head of Medical Notes and Queries, an opportunity is given for familiar inter-communication among the readers of the Journal with a view to elucidate many points in Medical Science and Practice which otherwise might remain unexplained.

7.—Space is devoted to Communications remarkable for their interest and utility; and to Controversial Correspondence on Points of Etiquette, Medical Reform, and Quackery.

8.—All the Medical News of the day, including Births, Marriages, and Deaths, new Appointments, Pass Lists of the Colleges, &c. &c.

9.—Notices to those Correspondents who desire information on points relating to the Economy of the Profession.

PREFACE.

ELEVEN years have elapsed since the first appearance of the LONDON AND PROVINCIAL MEDICAL DIRECTORY, and although the difficulties attending the production of such a work were great and many, they have been completely overcome, and each succeeding year bears testimony to the increasing esteem in which it is held, and the confidence with which it is trusted.

The DIRECTORY, doubtless, contains errors; but it must be evident to every mind that no work of the kind can possibly be produced without some inaccuracies—in proof of which it is only necessary to refer to the "Too Late List," which is a record of the changes, &c., which have taken place during the short space of time occupied in printing the work. The DIRECTORY would certainly be more complete and correct, if every individual Member of the Profession returned the ANNUAL CIRCULAR forwarded to them in August, whether their names, addresses, &c. required correction or not. The Editors have to acknowledge the hearty response to their applications of last year, many more returns having been received than in previous years. They have also much pleasure in adding, that the Subscription List has greatly augmented. These, with other facts, afford abundant evidence of the kind interest with which the DIRECTORY is regarded, and also prove the futility of any attempt at rivalry.

The present Edition has been thoroughly revised; its content more conveniently arranged; and various improvements introduced which the Editors hope will meet with approval. The following may be specified:—Considerable additions have been made to the list of Medical and Scientific Societies, both London and Provincial:—the list of Coroners has been specially compiled from original Returns:—lists of "Government Inspectors" and "Surgical Instrument Makers" have been introduced:—and the general information has been increased, with the view of rendering the LONDON AND PROVINCIAL MEDICAL DIRECTORY, if possible, more useful than it has hitherto been.

It may be well to mention, that in the General List may be found the names of some few gentlemen who possess foreign diplomas only, and who are therefore not legally qualified to practise in this country. Nearly all these gentlemen have obtained a highly respectable position, and some of them are officially connected with public Medical Institutions. For these reasons, and also because it is advisable that their real qualifications should be known, the Editors have given insertion to their names.

It is possible that before another Edition can be issued a Government Registration Act may have taken effect,—in which case, the Editors will possess the means of making the DIRECTORY a still more reliable and trustworthy Register of the Profession.

In conclusion, the Editors tender their sincere thanks for the kind assistance which they have received, and earnestly request any gentleman who may discover an inaccuracy, immediately to communicate the same, as it is only through the kind co-operation of every Member of the Profession that an approximation to correctness and completeness can be attained.

POSTAL REGULATIONS.

INLAND.

Rates of Postage from all parts of the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man.

Letters under ½ oz. prepaid, 2½.
" " ½ oz. unpaid, 2d.
" " 1 oz. prepaid, 2d.
" " 1 oz. unpaid, 4d.
" " 1 oz. unpaid, 8d.

and so on—2d. or two rates for every additional ounce or fraction of an ounce. No limit exists to the weight of paid letters, but unpaid letters must not exceed 4 oz. and no inland letter must exceed twenty-four inches any way. All inland letters must be prepaid in stamps, or sent unpaid, except letters posted at St. Martin's-le-Grand before 5 p.m. daily by one individual or firm collectively, postage of which amounts to 1*l.* or upwards.

Letters by private ship, under ½ oz. 8d. Newspapers, 1d.

Unpaid Letters.—Persons sending letters by post, unpaid, which from any cause cannot be delivered, are liable to pay the postage so charged, under the 3 and 4 of Victoria, cap. 96, and the 10 and 11 of Victoria, cap. 85, and, under the 1 of Victoria, cap. 36, may be recovered with costs, by summary process, before a Magistrate.

A letter, when posted, is considered the property of the person to whom it is addressed, and the receivers may therefore not give back a letter under any circumstances whatever.

Re-directed letters subject to a second postage of same amount as the first.

Newspapers (stamped), sent by post, must be made up in covers open at the sides, have the stamp visible, and no marks or writing (other than the address) thereon, or anything inclosed, or it subjects them to letter postage. British newspapers, when duly stamped, are forwarded free throughout the United Kingdom (except those delivered within three miles of the place where posted, which are charged 1d.) Unstamped newspapers, if weighing under 4 oz. may be forwarded between places in the United Kingdom by affixing 1d. postage stamp. For places abroad, newspapers need not be stamped, but postage must be prepaid.

Note.—Newspapers for foreign parts and colonies, if posted later than fifteen days after date of publication, are charged letter postage.

Books, &c.—Printed books, pamphlets, magazines, reviews, &c., whether British, Foreign, or Colonial, may be forwarded by post between places in the United Kingdom (made up in the same manner as newspapers), if prepaid in stamps, at the following rates:—

Under 4 oz. ... ... 1d.
" 8 oz. ... ... 2d.
" 16 oz. ... ... 4d.
" 24 oz. ... ... 6d.
" 32 oz. ... ... 8d.

and 2d. for every additional 8 oz.; no parcel to exceed twenty-four inches any way, but may contain more than one book, &c.

If the postage paid on the packet amount to as much as 4d. it may contain any number of separate books or other publications, prints, or maps, and any quantity of paper, parchment, or vellum (to the exclusion, however, of letters, whether sealed or open). And the books or other publications, prints, maps, &c. may be either printed, written, or plain, or any mixture of the three. Further, all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, publication, &c. or of a portion thereof, will be allowed, whether such binding, &c. be loose or attached; as also rollers, in the case of prints or maps; markers (whether of paper or otherwise), in the case of books; and, in short, whatever is necessary for the safe transmission of literary or artistic matter, or usually appertains thereto.

But if the postage paid be less than 4d. the packet must consist exclusively of printed matter, without restriction, however, either as to the number of publications or separate sheets, or as to whether they are bound or unbound. If any other matter be included, the packet will be subject to an additional rate of 4d.

Books, if prepaid in stamps, are also forwarded by packet (if unwritten on inside or on the cover), at the rate of 6d. under 8 oz. to Canada, Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, Bermuda, addressed via Liverpool and Halifax.

British West Indies, Turks' Island, Bahamas, British Honduras, via Southampton.

Gibraltar, Malta, via Southampton.

New S. Wales and South Australia, by packet.

St. Helena and Cape Town, Natal, by packet or ship.

Western Australia and New Zealand, by packet or ship.

Sierra Leone, Gold Coast, via Plymouth.

Monte Video, via Southampton.

East Indies, Hong Kong, Ceylon, and Mauritius, via Southampton, 8d. under 8 oz.; 1s. 4d. under 16 oz.; or via the Cape of Good Hope, 6d. under 8 oz.

Pamphlets, other than periodicals and Parliamentary proceedings (unbound) can be forwarded to France, Belgium, Holland, and the United States, by packet, only in the U.S. they must not exceed the weight of 8 oz.

Printed votes and Parliamentary proceedings can be forwarded to Canada, New Brunswick, Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, Bermuda, and Prince Edward Island, via Halifax; to Malta, Gibraltar, and the West Indies (also Turks' Island), and the other places to which the book post extends, if sent by packet, at the same rate as books; to the other colonies, and between places in the United Kingdom.

Under 4 oz.	...	1d.
,, 8 oz.	...	2d.
,, 12 oz.	...	3d.
,, 16 oz.	...	4d.

Prices Current and other stamped publications, when registered at the G.P.O. for transmission abroad, are subject to the same rates as newspapers.

REGISTERED LETTERS.—Inland, foreign, colonial, and ship letters can be registered upon payment, in money, of 6d. beyond the postage.

Newspapers for places abroad need not bear the impressed stamp. If they do, it does not reckon as postage.

Registered letters for France, and Countries through France, Prussia, and Countries through Prussia, must have the foreign registration fee and postage paid in addition to the British; the fee, both British and foreign, upon registered letters for France, and countries through France, is double the prepaid rate, and the fee on letters for Russia (via Belgium) is double the Foreign rate (the Russian rate being 3½d. per ½ oz.), and the Prussian is 3d. for a letter of any weight. Registered letters must be posted half an hour previous to the ordinary letters.

SOLDIERS' OR SEAMEN'S LETTERS are subject to a postage of 1d. if prepaid and under ½ an oz.; by private ship 2d. the gratuity in addition must be paid. Letters to or from soldiers or seamen, from abroad, when unpaid, are charged 2d. If sent to or through a foreign country, they are liable to foreign rates in addition, but to no further charge upon re-direction.

Letters from soldiers or seamen to the United States, are subject to the United States' rate of 2½d. in addition to the usual reduced rate; the whole to be paid in advance when posted in this country.

MONEY ORDERS are granted and paid at every post town in the United Kingdom, at a charge of 3d. for sums under 2*l.* and 6d. under 5*l.* which is the highest sum for which a single order is granted.

Money orders drawn on London are payable at the Chief Office, between 10 and 4, except on Saturdays, and then between 10 and 1.

Payment of a money order must be obtained before the end of the third month in which it was issued, or a fresh commission is charged, and no order is paid after twelve clear months.

Money orders are granted in London and its district, between ten and four, and beyond, from nine till six daily.

The Receivers are not obliged to sell stamps, or receive registered letters, or attend to any other official business, after eight p.m.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

1. MEASURE OF LENGTH.

12	Inches	=	1 Foot.
3	Feet	=	1 Yard.
5½	Yards	=	1 Rod or Pole.
40	Poles	=	1 Furlong.
8	Furlongs	=	1 Mile.
69 1/7	Miles	=	1 Degree of a Great Circle of the Earth.

An inch is the smallest lineal measure to which a name is given, but subdivisions are used for many purposes. Among mechanics, the inch is commonly divided into eighths. By the officers of the revenue, and by scientific persons, it is divided into tenths, hundredths, &c.

Particular Measures of Length.

Nail	= 2¼	Inches	used for measuring cloth of all kinds.
Quarter	= 4	Nails
Yard	= 4	Quarters
Ell	= 5	Quarters
Hand	= 4	Inches	used for height of Horses.
Fathom	= 6	Feet	used in measuring depths.
Link	= 7	Inc. 92 hdths.	used in Land Measure to facilitate computation of the content, 10 square chains being equal to an acre
Chain	= 100	Links

2. MEASURE OF SURFACE.

144	Sq. Inches	=	1 Sq. Foot.
9	Sq. Feet	=	1 Sq. Yard.
30¼	Sq. Yards	=	1 Perch or Rod.
40	Perches	=	1 Rood.
4	Roods	=	1 Acre.
640	Acres	=	1 Sq. Mile.

3. MEASURES OF SOLIDITY AND CAPACITY.

Division I.—Solidity.

1728	Cubic Inches	=	1 Cubic Foot.
27	Cubic Feet	=	1 Cubic Yard.

Division II.—Capacity.

4 Gills	= 1 Pint	=	34⅔	cub.ins. nearly.
2 Pints	= 1 Quart	=	69⅓	——
4 Qts.	= 1 Gallon	=	277½	——
2 Gall.	= 1 Peck	=	554½	——
8 Gall.	= 1 Bushel	=	2218⅛	——
8 Bush.	= 1 Quarter—		10¼	cub. ft. nearly
5 Qrs.	= 1 Load	=	51⅓	——

The four last denominations are used for dry goods only. For liquids several denominations have been heretofore adopted, viz.:—For Beer, the Firkin of 9 Gallons, the Kilderkin of 18, the Barrel of 36, the Hogshead of 54, and the Butt of 108 Gallons. Flour is sold nominally by measure, but actually by weight, reckoned at 7 lbs. avoirdupois to a gallon.

4. MEASURE of WEIGHT.

Division I.—Avoirdupois Weight.

27 11/32 Grains	= 1 Dram	=	27 11/32 gr.
16 Drams	= 1 Ounce	=	437½ —
16 Ounces	= 1 Pound(lb)	=	7000
28 Pounds	= 1 Quarter (qr.)
4 Quarters	= 1 Hundredweight(cwt.)
20 Cwt.	= 1 Ton.

This weight is used in almost all commercial transactions, and in the common dealings of life.

The particular weights belonging to this Division are as follows:

		cwt.	qr.	lb.
14 Pounds	= 1 Stone	= 0	0	14	Used in the Wool Trade.
2 Stone	= 1 Tod	= 0	1	0
6½ Tod	= 1 Wey	= 1	2	14
2 Weys	= 1 Sack	= 3	1	0
12 Sacks	= 1 Last	= 39	0	0

Division II.—Troy Weight.

24 Grains	= 1 Pennywt.	=	24 gr.
20 Pennywts.	= 1 Ounce	=	480 —
12 Ounces	= 1 Pound	=	5760 —

These are the denominations of Troy Weight when used for weighing gold, silver, and precious stones (except diamonds). But Troy Weight is also used by Apothecaries in compounding medicines, and by them the ounce is divided into 8 drams, and the dram into three scruples, so that the scruple is equal to 20 grains.

For scientific purposes the grain only is used; and sets of weights are constructed in decimal progression, from 10,000 grains downwards to 1/100 of a grain.

The carat, used for weighing diamonds, is 3⅛ grains. The term, however, when used to express the fineness of gold, has a relative meaning only. Every mass of alloyed gold is supposed to be divided into 24 equal parts; thus the standard for coin is 22 carats fine, that is, it consists of 22 parts of pure gold, and two parts of alloy.

5. ANGULAR MEASURE;

OR, DIVISIONS OF THE CIRCLE.

60 Seconds	= 1 Minute.
60 Minutes	= 1 Degree.
30 Degrees	= 1 Sign.
90 Degrees	= 1 Quadrant
360 Degrees, or 12 Signs	= 1 Circumf.

6. MEASURE OF TIME.

60 Seconds	= 1 Minute.
60 Minutes	= 1 Hour.
24 Hours	= 1 Day.
7 Days	= 1 Week.
28 Days	= 1 Lunar Month.
28, 29, 30, or 31 Days	= 1 Calendar Mth.
12 Calendar Mths	= 1 Year.
365 Days	= 1 Common Year.
366 Days	= 1 Leap Year.

In 400 Years, 97 are leap years, and 303 common.

THE

1857.

 Where the limit of a Parliamentary City or Borough differs from that of the Municipal, the population of the latter has been preferred, in order to approximate as near as possible to the TOWN population.

The population of both Parliamentary and Municipal limits is given, where the population of the former differed considerably from that of the latter, as in the case of some of the principal Cities and Boroughs.

NOTE.—In some few cases the population is not inserted after the name of the place, as it was not distinguished at the Census of 1851; but the name and population of the Parish, &c., in which it is situated, is inserted in brackets, except in a few instances where it could not be ascertained.

The orthography of the names of places, as well as their designation, as Towns, Parishes, Villages, Tythings, &c., is generally that which was adopted at the Census of 1851.

THE

LONDON AND PROVINCIAL MEDICAL DIRECTORY.

1857.

THE EDITORS most earnestly and respectfully request that Gentlemen will return the "CIRCULAR," which is annually sent to them in August, IMMEDIATELY on its receipt, whether any alteration is required or not; the accuracy of the DIRECTORY mainly depending on the Annual Returns being duly and carefully made.

To escape the imputation of error or carelessness, the Editors feel it but due to themselves to distinguish by a mark thus (*) those who neglect to comply with this request. For the correctness of the entries so marked the Editors do not hold themselves responsible.

For names here omitted see "Supplemental List," which consists of persons who have made no return of their qualifications in reply to repeated applications, or are practising without possessing any legal qualification. We shall with much pleasure transfer the names of these Gentlemen so soon as they make us a return of their qualifications, &c.

SUPPLEMENTAL LIST

OF THE

LONDON AND PROVINCIAL MEDICAL DIRECTORY.

The following is a list of persons practising the Medical Profession who have not returned the "Annual Circular," although, in many instances, it has been sent several successive years. Some, without doubt, possess legal qualifications; and others, we have every reason to fear, have no qualification whatever.

Being anxious to expunge the latter class from the list, we respectfully solicit the aid of the Profession, in supplying us with the names of those in this list whom they know to be unqualified.

To those gentlemen in the list who may be legally qualified, we beg to express our regret at being compelled to omit them, for the reasons above mentioned, from the list of those who have made their qualifications known.

None can, with the slightest show of reason, complain, as it is from their own neglect or omission that we are unable to publish their qualifications; and all must admit that it would have been inconsistent with the professed object of the work to include them in a "list of known qualified practitioners." Those who are qualified will, we trust, take care to be included in the general list for the future.

EXAMINATIONS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF MEDICINE.

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Medicine are required; 1. To have been engaged during four years in their professional studies at one or more of the institutions or schools recognised by this University. 2. To have spent one year at least, of the four, in one or more of the recognised institutions or schools of the United Kingdom. 3. To pass two examinations.

FIRST EXAMINATION.

The first examination shall take place once a year, and commence on the first Monday in August. No candidate shall be admitted to this examination unless he have produced certificates to the following effect:—1. Of having completed his nineteenth year. 2. Of having taken a degree in Arts in this University, or in a University the degrees granted by which are recognised by the Senate of this University; or of having passed the Matriculation Examination. 3. Of having been a student during two years at one or more of the Medical institutions or schools recognised by this University, subsequently to having taken a degree in Arts or passed the Matriculation Examination. 4. Of having attended a course of lectures on each of four of the subjects in the following list:—Descriptive and Surgical Anatomy; General Anatomy and Physiology; Comparative Anatomy; Pathological Anatomy; Chemistry; Botany; Materia Medica and Pharmacy; General Pathology; General Therapeutics; Forensic Medicine; Hygiene; Midwifery and Diseases peculiar to Women and Infants; Surgery; Medicine. 5. Of having dissected during nine months. 6. Of having attended a course of practical chemistry, comprehending practical exercises in conducting the more important processes of general and pharmaceutical chemistry; in applying tests for discovering the adulteration of articles of the Materia Medica, and the presence and nature of poisons; and in the examination of mineral waters, animal secretions, urinary deposits, calculi, &c. 7. Of having attended to practical pharmacy during a sufficient length of time to enable him to acquire a practical knowledge in the preparation of medicines. These certificates shall be transmitted to the Registrar at least fourteen days before the examination begins. The fee for this examination shall be 5*l*. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination unless he have previously paid this fee to the Registrar. If a candidate fail to pass the examination, the fee shall not be returned to him; but he shall be afterwards admissible to the first examination without the payment of any additional fee.

Candidates shall be examined in the following subjects:

Anatomy; Physiology; Chemistry; Botany; Materia Medica and Pharmacy. The candidate shall also be required to translate passages from the Latin Pharmacopœia.

The Examinations shall be conducted in the following order:—Morning, 10 to 1—Monday, Anatomy and Physiology, by printed papers; Tuesday, Chemistry, by printed papers; Wednesday, 10 to 12, Botany, by printed papers. Afternoon, 3 to 6—Monday, Anatomy and Physiology, by printed papers; Tuesday, Materia Medica and Pharmacy, by printed papers. To commence on Friday, at 10—Chemistry, by viva voce and experiment; and Materia Medica and Pharmacy by viva voce and demonstrations from specimens. To commence on Tuesday, in the following week, at 10—Anatomy and Physiology, by viva voce, demonstration from preparations, and dissection. On Wednesday morning, in the week following the commencement of the examination, the Examiners shall arrange in two divisions, each in alphabetical order, such of the candidates as have passed; and a pass certificate, signed by the Registrar, shall be delivered to each candidate. Such candidates only as in the opinion of the Examiners are admissible to the Examination for Honours, shall be placed in the first division.

EXAMINATION FOR HONOURS.

Any candidate who has been placed in the first division at the first examination may be examined for honours in any or all of the following subjects:—Anatomy and Physiology (candidates may illustrate their answers by sketching the parts they describe); Chemistry; Maderia Medica and Pharmaceutical Chemistry; Structural and Physiological Botany. The examinations shall take place in the week following the commencement of the first examination. They shall be conducted by means of printed papers; but the Examiners shall not be precluded from putting viva voce questions upon the written answers of the candidates when they appear to require explanation. The examinations shall be conducted in the following order:—Morning, 10 to 1; Thursday, Anatomy and Physiology; Friday, Chemistry; Saturday, Structural and Physiological Botany.—Afternoon, 3 to 6; Thursday, Anatomy and Physiology; Friday, Materia Medica and Pharmaceutical Chemistry. — In determining the relative position of candidates, the Examiners shall have regard to the proficiency evinced by the candidates in the same subjects at the pass examination. Candidates who pass the examinations, and acquit themselves to the satisfaction of the Examiners, shall be arranged according to the several subjects and according to their proficiency in each; and candidates shall be bracketed together unless the examiners are of opinion that there is a clear difference between them. If in the opinion of the Examiners sufficient merit be evinced, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most in anatomy and physiology, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most in chemistry, and the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most in materia medica and pharmaceutical chemistry, shall each receive an exhibition of thirty pounds per annum for the next two years. Under the same circumstances, the first and second candidates in each of the preceding subjects shall each receive a gold medal of the value of five pounds. Under the same circumstances, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most in structural and physiological botany shall receive a gold medal of the value of five pounds.

SECOND EXAMINATION.

The Second Examination shall take place once a year, and commence on the first Monday in November. No Candidate shall be admitted to this examination within Two academical Years of the time of his passing the First Examination, nor unless he have produced certificates to the following effect.—1. Of having passed the first examination. 2. Of having subsequently to having passed the first examination attended a course of lectures on each of Two of the subjects comprehended in the list at page 59, and for which the candidate had not presented certificates at the first examination. 3. Of having, subsequently to having passed the first examination, dissected during six months. 4. Of having conducted at least six labours; certificates on this subject will be received from any legally-qualified practitioner in Medicine. 5. Of having attended the surgical practice of a recognised hospital or hospitals during twelve months, and lectures on clinical surgery. 6. Of having attended the medical practice of a recognised hospital or hospitals during other twelve months, and lectures on clinical medicine. 7. Of having subsequently to the completion of his attendance on surgical and medical hospital practice, attended to practical medicine in a recognised hospital, infirmary, or dispensary, during six months. Certificates on this subject will be received from any legally-qualified practitioner having the care of the poor of a parish. The candidate shall also produce a certificate of moral character from a teacher in the last school or institution at which he has studied, as far as the teacher's opportunity of knowledge has extended. These certificates shall be transmitted to the registrar at least fourteen days before the examination begins. The fee for this examination shall be five pounds. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination unless he have previously paid this fee to the registrar. If a candidate fail to pass the examination, the fee shall not be returned to him; but he shall be afterwards admissible to the second examination without the payment of any additional fee. Candidates shall be examined in the following subjects:—Physiology (the papers in Physiology shall include questions in comparative anatomy); General Pathology; General Therapeutics; Hygiene; Surgery; Medicine; Midwifery; Forensic Medicine. The candidate shall also be required to translate passages of the Latin Pharmacopœia into English and of the English Pharmacopœia into Latin. The examinations shall be conducted in the following order:—First Week —By printed papers, Morning, 10 to 1.—Monday, Physiology; Tuesday, Surgery; Wednesday, Midwifery.—Afternoon, 3 to 6. Monday, General Pathology, General Therapeutics, Hygiene; Tuesday, Medicine; Wednesday, Forensic Medicine; Friday, The candidates to report on the cases of actual patients.—Second Week.—By vivâ voce interrogation and by demonstration from preparations.—To commence on Monday morning, at 10. On Monday morning in the following week the Examiners shall arrange in two divisions, each in alphabetical order, such of the candidates as have passed. And a certificate under the seal of the University, and signed by the Chancellor, shall be delivered to each candidate. Such candidates only as in the opinion of the Examiners are admissible to the examination for honours, shall be placed in the first division.

The College of Physicians is entitled by Charter to prevent any one from practising as a Physician in London, and within seven miles thereof, who has not submitted to its examination. The Licentiates enjoy the same privileges as the Fellows, as far as practice is concerned, but they have no share in the direction of the affairs of the College. The Fellows are now chosen from the body of Licentiates, a certain number being generally elected on the 25th of June of each year.

The EXAMINERS for the Licence are the Censors. The examination for the Licence takes place four times a year; viz, shortly before Christmas, Easter, Midsummer, and Michaelmas. The Examiners for the Extra Licence are the Elects. The examination for the Extra Licence is held about the same time as that for the Licence.

QUÆ AD PERMISSOS PERTINENT, E STATUTIS COLLEGII REGALIS MEDICORUM EXCERPTA.

De Permissis:

1. Statuimus et ordinamus ut nemo in Permissorum numerum eligendus proponatur, qui non annum ætatis suæ vicesimum sextum se clausisse Præsidentem et Censores in Comitiis Minoribus,* certiores fecerit.

2. Nemo in Permissorum numerum admittatur, qui non prius Præsidentem et Censores certiores fecerit de integrâ vitæ suæ et morum probitate.

3. Nemo in permissorum numerum admittatur, qui non prius Præsidentem et Consores certiores fecerit, per literas testimoniales a Comitiis Minoribus approbandas, sese Disciplinæ Medicæ studiis per quinquennium integrum incubuisse. Disciplinam autem Medicam hæc precipuè studia complecti volumus: scilicet, Anatomicen; Medicinam, theoreticam, practicam, et forensem; Chemiam; Materiam Medicam; Historiam Naturalem, præcipuè Botanicen; Artem Obstetriciam; Chirurgiæ Principia. Statuimus insuper et ordinamus, immo hoc summi esse censemus, ut nemo in Permissorum numerum admittatur, qui non prius sese Medicorum praxi in Nosocomio aliquo idoneo triennium integrum consuevisse, per literas testimoniales Comitiis Minoribus prolatas, comprobaverit. Nullum vero Nosocomium ad hoc idoneum judicamus quad pauciores quàm centum ægros in cubiculis continere soleat, vel quod non sibi adscitos habeat tàm Medicos quàm Chirurgos. Si quis autem fortè ad medicinam institutus in Permissorum numerum admitti petat, is priùs in Comitiis Minoribus solito more comprobet se non tantum iisdem studiis, quæ nostratibus jam antè injunximus, quinquennium apud suos impendisse, sed et Medicorum praxi intra Britanniarum fines per annum integrum in Nosocomio aliquo idoneo invigilâsse.

4. Nemo in Permissorum numerum admittatur qui medicamentum quodvis arcanum (nostrum vulgò dictum) in morbis curandis usurpare solitus fuerit; nisi ante examinationem primam id medicamentum, ac ejusdem adhibendi modum, Præsidenti aut Propræsidenti et Censoribus plane exposuerit.

5. Nemo in Permissorum numerum admittatur qui non prius examinatus et approbatus fuerit in tribus Comitiis Minoribus, secundum hanc formam: Unusquisque eorum qui in numerum Permissorum admitti petat, examinetur:—In Primis Comitiis, in parte Medicinæ Physiologicâ; In Secundis, in parte Pathologicâ; In Tertiis, in parte Therapeuticâ. Ineunte examinatione primâ, interroget examinandum Præsidens vel Propræsidens ubinam bonas literas et scientiarum principia didicerit? quibus in Academiis commoratus sit? et quibus denique hororibus gradibusve, sive ad Philosophiam et Disciplinas humaniores, sive ad Medicinam ipsam pertinentibus decoretur. Hisce quæstionibus responsa, ut literis illico mandentur, et inter annales nostros conserventur, curet Registrarius. Præterea examinetur in Græcis literis ad Medicinam spectantibus, scilicet in Hippocrate, vel Galeno, vel Aretæo. Proponantur unicuique in primâ examinatione loci ex Aphorismis Hippocratis, vel e Galeno; in secundâ et tertiâ examinatione loci ex Hippocrate, vel Galeno, vel Aretæ, qui Latina reddantur, et brevi commentario illustrentur. Si quis autem in Græcis

6. Qui ad hanc formam in Comitiis Minoribus examinatus et in singulis examinationibus approbatus fuerit, in Comitiis Majoribus proximè insequentibus proponatur in Permissorum numerum admittendus, et si major pars Sociorum præsentium consenserit, quamprimum admittatur.

7. Si vero quispiam, in unâ quâvis examinationum prædictarum, minus peritus, nec ad medicinæ facultatem in urbe Londino et intra septem milliaria in circuitu ejusdem exercendam idoneus existimatus fuerit, non nisi præterito integro anno ad examinationem iterum admittatur.

8. Antequam quispiam in numerum Permissorum admittatur, det fidem infra-scriptam Præsidenti aut Propræsidenti, coram Sociis in Majoribus Comitiis:—"Dabis fidem te observaturum statuta Collegii, aut mulctas tibi contrafacienti irrogandas promptè persoluturum, omniaque in Medicinâ faciendâ pro viribus facturum in honorem Collegii et Reipublicæ utilitatem."

9. Admittendus, flexus genubus,* manus invicem applicatas humiliter tradat in manus Præsidentis vel Propræsidentis, qui dicat:—"Ego, A.B., Præsidens (vel Propræsidens) hujus Collegii, admitto te ad Medicinæ facultatem tam docendam quam exercendam et ad omnes capessendos honores et titulos et privilegia, quæcunque hic vel alibi medicis concedi solent, intra limites nostræ auctoritatis, precorque tibi omnia fausta."

10. Omnes permissi tempore admissionis suæ literas habeant sigillo Collegii munitas sub hâc formâ. "Sciant omnes, Nos. A.B. Præsidentem Collegii Medicorum Londinensis, unâ cum consensu Sociorum ejusdem, auctoritate nobis a Domino Rege et Parliamento commissâ, examinâsse et approbâsse ornatissimum virum T.S., et ei concessisse liberam facultatem et licentiam tam docendi quam exercendi scientiam et artem medicam, eidemque summis honoribus et titulis et privilegiis, quæcunque hic vel alibi Medicis concedi solent, intra auctoritatis nostræ limites frui dedisse. In cujus rei fidem et testimonium, adjectis Censorum et Registrarii chirographis, sigillum nostrum commune præsentibus apponi fecimus, datis ex ædibus Collegii die mensis anno Domini millesimo octingentesimo. . . ."

Registrarius.

11. Si quis, postquam in numerum Permissorum fuerit admissus, Pharmacopolæ arte aut mercibus quibusvis vendendis victum quæritaverit, statuimus illum, quantum in nobis sit, ex numero Permissorum excidisse.

12. Si quis vero in urbe Londino, aut per septem milliaria in circuitu ejusdem, Medicinæ facultatem exercuerit, qui ad hoc per Præsidentis et Collegii literas sigillo nostro communi sigillatas non sit admissus; auctoritate Præsidentis et Censorum, si modo ipsis aut eorum majori parti ita visum fuerit, admoneatur per schedulum in manus traditam, vel in domo ejus relictam, ut medicinam exercere desinat, donec examinatus et approbatus fuerit, literis ad hoc datis sigillo Collegii munitis.

* Si quis religionis causâ genua flectere nolit, hoc prætermitti potest.

13. Quandoquidem fieri potest ud viri sint quidam de arte nostrâ optimè meriti, qui tamen disciplinæ medicæ studia non omnino secundum normam a nobis injunctam prosecuti fuerint; statuimus et ordinamus ut, non obstantibus præmissis, siquando horum aliquis, peracto anno ætatis suæ quadragesimo, in Permissorum numerum admitti petat, is imprimis testimonia quàm plenissima de doctrinâ et moribus suis proferat Comitiis Minoribus. Hæc percautè scrutentur et expendant Censores, et, si ita sibi visum sit, in Comitiis quibusvis Majoribus posteà habendis, palàm explicent, impetrentque de iis Collegii sententiam. Denique, si major pars Sociorum in illis Comitiis præsentium, suffragiis per pilas occultè acceptis, consenserit, instituantur, quamprimùm commodè fieri poterit, examinationes ordinariæ, uti de Permissis jam antè præceptum est.

DE CONVERSATIONE MORALI ET STATUTIS PŒNALIBUS.

1. Nullus sive Socius, sive Permissus fuerit, Socium aut Permissum ignorantiæ in arte suâ vel màleficii nomine, nisi coram judicibus legitimis accuset, aut coram quibusvis afficiat contumeliis. Si quem contra fecisse Præsidenti et Censoribus aut eorum majori parti innotuerit, primâ vice solvat quatuor libras, secundâ vice duplicetur mulcta; quòd si tertio quis similiter deliquerit, et modo prædicto convictus fuerit, si quidem Socius fuerit, expellatur è Societate nostrâ, sin idem sit è Permissorum numero, solvat decem libras. Quam quidem decem librarum mulctam quotiescunque idem Permissus ejusdem delicti modo prædicto denuò convictus fuerit, ipsi irrogandam statuimus.

2. Nullus Socius, vel Permissus, salutatione officiosà, vel animi benevoli obtentu, opem medicam ultrò offerat, nedum subministret ægro cuilibet, quem Medici cujusvis, sive Socii, sive Permissi, curæ commissum esse cognoverit, et ad quem non accersitus fuerit.

3. Si quis autem malitiæ hujusmodi convictus fuerit, præter ignominiæ notam quam isti (quantum in nobis est) inuri volumus, quadraginta solidos mulctetur à Præsidente et Censoribus.

4. Si quis paciscatur cum Pharmacopolis de aliquâ pretii parte ex medicamentis præscribendis percipiendâ, si sit Socius, et hujusce delicti à Præsidente et majore parte Sociorum in Comitiis majoribus sive ordinariis sive extraordinariis præsentium convictus fuerit, e Societate nostrâ expellatur.

5. Sin Permissus delicti hujusce a Præsidente et Censoribus, aut eorum majore parte, convictus fuerit, decem libras quotiescunque id admiserit, mulctetur.

6. Medicus quisque, sive Socius, sive Permissus fuerit, singulis suis schedulis, in quibus ægri curatio præscribitur, diem præscriptionis, ægri nomen, et sui denique nominis literas initiales abscribat; nisi causa intersit a Præsidente et Censoribus approbanda.

7. Si plures Medici curationis gratiâ convenerint, consultandum est summâ modestiâ, et non nisi semotis arbitris a re alienis. Nec quisquam præscribat, imò ne innuat quidem, quid agendum sit coram ægro, aut abstantibus, priusquam junctis consiliis inter ipsos Medicos curandi methodus fuerit constituta. Sin autem Medici in diversas iverint sententias, ita ut in eandem medendi methodum consentire nequeant, summâ tamen prudentiâ et moderatione se gerant, eorumque dissentionem ita, ut tàm ægro quàm amicis ejus quàm minimum molestiæ pariat, ordinarius medicus ægro aut abstantibus significet.

8. Qui leges has consultandi non observaverit, et a Præsidente et Censoribus aut eorum majore parte convictus fuerit, quinque libras mulctetur.

9. Nullus denique Medicus, sive Socius, sive Permissus, concilium ineat de rebus Medico propriis, in civitate Londino et intra septem milliaria in circuitu ejusdem nisi cum aliquo e Sociorum vel Permissorum numero, sub pœnâ quinque librarum quotiescunque hujusce delicti à Præsidente et Censoribus, aut eorum majore parte convictus fuerit.

10. Omnes mulctæ quæ per statuta nostra irrogatæ fuerint illicò solvantur.

The College of Physicians requires that every candidate for its licence, or extra-licence, should, previous to examination, produce proofs that he has pursued his professional studies during five years, including three years of attendance on the Physician's practice of a general hospital containing not less than 100 beds. These requisites cannot be dispensed with, unless the candidate has completed the age of forty years, and then only in special cases.

REGULATIONS RELATING TO CANDIDATES FOR THE DIPLOMA OF MEMBER OF THE COLLEGE.

I. Candidates are required to produce the following certificates, viz.: 1. Of being twenty-one years of age. 2. Of having been engaged during four years in the acquirement of professional knowledge. 3. Of having studied practical pharmacy during six months. 4 Of having studied anatomy and physiology, by attendance on lectures and demonstrations and by dissections, during three winter sessions. 5 Of having attended, during two winter sessions, lectures on the principles and practice of surgery. 6. Of having attended, during one summer session, lectures on materia medica and lectures on midwifery; practical midwifery to be attended at any time after the conclusion of the session. 7. Of having attended one course of lectures on the practice of physic and one course on chemistry. 8. Of having attended at a recognised hospital or hospitals in the United Kingdom the practice of physic during one winter* and one summer† session. 9. Of having attended, during three winter and two summer sessions, the practice of surgery at a recognised hospital or hospitals in the United Kingdom. 10. And of having attended clinical lectures on medicine and surgery in conformity with the following regulations of the council. The certificates of attendance on the medical practice of a hospital, commencing on or after the 1st of October, 1854, must be accompanied by certificates of attendance on clinical lectures on medicine during such attendance:—and the certificates of attendance, by such candidates, on the surgical practice of a hospital, commencing on or after the said 1st of October, 1854, must be accompanied by certificates of attendance on clinical lectures on surgery during such attendance. Such courses of clinical lectures shall, in England and in the colonies, consist of not less than one lecture on medicine and one lecture on surgery in each week during the summer and winter sessions; and in Scotland and Ireland shall consist of such number of lectures as may be, respectively, required by the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh and Ireland. These lectures shall be additional to clinical instruction given in the wards, and shall have especial reference to cases at the time, or previously under observation in the hospital. The course of study hereby prescribed is required to be observed by candidates who shall have pursued their studies in hospitals and schools in England. Those candidates who shall have studied in Scotland are required to bring certificates of having attended lectures on the institutes of medicine during one winter session, and on anatomy during two other winter sessions, and on demonstrations and dissections during three winter sessions (the foregoing regulations being in all other respects observed). Candidates who shall have attended lectures on materia medica in the University of Dublin will be allowed to bring certificates of such attendance during the winter session.

II. Members or licentiates of any legally constituted College of Surgeons in the United Kingdom, and graduates in surgery of any university requiring residence to obtain degrees, will be admitted for examination on producing their diploma, licence, or degree, together with proof of being twenty-one years of age, and of having been occupied at least four years in the acquirement of professional knowledge.

III. Graduates in medicine of any legally constituted college or university requiring residence to obtain degrees, will be admitted for examination on adducing, together with their diploma, or degree, proof of having completed the anatomical and surgical education required by the foregoing regulations, either at the school and hospital of the university where they shall have graduated, or at one or more of the recognised schools and hospitals in the United Kingdom.

IV. Candidates who shall have attended at recognised colonial hospitals and schools,* the medical and surgical practice and the several courses of lectures, with the demonstrations and dissections required by the foregoing regulations, will be admitted for examination upon producing certificates of such attendance, together with certificates of having attended in London, during one winter session, the surgical practice of a recognised hospital, and lectures on Anatomy, Physiology, and Surgery, with demonstrations and dissections.

V. Certificates will not be recognised from any hospital unless the surgeons thereto be members of one of the legally constituted colleges of surgeons in the United Kingdom; nor from any school of anatomy and physiology or midwifery, unless the teachers in such school be members of some legally constituted college of physicians or surgeons in the United Kingdom; nor from any school of surgery, unless the teachers in such school be members of one of the legally constituted colleges of surgeons in the United Kingdom.

VI. Certificates will not be received on more than one branch of science from one and the same lecturer: but anatomy and physiology—demonstrations and dissections—will be respectively considered as one branch of science, and in those schools in Scotland or Ireland in which such division of those subjects is sanctioned by the College of Surgeons in each kingdom, the institutes of medicine,—anatomy, demonstrations and dissections,—may be separately certified.

VII. Certificates will not be received from candidates who have studied in London, unless they shall have registered their tickets at the College, as required by the regulations, during the last ten days of January, March, and October in each year; nor from candidates who have studied elsewhere, unless their names shall duly appear in the registers transmitted during such studies from their respective schools.

N.B. In the certificates of attendance on hospital practice and on lectures, it is required that the dates of commencement and termination be clearly expressed; and no interlineation, erasure, or alteration will be allowed. Blank forms of the required certificates may be obtained on application to the Secretary, to whom they must be delivered, properly filled up, ten days before the candidate can be admitted to examination; and all such certificates are retained at the College.

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS TO THE FELLOWSHIP BY ELECTION.

Members of the College of fifteen years' standing who were Members on the 14th day of September, 1843, desirous of admission to the Fellowship, otherwise than by Examination, shall transmit or deliver to the Secretary of the College, a Declaration signed by himself, in the following terms, namely:—I, A. B., of C., a Member of the Royal College of Surgeons of England, do declare that I do not sell or supply Drugs or Medicines, (or that) I do not sell or supply Drugs or Medicines (otherwise than in due exercise or practice of my Profession as an Apothecary). Together with a Certificate in the following terms, namely:—"We, the undersigned Fellows of the Royal College of Surgeons of England, do from our personal knowledge of the high moral character and professional attainments of A. B. of C., declare that in our opinion he is deserving of the honour of the Fellowship of the said College, and that he does not sell or supply Drugs or Medicines, (or that) he does not sell or supply Drugs or medicines otherwise than in the due exercise or practice of his Profession as an Apothecary. We therefore recommend the said A. B. to the Council to be admitted a Fellow of the College." In the case of a Member residing in the United Kingdom, such Certificate shall be signed by six Fellows of the College. In the case of a Member absent from the United Kingdom, in the service of the Royal Army or Navy, such Certificate shall be signed by two Fellows of the College, and also by the Officer superintending the Medical Department of the Service to which such member shall belong. In the case of a Member absent from the United Kingdom in the Service of the Honourable East India Company, such certificates shall be signed by two Fellows of the College, and also by the Secretary to the Military Department of the said Company. In the case of a Member resident in any of the British Colonies, Plantations or Dependencies, such Certificate shall be signed by two Fellows of the College, and also by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor or Superintendent of such Colony, Plantation or Dependency, whose signature shall be verified by the Secretary, or one of the Under-Secretaries of State for the Colonies. The said Declaration and Certificate shall be received at least seven days before the Meeting of the Council at which the ballot shall be taken for the election of the said Member into the Fellowship. The Fee of Ten Guineas payable upon the Admission of Members to the Fellowship by Election, shall be paid at or before the issue of the Diploma of Fellowship. The Names of such Fellows as shall be elected as aforesaid, shall be entered upon the List or Register of Fellows according to the dates of their election, and when more than one shall be elected upon the same day, their names shall take precedence according to the priority of their Diplomas as Members. No Member of the College, admitted to the Fellowship by Election, shall exercise any right or privilege he shall have acquired as a Fellow until he shall have signed a copy of the Bye-Laws of the College, in testimony of having engaged himself to the observance thereof, and made and subscribed the following Declaration in the presence of the Council, viz.:—"I, A. B., of C., Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, of England, do solemnly and sincerely declare that while a Fellow of the said College, I will observe the Bye-Laws thereof, and will obey every lawful summons issued by order of the Council of the said College, having no reasonable excuse to the contrary. And I make this solemn Declaration by virtue of the provisions of an Act passed in the sixth year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled an Act to repeal an Act of the present Session of Parliament intituled an Act for the more effectual Abolition of Oaths and Affirmations taken and made in various departments of the State, and to substitute Declarations in lieu thereof, and for the more entire Suppression of voluntary and extra-judicial Oaths and Affidavits, and to make other provisions for the Abolition of unnecessary Oaths."

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS TO THE FELLOWSHIP BY EXAMINATION.

1. Except in the cases and instances hereinafter provided for to the contrary, every candidate for the Fellowship, whether a member of the College or not, shall produce certificates satisfactory to the Court of Examiners,—That he is twenty five years of age. That he is (if found qualified upon his examination) a fit and proper person to be admitted to the Fellowship, and the certificate of which shall be signed by three Fellows. That he has passed the preliminary examination in Classics, Mathematics, and French, appointed by the council, or such other examination in any University in the United Kingdom as the council may from time to time determine to be equivalent thereto. That he has been engaged for six years in the acquirement of professional knowledge in hospitals or schools of anatomy, surgery, and medicine, recognised by the council of the College for that purpose; and that not less than three winter and three summer sessions thereof have been passed in one or more of such hospitals in London. That he has studied Anatomy and Physiology by attendance on lectures and demonstrations, and by dissections, during three winter sessions of not less than six months each, at a recognised school or schools. That he has attended lectures on the theory and practice of Medicine and on Clinical Medicine, and also on the theory and practice of Surgery and on Clinical Surgery, during two sessions of not less than six months each, at recognised schools and hospitals. That he has attended one course of lectures on each of the following subjects, viz., Chemistry. Materia Medica, Midwifery, with attendance on cases, Medical Jurisprudence and Comparative Anatomy. at one or more recognised school or schools. That he has attended the surgical practice of a recognised hospital or hospitals during four winter and four summer sessions, and the medical practice of a recognised hospital or hospitals during one winter and one summer session. That he has served the office of house-surgeon or dresser in a recognised hospital in the United Kingdom. He shall also present for examination clinical reports with observations thereon of not less than six surgical cases taken by himself at one or more of the recognised hospitals in the United Kingdom, with satisfactory evidence of their authenticity and genuineness. 2. In the case of a candidate who shall have taken by examination the degree of Bachelor or Master of Arts in any University in the United Kingdom, it shall be sufficient for him to produce a certificate or certificates that he has been engaged for five years (instead of six years) in the acquirement of professional knowledge in recognised hospitals or schools of surgery and medicine, but he shall in all other respects produce the certificates of the foregoing course of study. 3. Any person who shall have been a member of the College on the fourteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, shall be entitled to be admitted to the examination for the Fellowship upon the production of a certificate, signed by three fellows, that he has been eight years in the practice of the profession of surgery, and that he is a fit and proper person to be admitted a Fellow, if upon examination he shall be found qualified. 4. Any person who shall have become a member of the College after the said fourteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, shall, after the expiration of twelve years from the date of the diploma, also be entitled to be admitted to the examination for the Fellowship upon the production of a certificate, signed by three Fellows, that he has been for twelve years in the practice of the profession of surgery, and that he is a fit and proper person to be admitted a Fellow, if upon examination he shall be found qualified.

The preliminary examination in Classics, Mathematics, and French, is held in the months of April and October; to which candidates are admitted upon having completed the eighteenth year of their age, and on the payment of the fee of ten guineas. The professional examination is held in the months of May and November, and occupies two days, either successive, or at such interval as the Court of Examiners may appoint. The subjects of the first day's examination are Anatomy and Physiology, those of the second day Pathology, Therapeutics, and Surgery; in the Anatomical Examination the candidate has to perform dissections or operations on the dead body. The time allowed for examination each day is from ten o'clock in the forenoon until four o'clock in the afternoon. A candidate whose qualifications shall be found insufficient upon his professional examination, will not be allowed to present himself a second time until after the expiration of one year from his first examination. Every member of the college shall, prior to his admission to the professional examination, pay the fee of ten guineas, unless he shall have passed the preliminary classical examination.

The following are the subjects of the preliminary examination of the candidates for the Fellowship during the year 1857, viz. :—CLASSICS.—Livy, Book XXX; Horace, Odes, III and IV; Thucydides, Book VII; Euripides, Medea. Each candidate is required to bring up one of the above Greek and one of the above Latin authors; one prose writer and one poet.

MATHEMATICS.—Arithmetic; Algebra, as far as to include the doctrine of proportion, and simple equations with one or two unknown quantities. Euclid: Books 1, 2, and 3; Statics, Hydrostatics, Optics, and Acoustics. In the last two it will be sufficient to be prepared with general explanations of the leading phœnomena, such as may be found in treatises on physics, except in the cases of Statics and Hydrostatics, in which Mathematical demonstrations will be required of the elementary propositions, such as may be found in any of the following books; — Barrett's Propositions in Mechanics and Hydrostatics; Snowball s Cambridge Course of Elementary Natural Philosophy; Whewell's Mechanical Euclid; Williams's Elements of Mechanics and Hydrostatics.

FRENCH.—The translation into English of a passage in two of the following works, at the option of the candidate:—Molière's Misanthrope; La Martine s Voyage en Orient; Voltaire's Histoire du Pierre le Grand.

Grammatical questions on the parts of speech, particularly the conjugation of the irregular verbs in the selected passages.

This Examination is held twice in the year, in the months of April and October, to which Candidates are admitted upon having completed the eighteenth year of their age, and on the payment of the fee of ten guineas.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING THE PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE CERTIFICATE OF QUALIFICATION IN MIDWFERY.

1. Persons who were Fellows or Members of the College prior to the 1st day of January, 1853, will be admitted to examination for the certificate of qualification in midwifery upon producing their diploma. 2. Persons having become members of the College subsequently to the 1st of January, 1853, will be admitted to examination on producing their diploma, together with a certificate or certificates of having attended twenty labours. 3. Members or Licenciates of any legally constituted College of Surgeons in the United Kingdom, and graduates in surgery of any University requiring residence to obtain degrees, will also be admitted to examination on producing, together with their diploma, licence, or degree, proof of being twenty-one years of age—of having been occupied four years in the acquirement of professional knowledge—of having attended one course of lectures on Midwifery—and of having attended not less than twenty labours. 4. Graduates in medicine of any legally constituted College or University requiring residence to obtain degrees, will also be admitted to examination on producing, together with their diploma or degree, proof of being twenty-one years of age—of having been occupied four years in the acquirement of professional knowledge—of having completed, at recognised schools, the Anatomical and Surgical Education required of candidates for the diploma of Member of the College—of having attended one course of lectures on Midwifery—and of having attended not less than twenty labours. 5. Persons having commenced their professional education, either by attendance on hospital practice, or on lectures on Anatomy, prior to the 1st of January, 1853, will be admitted to examination on producing the several certificates of professional education required for admission to examination for the diploma of Member of this College at the period when such persons shall respectively have, in such manner, commenced their professional education. 6. Persons having commenced their professional education, either by attendance on hospital practice, or on lectures on Anatomy, after the 31st day of December, 1852, will be admitted to examination on producing certificates of being twenty-one years of age—of having been engaged during four years in the acquirement of professional knowledge—of having completed, at recognised schools, the professional education required of candidates for the diploma of Member of this College—of having attended one course of lectures on Midwifery and the diseases of women and children—and of having personally conducted thirty labours.

N.B. The fee for the certificate is as follows, viz.:—1. Persons who were Fellows or Members of this College prior to the 1st of January, 1853, two guineas. 2. Persons admitted Fellows or Members of this College subsequently to the 1st of January, 1853, three guineas. 3-4. Persons producing any other diploma or certificate of degree which may be considered by the council to afford satisfactory proof of sufficient surgical and medical education, three guineas. 5-6. All other persons, ten guineas.

RULES AND REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE STUDENTSHIP IN HUMAN AND COMPARATIVE ANATOMY.

There are two studentships held by each student for the term of two years, at a salary of 100*l.* per annum. Candidates for the appointment must be Members of the College, under twenty-six years of age. The appointment is made in the month of June, or as soon after as possible. The students are subject to such duties and restrictions as the council may from time to time direct; and in case of misconduct are liable to dismissal. N.B. Candidates for the appointment must transmit their applications to the Secretary on or before the 1st of May, together with certificates of general good character and of fair acquirement in general learning, signed by two qualified members of the medical profession.

The students are required to devote their whole time to the study of anatomy, physiology, and the connected branches of knowledge, and to the service of the College in the museum. They shall not undertake any other employment, such as that of demonstrator, lecturer, or teacher; nor shall they engage in private practice either as principal or assistant; and they shall avoid all appearance of practising by not designating their profession on the doors of their residences. They shall be employed at the College in such manner as shall be pointed out by the conservators, whose directions they shall in all instances obey, referring to them in all matters on which they may entertain doubts. They shall not be absent from their duties in the museum (except in the case subsequently specified), without the permission of the conservators; nor shall they leave London without the permission of the President and the knowledge of the chairman of the museum committee. They shall attend to their duties in the College from ten a.m. to four p.m., daily, except on Sunday, and on one other day in each week, on which they are allowed to visit their respective hospitals, and to read in the library of the College. On particular occasions, when the business of the museum shall require it, they shall attend, under the direction of the conservators, earlier or later than the hours above mentioned. Each student is also required to attend in the museum, for the purpose of giving information to visitors, one day in each week, from twelve to four o'clock, and on any other day when the conservators, with the sanction of the museum committee, shall so direct. They shall record, in books provided for that purpose, the histories of their respective dissections, and the particulars of their other occupations in the College; and they shall lay such books before the museum committee at least once a month. It is expected that they shall make themselves familiar with everything relating to the practical study of anatomy, such as the use of the microscope, the dissection of small animals, the art of preserving animal substances, of injecting and putting up anatomical preparations. It is also hoped that they will devote a portion of each evening to the perusal of works on anatomy and physiology, and on the auxiliary branches of knowledge.

The President and Council have great pleasure in announcing that (at the instance of the Director-General of the Medical Department of the Army, the Physician-General of the Royal Navy, and the Chairman of the Honourable East India Company), the General commanding the Army in Chief, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Court of Directors have, with the view of promoting the objects of the College in the institution of these studentships, been pleased to place at the disposal of the President and Council an Assistant-Surgeoncy in each service, once in three years, for such of the said students as may be considered worthy of these honourable distinctions.

MUSEUM.

The museum is open to the Members of the College, to the trustees of the Hunterian collection, and to visitors introduced by them personally or by written orders stating their names (which orders are not transferable), on the public days, which are Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays, from twelve to four o'clock, except during the month of September, when the museum is closed. The museum is open on the above days to all fellows and licentiates of the Royal College of Physicians in London; to Peers and Members of Parliament; to the Great Officers of State, and of the Royal Household, and their immediate deputies; to all the dignitaries of the church and of the law; to all general and flag officers; to the members of all the learned and scientific bodies in the United Kingdom; to the members of all the government boards, and to all others introduced by them respectively; to all learned and scientific foreigners, and to the articled students of the College. The secretary and conservators will exercise their discretion in the case of applications for admission from all other persons. Any one desirous of devoting especial study to particular deparments of the museum, may have access for that purpose on Fridays, from twelve to four in winter, and from twelve to five in summer, on making a written application to the President. Persons desirous of comparing specimens with those in the museum, or of having specimens examined, or of gaining other information, are requested to present themselves on Saturdays from ten to one o'clock. Visitors are requested to insert their names and residences in the book provided for that purpose.

A synopsis of the contents of the museum, 8vo, may be obtained of the porter in the hall, price sixpence.

LIBRARY.

The library is open daily, Sundays excepted, to Members and articled students of the College, from ten until four o'clock during the winter months, and from ten until five o'clock during the summer months. Members have the privilege of personally introducing a visitor. Persons not members, desirous of admission, must make application in writing to the President or library committee, specifying their Christian and surnames, rank or Profession, and residence. Tickets of admission, which are not transferable, are granted for six months, at the expiration of which time application must be made for their renewal. Readers wishing to refer to any book are requested to furnish the librarian with the title or number thereof written on a slip of paper; and to return such book to the librarian before quitting the library. Readers, taking extracts from any book, may not lay the paper on which they write on any part of such book; nor may any tracings be taken from any plate without the permission of the committee. Books belonging to the College are not to be written upon; and any one observing a defect in a book, is requested to report the same to the librarian. Readers desirous of consulting works not in the library are requested to communicate their wishes in writing to the librarian, in order that the same may be reported to the Committee. Every person upon admission to the library is required to insert his name and residence in a book provided for that purpose.

PRIZES.

Collegial Triennial Anatomical Prize, of Fifty Guineas.

The subject of this prize is—"The Structure and Functions of the Ganglionic Systems of Nerves in Man, illustrated by references to Comparative Anatomy."

Jacksonian Prize, of Twenty Guineas.

There are two subjects for this prize for the present year, 1856, namely—"The Pathology and Treatment of Syphilis," and "An Inquiry into the Nature and Treatment of the different forms of Gangrene."

There are also two subjects for this prize for the ensuing year 1857, namely:—"Gun-shot Wounds and their Treatment," and "the Effects produced in Man by the introduction into the system of Poisons from the lower Animals, excluding Hydrophobia and Cow-pox."

These prizes are to be written for under the following conditions:—Candidates to be Fellows or Members of the College, not on the council. The dissertations to be in English, and the number and importance of original facts will be considered principal points of excellence—recited cases to be placed in an appendix. Each dissertation to be distinguished by a motto or device, and accompanied by a sealed paper containing the name and residence of the author, and having on the outside a motto or device corresponding with that on the dissertation. The dissertations to be addressed to the secretary, at the College. The manuscript prize dissertations and every accompanying drawing and preparation will become the property of the College. Those dissertations which shall not be approved, with their accompanying drawings and preparations, will, upon authenticated application, within the period of three years, be returned, together with the papers, unopened, containing the names and residences of the respective authors. The unapproved dissertations which shall remain three years unclaimed, with their accompanying drawings and preparations, will become the property of the College; at which period the papers containing the names of the authors will be burned, unopened, in the presence of the committee. The dissertations for the Jacksonian prize for the present year, 1856, must be delivered at the College before Christmas-day next. The dissertations for the Jacksonian prizes for the ensuing year, 1857, must be delivered at Med.*, Dr. W. T. Brande; Exam. for Soc.'s Prize in Bot, Dr. J. D. Hooker; Cur. of Bot. Garden, Mr. T. Moore, Beadle, Mr. C. Rivers.

Note.—Members are those who constitute the incorporated Society of Apothecaries; Licentiates, those who have obtained their Licence to practise as Apothecaries.

REGULATIONS, ETC.

Every Candidate for a Certificate of Qualification to practise as an Apothecary, will be required to produce Testimonials—

1. Of having served an apprenticeship of not less than five years to an Apothecary.

No gentleman practising as an Apothecary in England or Wales can give his apprentice a legal title to examination, unless he is himself legally qualified to practise as an Apothecary, either by having been in practice prior to or on the 1st of August, 1815, or by having received a certificate of his qualification from the Court of Examiners. An apprenticeship for not less than five years to Surgeons practising as Apothecaries in Ireland and Scotland, gives to the apprentice a title to be admitted to Examination.

2. Of having attained the full age of twenty-one years.

As evidence of age, a copy of the baptismal register will be required in every case where it can possibly be procured.

3 Of good moral conduct.

A testimonial of moral character from the gentleman to whom the Candidate has been an apprentice, will always be more satisfactory than from any other person.

4. And of having pursued a Course of Medical Study in conformity with the regulations of the Court.

COURSE OF STUDY.

Every Candidate whose attendance on Lectures shall commence on or after the 1st of October, 1849, must attend the following Lectures and Medical Practice during not less than three winter and two summer sessions; each winter session to consist of not less than six months, and to commence not sooner than the 1st nor later than the 15th of October; and each summer session to extend from the 1st of May to the 31st of July.

FIRST YEAR.—Winter Session—Chemistry; Anatomy and Physiology; Anatomical Demonstrations. Summer Session—Materia Medica and Therapeutics; Botany and Vegetable Physiology; Midwifery, and Diseases of Women and Children.

SECOND YEAR.—Winter Session—Anatomy and Physiology; Anatomical Demonstrations; Dissections; Principles and Practice of Medicine;

THIRD YEAR { WINTER SESSION. { Dissections. / Principles and Practice of Medicine. / Medical Practice.* / Clinical Medicine and Morbid Anatomy.

PRACTICAL MIDWIFERY, at any time after the conclusion of the first course of Midwifery Lectures.

Note:—In place of the Second Course of Lectures on the Theory and Practice of Medicine, the Court will admit a certificate of Attendance on a Course of Clinical Lectures, delivered in a recognised Hospital by a distinct Professor, consisting of not less than seventy-five Lectures; attended by the Student after the first systematic course upon the Theory and Practice of Medicine.

The above course of study may be extended over a longer period than three winter and two summer sessions, provided the lectures and medical practice are attended in the order prescribed. Those gentlemen whose attendance on lectures commenced before the 1st Oct., 1849, will be allowed to complete their studies in conformity with the previous regulations.

No member of the Court of Examiners will be recognised as a lecturer on any branch of medical science. No lecturer will be recognised by the court who is not connected with a recognised medical school, or who teaches on more than two branches of medical science, nor until he has produced very satisfactory testimonials of his attainments in the science he purposes to teach, and of his ability as a teacher thereof, from at least two persons of acknowledged tatents and distinguished acquirements in the particular branch of science in question. Satisfactory assurance must also be given that the teacher is in possession of the means requisite for the full illustration of his lectures, viz., that he has, if lecturing—On chemistry, a laboratory and competent apparatus; on materia medica, a museum sufficiently extensive; on botany, a hortus siccus, plates or drawings, and recent plants; on midwifery, a museum, and such appointment in a public institution as may afford the means of practical instruction to the pupils. Lectures on anatomy, and physiology, and anatomical demonstrations, must be in conformity with the regulations of the Royal College of Surgeons. The lecturer on the principles and practice of medicine, if he lectures in London, must be a member of the Royal College of Physicians of London; and if in a provincial town, either a member of the Royal College of Physicians of London, or a graduated Doctor of Medicine of a British University of four years' standing, unless prior to his graduation he had been for four years a licentiate of this court. The lecturer on materia medica and therapeutics must be a Member of the Royal College of Physicians, or a graduated Doctor of Medicine of a British University of four years' standing, or he must have been a licentiate of this court for the same period. The lecturer on midwifery must be a member of one of the legally constituted Colleges of Physicians or Surgeons in the United Kingdom, of four years' standing, or he must have been a licentiate of this court for the same period. The names of the lecturers recognised by the court, may be known on application to the secretary, at the hall of the society. The certificates of teachers recognised by the constituted medical authorities in Ireland and Scotland, as also those of the medical professors in foreign universities, are received by the court. Much inconvenience having arisen from the presentation of schedules signed by lecturers unknown to the court, it is particularly requested that the registrars of the medical schools will furnish a correct list of their recognised teachers to the secretary of this court, at the commencement of every winter session.

HOSPITALS AND DISPENSARIES.

No hospital will be recognised by the court, unless—1. It contains at least one hundred beds, 2. It be under the care of two or more physicians, Members of the Royal College of Physicians of London, or graduated Doctors of Medicine of a British University; and an apothecary legally qualified, either by having been in practice prior to the 1st of August, 1815, or by having received a certificate of qualification from this court. 3. The physicians give lectures on clinical medicine, and instruction in morbid anatomy. No dispensary will be recognised by the court, unless it be situated in some town where there is a recognised medical school, and be under the care of at least two physicans and an apothecary legally qualified. No medical practice will be available, unless it be attended in conformity with the course of study prescribed for pupils.

REGISTRATION OF TESTIMONIALS.

All testimonials must be given on a printed schedule, and the blanks therein must be filled up by the lecturers themselves. Students will be supplied with schedules at the time of their first registration: In London, at this hall; in the provincial towns from the gentlemen who keep the registers of the medical schools, and whose names may be known by application to the secretary of this court. All students, in London, are required personally to register the several classes for which they have taken tickets, and those only will be considered as complying with the regulations of the court, whose names and classes in the register correspond with their schedules. Tickets of admission to lectures and medical practice must be registered in the months of October and May, but no ticket will be registered unless it be dated within seven days from the commencement of the course. Due notice of the days and hours of such registrations will be given from time to time. The court also require students at the provincial medical schools to register their names in their own handwriting, with the registrar of each respective school, within the first twenty-one days of October. and first fourteen days of May; and to register their certificates of having duly attended lectures or medical practice within fourteen days of the completion of such attendance. The registrars are requested to furnish the Court of Examiners with a copy of each registration immediately after its close, as those students only will be admitted to examination whose registrations have been duly communicated to the Court.

JUNIOR PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION IN CLASSICS AND MATHEMATICS.

An examination in classics and mathematics will be held at the hall three times in the year, viz., on the third Tuesday in the months of March,

Digitized by Google

July, and November. Medical students will be admitted to this examination at any period from the date of their apprenticeship to the commencement of the second winter session of their curriculum; and those who pass it will not be subject to any subsequent examination in Latin, except in the Pharmacopœia Londinensis and prescriptions. The subjects of examination will be announced in the medical journals three months before each examination. Candidates for this examination will be required to enter their names in a book kept at the beadle's office, not less than one month before the day of examination; and those gentlemen who fail to pass this examination, will have to undergo the Latin examination in Celsus and Gregory, when they present themselves for their general examination.

PRELIMINARY LATIN EXAMINATION.

On the first Saturday in the months of October, December, January, February, April, May, and June, those gentlemen who have completed two winter sessions of their medical studies, and have not previously failed in the preliminary classical and mathematical examination, may be admitted to an examination in Celsus and Gregory, provided there be twenty names on the list. Candidates will be required to enter their names in a book kept at the beadle's office, on or before the preceding Monday, and to attend at half-past three o'clock p.m. on the day of examination. Those gentlemen who fail to pass this examination satisfactorily will not be readmitted until they appear for their general examination.

EXAMINATION.

The Court of Examiners meet in the hall every Thursday, where candidates are required to attend at a quarter before four o'clock. Every person intending to offer himself for examination must give notice in writing to the Clerk of the Society on or before the Monday previously to the day of examination, and must at the same time deposit all the required testimonials at the office of the beadle, where attendance is given every day, except Sunday, from ten until four o'clock. The examination of the candidate for a certificate of qualification to practise as an apothecary, will be as follows: In translating portions of the first four books of Celsus de Medicinâ, and of the first twenty-three chapters of Gregory's Conspectus Medicinæ Theoreticæ; in physicians' prescriptions, and the Pharmacopœia Londinensis; in Chemistry; in practical chemistry; in materia medica and therapeutics; in botany; in anatomy; in physiology; in the principles and practice of medicine, including midwifery and the diseases of children.

The examination of the candidate for a certificate of qualification to act as assistant to an apothecary, in compounding and dispensing medicines, will be as follows: In translating physicians' prescriptions, and the Pharmacopœia Londinensis; in pharmacy and materia medica.

By the 22nd section of the Act of Parliament, no rejected candidate for a certificate to practise as an apothecary, can be re-examined until the expiration of six months from his former examination: and no rejected candidate as an assistant until the expiration of three months. The Act directs the following sums to be paid for certificates: For London, and within ten miles thereof, ten guineas; for all other parts of England and Wales, six guineas. Persons having paid the latter sum become entitled to practise in London, and within ten miles thereof, by paying four guineas in addition. For an assistant's certificate, two guineas.

By order of the Court,

Apothecaries' Hall, June 1, 1849. HENRY BLATCH, Secretary.

ARMY AND ORDNANCE MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

Office, 6 Whitehall-yard.

Direct.-Gen., Dr. A. Smith. Profess. Asst., Dep. Insp.-Gen. of Hosps., Dr. Dumbreck. Staff-Surg., 1st class—H. Pilleau, Esq. Staff-Surg. 2nd class—Dr. F. Reid. Apoth. to Forces—F. M. Bassano, Esq. Chief Clerk, J. Wimbridge, Esq.

The nominations of Assistant-Surgeons rest with the Director-General, Dr. Andrew Smith. A Board of Medical Officers examines all Candidates for Appointments in the Medical Department of the Army, as to their Professional Qualifications for the Service. In addition to the subjects mentioned in the subjoined Regulations which are imperative, they are expected to be particularly well acquainted with—1st, Tropical Diseases, and Diseases to which Soldiers are most liable; 2nd, Military Surgery; 3rd, Diseases of the Eye; 4th, Cutaneous Diseases; Willan's Classification of this branch of Medicine, and Cullen's Nosology of Diseases, are referred to, because the Army Medical Returns are made, to a certain extent, in conformity with their modes of nosological arrangement. They are required to translate, vivâ voce, a passage from a Greek or Latin Author, to have in their possession the most approved modern books on the various branches of Medicine and Surgery; those which are commonly met with in the Service are the Works of Hunter, Hennen, Guthrie, Cooper, Milligan, Ballingall, and Marshall on Examination of Recruits and Invalids; and those of Chisholm, Gregory, Bancroft, Blane, Burnet, Johnstone, and Annesley; and Mason Good, on Medicine and Diseases peculiar to warm Climates. They are required to produce such works, with their names inscribed therein, in order the better to satisfy the Examiner that they are bonâ fide their own property. Blank forms must be filled up at least to the extent of regulations, and sent in one clear week before the Candidate can be admitted for Examination.

Allowances under fixed regulations, according to the grades of the respective officers, are made for lodging and travelling expenses.

Promotions in the medical department of the army are regulated in the junior classes from Assistant-Surgeons to Surgeons, according to seniority; but promotions in the higher grades of the service are selections from the whole body of medical officers.

The average number of years' service is from nine to ten, before an assistant obtains a full surgeoncy. No army medical officer can realize any sum of money on his commission, like the purely military officer, as he, in no instance, purchases his commission.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY.

Admiralty Office, Somerset House.

THE EAST INDIA COMPANY'S MEDICAL SERVICE.

Sec., Sir J. C. Melvill, K.C.B.

Phys., Dr. Scott, 13, Stratton-st. Piccadilly.

Members of Board Exam., Mr. G. Busk, Dr. J. Hooker, Mr. J. Paget, Dr. E. A. Parkes.

All natural-born subjects of her Majesty between twenty-two and twenty-eight years of age, and of sound bodily health, may be candidates for admission into the service of the East-India Company as Assistant-Surgeons. They must subscribe and send in to Dr. Scott, the Physician to the Honourable East India Company, ten days before the period fixed for each examination, a declaration to the following effect:

"I (Christian and Surname at full length), a candidate for employment as an Assistant-Surgeon in the service of the East-India Company, do hereby declare that I was years of age on the day of last, and that I labour under no constitutional disease or physical disability that can interfere with the due discharge of the duties of a Medical officer; and I also attest my readiness to proceed on duty to India within three months of receiving my appointment."

This declaration must be accompanied by the following documents:—1. Proof of Age, either by extract from the Register of the Parish in which the candidate was born, or by his own declaration, pursuant to the Act 5 and 6 William IV, cap. 62. 2. A certificate of moral character from a magistrate, or a minister of the religious denomination to which the candidate belongs, who has personally known him for at least two preceding years. 3. A diploma in Surgery; or a degree in Medicine, provided an examination in Surgery be required for such degree; from some body competent by law to grant or confer such diploma or degree. 4. A certificate of having attended two courses of lectures, of six months each, on the practice of Physic, and of having attended, for six months, the practice and clinical instruction of the physicians at some hospital containing at least, on an average, one hundred in-patients; or of having attended one course of lectures, of six months, on the practice of Physic, and clinical instruction for twelve months. 5. A certificate of having attended for three months, the practical instruction given at one of the public Asylums for the treatment of the Insane. 6. A certificate of having attended, for three months, one of the institutions, or wards of an hospital especially devoted to the treatment of Ophthalmic disease. Candidates who may not have been able to attend the practice of an Asylum for the Insane, or of an Ophthalmic hospital, for three months previous to their offering themselves for examination, will not be excluded from examination, but will, if successful in obtaining recommendation for appointments, be required to produce certificates of having attended such practice during the interval between the examination and the time of proceding to India. 7. A certificate of having attended a course of lectures on Midwifery, and of having conducted at least six labours. 8. A certificate of having acquired a practical knowledge of cupping. Candidates may also, at their option, send in certificates of attendance at any hospitals, or on any course of lectures, in addition to the above. Attendance on a course of Military Surgery, and the practical study of surgical operations on the dead body, are recommended.

The examination will include the following subjects:—1. Surgery in all its departments. 2. Medicine, including the diseases of women and children, Therapeutics, Pharmacy, and Hygiene. 3. Anatomy and Physiology, including Comparative Anatomy. 4. Natural History, including Botany and Zoology.

The following are the books recommended—In Zoology and Comparative Anatomy; Outlines of the Structure of the Animal Kingdom, by Rymer Jones, or Cours Elémentaire d'Histoire Naturelle, par Milne Edwards—Botany: Lindlay's School Botany, or Lindley's Elements of Botany.

The examination will be conducted—1. By means of written questions and answers. 2. By object examinations and experiments, when the subject admits of such tests. 3. By practical examination of patients, and by operations on the dead body. 4. By vivâ voce examination.

The persons who shall be pronounced by the Examiners to be the best qualified in all respects will be appointed to fill the requisite number of appointments as Assistant-Surgeons in the East India Company's service, and, so far as the requirements of the service will permit, they will have the choice of the Presidency in India to which they shall be appointed, according to the order of merit in which they stand on the list resulting from such examination.

All Assistant-Surgeons are required to subscribe to the Military or Medical, and Medical Retiring Funds, at the Presidencies to which they may be respectively appointed, and to the Military Orphan Society also, if appointed to Bengal.

All Assistant-Surgeons who shall neglect or refuse to proceed to India under the orders of the Court of Directors, within three months from the date of their appointment, will be considered as having forfeited it, unless special circumstances shall justify a departure from this regulation.

A copy of these regulations, and any further information, may be obtained on application to the Secretary of the Military department, East-India House.

The examinations will take place in the months of January and July in each year, and due notice will be given by public advertisement of the days appointed and of the probable number of candidates to be selected.

The Examiners for Assistant-Surgeons in the Honourable East-India Company's Service, having received many inquiries as to the object and extent of the Examination in Comparative Anatomy, Zoology, and Botany, have considered it desirable to announce that their objects are,—1. To ascertain who of the candidates have devoted especial attention to any of these sciences, and are hence qualified to undertake duties requiring a knowledge of them, as well as the general duties of their profession. Proficiency in these sciences will, in classifying the candidates by merit, be entitled to great consideration. 2. To encourage all candidates to acquire an elementary knowledge of the structure and affinities of the principal natural families of Animals and of Plants, with the general plan upon which these are constructed, and the functions and relations of their most important organs. 3. To promote the study of Natural History as a most important adjunct or preliminary to a liberal Medical education; that of Comparative Anatomy, Zoology, or Botany, if properly cultivated, by means of specimens, for even a short period, being eminently calculated to develop habits of close observation, and to strengthen those powers of reasoning upon observed facts which must be habitually exercised by Medical men everywhere, but which must be exercised with the greatest energy and promptitude by those who practice in a tropical climate, and who are often thrown wholly upon their own resources. The general examination in these sciences will be elementary, and will embrace a very limited range of technical terms. At the written examination, a considerable number of questions will be put, with the view of allowing each candidate to select such subjects as he has attended to, and, thereby, of enabling the Examiners to ascertain the particular departments of science in which the verbal examination should be conducted. With those candidates who have attained proficiency in any branch of these sciences, the verbal examination will be pursued in the branch selected, so as to ascertain the full extent of their knowledge.

The examinations after death are made in the Pathological Theatre, at twelve o'clock. Demonstrator of Morbid Anatomy, Mr. Callender, Registrar to the hospital.

Surgical operations on Saturdays, at half-past one o'clock.

Cases in Midwifery are attended, as out-patients of the hospital, by the students of the midwifery class, under the superintendence of the Physician-Accoucheur. More than 600 cases are thus attended annually.

All students of the first year are examined weekly in the several subjects of their studies by the tutor, Mr. Savory.

The Museums of Anatomy, Materia Medica, and Botany, are open daily to the students of the respective classes.

A reading-room is open to all students of the school during the greater part of the day. Subscription to the Medical Journals, for three years, 10s. 6d.

The Library contains upwards of 4,000 volumes of the standard works on Medical and other sciences, with the chief Medical Journals, which are circulated among the subscribers. Subscription, for twelve months, 1*l.* 1s.; for three years, 1*l.* 11s. 6d.; for four years, 2*l.* 2s.

Collegiate Establishment: Under the direction of the Treasurer and a Committee of the Governors of the Hospital, houses within the hospital-walls have been fitted up as a college, for the residence of forty students.

The establishment is under the superintendence of a resident Warden, from whom the rules may be obtained.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND PRIZES: Examinations are held in the several classes at the end of each session, and scholarships, prizes, and honorary distinctions are awarded in October.

Two Scholarships, of the value of 45*l.* for one year, will be awarded in May, 1857. The subjects of examination will be, for one, Medicine, Surgery, Materia Medica, and Toxicology; for the other, Anatomy, Physiology, and Chemistry.

The Wix Prize, founded by the Rev. S. Wix, Vicar and Hospitaller, will, in 1857, be given for the best Essay on the proof accruing to Christianity from the fulfilment of prophecy, in connection with the miracles recorded in the Gospel.

The President's Prize will, in 1857, be given for the best report of medical cases observed in the hospital during the previous year.

The Bentley Prize, founded by James Bentley, Esq., late Treasurer of the hospital, will, in 1857, be given for the best report of surgical cases observed in the hospital during the previous year.

The Hichens Prize, founded by Robert Hitchens, Esq., will be given to the student who passes the best Examination in Bishop Butler's "Analogy of Natural and Revealed Religion."

The Foster Prize, founded by George Holgate Foster, Esq., for the encouragement of Practical Anatomy, will be given to the student who shall display the greatest industry and skill in the dissecting-rooms.

Mr Lloyd will give a Prize for the best report of certain Hospital-cases—their history and treatment.

Prizes of Books or Instruments, and Honorary Certificates, will be awarded to the students who give proof of proficiency in the several subjects of study. The rules to be observed by candidates for the several scholarships and prizes may be seen in the museum or the library of the hospital, or in the "Students' Handbook."

MEDICAL OFFICERS OF THE PUBLIC SERVICES.—The medical officers of the Army and Navy, are admitted to the practice and lectures at this hospital, upon presenting a recommendation for that purpose from the heads of their respective departments.

THE MEDALS AND TESTIMONIALS OF HONOUR—Are awarded in conformity with the following arrangements:—The competitors for the Governors' general proficiency medal, are to be in the last session of their attendance on the medical and surgical practice of the hospital, and all the classes of the medical college, for the full period required to qualify for examination by the College of Surgeons and Society of Apothecaries. Competitors for this medal, or for the Governors' clinical medal, are not to compete for the class medals, nor are the competitors for the Governors' general proficiency medal to compete for the clinical medal, the qualifications required for each being practically similar. Competitors for the Governors' clinical medal are to have attended for the full period the medical and surgical practice of the hospital, with or without attendance on the various classes of the College. Competitors for the silver class medals, and testimonials of honour of the senior classes, are to be in the second or third session of their attendance in the classes for the medal or testimonials for which they are competitors. Competitors for the bronze medals, and testimonials of honour of the junior classes, are to have completed when the current session shall be ended one session of attendance in the classes for the medal or testimonials for which they are competitors.

ST. GEORGE'S HOSPITAL, HYDE-PARK-CORNER.

Phys., Drs. J. A. Wilson, Nairne, Page, and B. Jones.—Obst. Phys., Dr. R. Lee.—Asst.-Phys., Drs. Pitman and Fuller.—Surgs., Messrs. C. Hawkins, Cutler, Tatum, and H. C. Johnson.—Asst.-Surgs., Messrs. P. Hewett and G. D. Pollock.—Apoth., J. H. Hammerton.—Sec., Mr. Gunning.—Asst.-Sec., Mr. Holmes.

This hospital contains 350 beds, of which 200 are allotted to surgical, and 150 to medical cases.

Gentlemen becoming pupils of this hospital, who desire to be Members of the Royal College of Surgeons, or Licentiates of the Society of Apothecaries, may qualify themselves for examination on paying forty guineas at the commencement of the 1st year; forty guineas at the commencement of the 2nd year; and twelve guineas at the commencement of the 3rd year.

The payment for the year will admit the pupil to all the lectures, and to the hospital practice required, for that year only.

Special entries to hospital practice, or to any separate course of lectures, may be made as heretofore:—viz.

To the practice of the Physicians on the following terms—

For the period required to qualify for Examination by the Society of Apothecaries, 16*l.* 16s.; for six months, 8*l.* 8s.; for one year, 16*l.* 16s; for each additional year, 8*l.* 8s.; Perpetual pupils, 25*l.* 4s.; Fee to the Apothecary, 1*l.* 1s.

To the practice of the Surgeons on the following terms—

For the period required to qualify for Examination by the Royal College of Surgeons, 21*l.*; for one year, 21*l.*; for six months, 15*l.* 15s.; for each additional year, 10*l.* 10s.; Perpetual pupils, 52*l.* 10s.

A Maternity Department, for the delivery of married lying-in women at their own homes, is established at the hospital, under the superintendence of the Obstetric Physician.

Attendance of the Physicians and Surgeons daily at one o'clock. Surgical operations on Thursday at one o'clock.

Clinical Lectures are given by the physicians and surgeons of the hospital during the winter and summer sessions.

Clinical Instruction on the diseases peculiar to women is given in the wards of the hospital by the Obstetric Physician.

Ophthalmic Surgery: Patients with diseases of the eye are treated by Mr. Tatum, on Tuesdays and Saturdays, at nine o'clock.

Practical Pharmacy: Gentlemen may be instructed in pharmacy, in the laboratory and dispensary of the hospital, on the following terms—six months, 12*l.* 12s.; twelve months, 15*l.* 15s.

Clinical Clerks: The pupils attending the medical practice may become, when qualified, clinical clerks to the several physicians. The pupils attending the surgical practice may become, when qualified, clinical clerks to the several surgeons.

Dressers: Pupils entering to the surgical practice for twelve months are allowed, when qualified, to dress the patients for three months, and perpetual pupils for six months, without additional fee. The dresser of the surgeon of the week boards at the hospital, free of expense.

House-Surgeons: The perpetual pupils are eligible to be Assistant House-Surgeon for six months, and House-Surgeon for twelve months (without additional fee), when properly qualified for the office.

Obstetric Assistant: Those students of the hospital who have been pupils of the physicians or surgeons for two years are, under certain regulations, eligible to the office of Obstetric Assistant, without additional fee.

The Library and Reading-Room are open during the greater part of the day. Subscription for the first year, one guinea, and five shillings for every subsequent year.

The Museum is open daily to the pupils of the hospital.

LECTURES.

Descriptive and Surgical Anatomy: Messrs. Pollock and H. Gray. In these lectures, the numerous parts and organs of which the human body consists are described with reference to their form and mutual relations, especially in their connexion with surgery. Recent dissections, drawings, and preparations are made use of for the purpose of illustration.

Physiology and General Anatomy: Mr. A. Johnson. The structure and properties of the different tissues common to several organs are minutely described in this course, as also the functions performed by those organs either separately, or combined for a common purpose, and the laws which govern their actions. These lectures are illustrated by recent dissections and anatomical preparations, human and comparative, by experiments and diagrams. Microscopical Demonstrations are given frequently in the course of the session.

Practical Anatomy: The students will be assisted in their studies, during several hours daily, by the demonstrators, T. Holmes and H. V. Carter, under the direction of the lecturers.

Theory and Practice of Physic: Drs. Nairne and Page. A general view of symptoms and their relations to disordered functions, and to the several forms of altered structure, is given in this course of lectures; and also the special application of the general facts and doctrines which have been ascertained and established. The lectures are illustrated by recent specimens of morbid structure, by preparations from the museum, and by drawings.

Theory and Practice of Surgery: Mr. Tatum. These lectures include an exposition of the principles on which a knowledge of diseased structures is based, and an explanation of the various ways in which nature attempts the reparative process. The principal operations of surgery are performed on the dead body during the course, and diseases, accidents, and injuries are illustrated by drawings, casts, recent specimens, and morbid preparations, including the extensive series presented to the hospital by Sir B. C. Brodie, Bart., and C. Hawkins.

Chemistry: Dr. H. M. Noad. These lectures will be divided into three sections. The first will be occupied with a full consideration of the fundamental doctrines of chemistry. In the second division, the materials of the inorganic world, and their most important combinations, will be examined. The third division will be devoted to as extensive an inquiry into the important department of animal and vegetable chemistry as the limits of the course will allow.

Practical Chemistry: A commodious laboratory has been arranged, and every requisite provided to carry into full effect the new regulations of the

Digitized by Google

Society of Apothecaries, which require "a specific course of instruction to be given in the laboratory, with an opportunity of personal manipulation in the ordinary processes of chemistry, and of acquiring a knowledge of the various re-agents for poisons."

WINTER SESSION: Scale of fees for practical instruction (to be paid on entrance), including the use of apparatus and materials, excepting platinum and silver, and their salts, which are found by the student. For every day in the week, from Oct. 1st to March 31st, 18*l.* 18s.; for four days in the week, 15*l.* 15s.; for three days, 12*l.* 12s.; for two days, 10*l.* 10s.; for one day, 8*l.* 8s.; for one month (every day in the week), 5*l.* 5s.; for one month (four days in the week), 4*l.* 4s.; for one month (three days in the week), 3*l.* 3s.

SUMMER SESSION.

The course of instruction in practical chemistry required by the Apothecaries' Company is comprised in thirty lessons of two hours each. It commences May 1st, and terminates about the middle of July. Hours from half-past two till half-past four. Fee (including the use of materials), 4*l.* 4s.

Midwifery and Diseases of Women and Children: Dr. R. Lee. These lectures comprehend—1. The Anatomy and Pathology of the unimpregnated Uterine System. 2. A description of the Gravid Uterus, and an account of the diseases of Pregnant Women. 3. The symptoms and Treatment of all the varieties of Parturition. 4. The Diseases of Puerperal Women. 5. The Diseases of Infants. Numerous drawings and engravings, and an extensive museum, are used to illustrate these lectures. Pupils have ample opportunities of attending practical midwifery, a maternity department for the delivery of married lying-in women at their own homes being established at the hospital, under the superintendence of the Obstetric Physician.

Materia Medica: Dr. Pitman. This course embraces a consideration of all substances which are used as medicines, arranged in groups according to their action as remedial agents. Their physical and chemical characters are described; the mode of detecting their adulterations illustrated by experiments; the principal operations of pharmacy explained; and a few lectures are devoted to the theory and art of prescribing. Diagrams, drawings, and specimens are used for the purpose of illustration, and an extensive collection of Materia Medica is open for the use of the students.

Medical Jurisdiction: Dr. Fuller. The application of the physiological, medical, and surgical sciences to the elucidation of legal investigations, including Toxicology, is taught in these lectures.

Botany: Mr. M. T. Masters. This course comprises the Anatomy and Physiology of the Vegetable Kingdom, including an explanation of the natural and artificial systems of classification. Fresh and dried specimens of plants, with numerous drawings, are used to illustrate these lectures, and herborising excursions are made during the session.

Scholarships and Prizes: Examinations of those students who are candidates for prizes and certificates of merit will take place at the end of each course. Examinations will be held for three exhibitions; two of 30*l.* each for students in their first year, and one of 50*l.* for a student in his second year; the subjects of examinations will be for the first year's students, Anatomy, Chemistry, and Materia Medica; for the second year's students, Anatomy and Physiology, Medicine, Surgery, and Midwifery. Candidates must be matriculated students, who can produce a testimonial, signed by at least three of the physicians or surgeons of the hospital, that they have conducted themselves with propriety during their attendance in the school.

Sir Benjamin Brodie's Clinical Prize will be awarded to the matriculated surgeon's pupil of the hospital who shall have delivered to the surgeons the best report of not fewer than twelve surgical cases which have occurred in the hospital during the preceding twelve months, each case being accompanied with notes illustrative of the pathology, diagnosis, and treatment. The reports are to be sent, sealed up with a motto on the outside of the cover, to the junior surgeon, on or before the 31st of July; and another sealed paper, with the same motto on the outside, and with the name and address of the candidate inside, is to be sent with them. The papers containing the names of the unsuccessful candidates will be burned unopened, and their reports will be returned when applied for.

Dr. Chambers's Clinical Prize will be awarded to the matriculated physician's pupil of the hospital who shall produce the best report of not fewer than twelve medical cases which have occurred in the hospital during the preceding twelve months. The same regulations are to be followed as in the case of the surgical clinical prize, and the reports are to be sent to the junior physician, on or before the 31st of July.

The Thompson Medal will be awarded for the best clinical report of medical and surgical cases observed in the hospital during the preceding twelve months. The same regulations are to be followed as in the case of the surgical clinical prize, and the reports are to be sent to the junior physician, on or before the 31st of July.

Sir Charles Clarke's Prize for Good Conduct will be awarded to the student of the hospital whose general good conduct most entitles him to this distinction.

Curator of the Pathological Museum: A curator is appointed annually by the weekly board, on the recommendation of the Medical School Council, with a salary of 50*l.* per annum.

Registrars: Two registrars are appointed annually by the weekly board, on the recommendation of the Medical School Council, each with a salary of 20*l.* per annum.

Regulations respecting Students: A register is kept, in which the names of all students in St. George's Hospital Medical School, the lectures which they attend, and the certificates which they obtain, may be registered. The fee for registration is one guinea.

Students who wish to be matriculated students are required to receive the entire medical education ordered by the College of Surgeons and Society of Apothecaries in the Medical School of the hospital, and to be registered in the Hospital Medical School Register. But other students are also strongly recommended to have their names registered, as the advantage is obvious in being able at any time to obtain certificates, should they be entitled to them.

The attention of students is particularly directed to the following regulations:—1. Every student must, at the beginning of every session, take out tickets from the Treasurer of the Hospital School, Mr. Pollock, or, in his absence, from the Apothecary of the Hospital (to whom all fees may be paid), for the lectures which he proposes to attend. After the tickets have been registered, they must be taken to the respective lecturers, for their signatures. 2. All certificates must be obtained from the treasurer. 3. Towards the close of the Winter and Summer Sessions, certificates of attendance on the lectures will be prepared for those students who are entitled to them, signed by the respective lecturers of the Hospital Medical School. 4. Students are particularly requested to give their schedules to Mr. Pollock as soon as they procure them from the College and the Hall, to take a receipt for the same, and to apply for their certificates at the conclusion of each session. 5. Certificates will not be granted to those students who neglect to comply with these regulations.

 Further information may be obtained from Mr. Pollock, the Treasurer of the School, from any of the lecturers, or from Mr. Hammerton, the Apothecary of the hospital, who is authorised to enter the names of students.

Some of the lecturers and other gentlemen connected with the hospital receive students to reside with them.

GROSVENOR-PLACE SCHOOL OF ANATOMY AND MEDICINE,

ADJOINING ST. GEORGE'S HOSPITAL.

This school was established in 1830, to afford the students attending the practice of St. George's Hospital the opportunity of studying anatomy in premises contiguous to the hospital. The original plan was gradually extended, till all the departments of a recognised medical school were completed. Several hundreds of medical men have now been educated within its walls, and the present teachers are anxious to carry out more thoroughly the practical character of the instruction which has commanded for this school so large an amount of success. In order to do this effectively, arrangements have been made to enable each lecturer to ascertain the progress his pupil is making in his studies. Every opportunity is also taken by the lecturers to bring before the student cases, preparations and specimens, in order that he may acquire a practical knowledge of his profession. It has often been a matter of regret, that medical students should so frequently find it necessary to have recourse to routine preparations before their final examinations. In order to prevent any necessity for extra-academical teaching, classes are formed of those students who are about to undergo their examinations. These classes are regularly conducted by the various lecturers, who endeavour to blend the demonstrative and tutorial with the professorial character of their teaching.

Fees for Lectures.—Fee for the entire Course of Lectures, Forty-two Guineas, half of which may be paid in October, and the other half at Christmas.

Gentlemen who have previously entered to lectures at any other recognised school in the United Kingdom, will be admitted to any of the classes they have joined, on payment of half the perpetual fee of those classes.

Fees for Lectures and Hospital Practice.—Pupils at this school are within a convenient distance of several hospitals, and on payment of a single fee of Seventy Guineas, or by two fees of Thirty-seven Guineas each, paid at the commencement of the first and second Winter Sessions, will be free to the lectures of the Grosvenor-place School of Medicine, and to the Medical and Surgical practice of any one of the following hospitals:—St. George's Hospital, adjoining the Grosvenor-place School of Medicine; St. Mary's Hospital, Paddington; Charing-cross Hospital, King William-street, Strand; Westminster Hospital, Broadway, Westminster; and Middlesex Hospital, Charles-street, Cavendish-square.

The following courses of lectures are delivered during the Winter and Summer Sessions, and qualify for examination at the University of London, the Royal Colleges of Physicians and Surgeons, the Apothecaries' Society, and the Army, Navy, and East India Medical Boards.

WINTER SESSION.

Anatomy and Physiology: Dr. E. Lankester. Daily, except Saturday, at nine a.m. Single course, 6*l.* 6*s.*; perpetual, 8*l.* 8*s.*

Histiology, with Microscopical Demonstrations: Dr. W. Webb. Saturday, at nine a.m.

Descriptive and Surgical Anatomy: Dr. A. Deville. Daily, at eleven a.m. Single course, 6*l.* 6*s.*; perpetual, 8*l.* 8*s.* Prosectors, Messrs. E. A. Hart and A. J. Bannister.

Principles and Practice of Medicine: Dr. E. Ballard. Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, at four p.m. Single course, 5*l.* 5*s.*; perpetual, 6*l.* 6*s.*

The Principles and Practice of Surgery: Messrs. T. Spencer Wells and W. Adams, Monday, Friday, and Saturday, at four p.m. Single course, 5*l.* 5*s.*; perpetual, 6*l.* 6*s.*

Military Surgery, as well as the Nature and Treatment of Gunshot Wounds: Mr. G. E. Blenkins. Tuesday and Thursday, at three p.m. This course will comprise the consideration of the diseases of climates to which soldiers are liable, the sanitary arrangement of camps and barracks, examination of recruits, disabilities and invaliding, feigned maladies—in short, all that relates to the special duties of the military medical man, or the health and well-being of soldiers, in camp or in quarters.

Chemistry: Mr. J. E. D. Rodgers. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at three p.m. Single course, 5*l.* 5*s.*; perpetual, 6*l.* 6*s.*

SUMMER SESSION.

Operative Surgery: Dr. Deville. Daily at 11. The pupils in this class are divided into series of eight, before whom the whole of the operations of Surgery are demonstrated by Dr. Deville. Fee for the course, 7*l.* 7*s.*

Botany: Dr. Lankester. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at 9 a.m. The course will be illustrated by fresh specimens; demonstrations with the Microscope will be given, and occasional excursions will be made with the class. Single course, 3*l.* 3s.; perpetual, 4*l.* 4s.

Practical Chemistry: Mr. Rodgers. Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at 9½ a m. In this course the student performs all the experiments necessary for his instruction in Analytical and Toxicological Chemistry, under the superintendence of the lecturer. Fee for the course, 3*l.* 3s.

Materia Medica and Therapeutics: Dr. P. B. Ayres. Daily, except Saturday, at 4 p.m. Single course, 5*l.* 5s.; perpetual, 6*l.* 6s. This course will be illustrated by an extensive series of Diagrams, and a complete Museum, to which the student will have constant access.

Midwifery, and Diseases of Women and Children: Mr. Bloxam. Daily, except Saturday, at ¼ to 3 p.m. Single course, 3*l.* 3s.; perpetual, 6*l.* 6s. Pupils of this class will be provided with cases when qualified to attend them.

Medical Jurisprudence: Dr. B. W. Richardson. Daily at 8 a.m. Single course, 3*l.* 3s.; perpetual, 4*l.* 4s. This course is practically illustrated throughout by tables, Physiological and Chemical experiments, and Dissections.

Comparative Anatomy and Zoology: Mr. Hulme. Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at 10 a.m. Single course, 2*l.* 2s.; perpetual, 3*l.* 3s. The lectures will be illustrated by diagrams and specimens. The course is such as is required by the Army and Navy Boards, by the College of Surgeons for the Fellowship Examination, and by the University of London.

Dental Surgery: Mr. Hulme. Single course, 1*l* 1s.; perpetual, 2*l.* 2s.

The Physicians and Surgeons connected with the School have made arrangements for their pupils to attend the practice of the various institutions with which they are connected.

The Museums of Anatomy, Pathological Anatomy, and Materia Medica, are constantly open to the students for the purposes of study, and contain every specimen necessary for his assistance.

Demonstrations with the Microscope are regularly given in the courses of lectures on Anatomy, Physiology, Pathology, and Botany.

Pupils desirous of cultivating the important art of Organic Analysis will have an opportunity of doing so, under the direction of the Lecturer on Chemistry, or by attendance on the classes at the Royal College of Chemistry.

Prizes and Certificates of Honour are awarded at the end of the session to those pupils who most distinguish themselves in the public examinations of their classes.

The Dissecting Rooms are open daily from 8 a.m. till dusk. Dr. Deville will attend in the rooms four hours daily, to superintend the Dissections and assist the students, instituting frequent examinations, in order to assure a thorough practical knowledge of Anatomy.

Messrs. Ernest A. Hart and E. A. Bannister are constantly in attendance in the Dissecting Room.

Some of the Lecturers receive private pupils to reside with them, whose studies they superintend.

Any further particulars may be obtained by application to Dr. Lankester, 8, Savile-row; Mr. R W. Burford, at the school, 1, Grosvenor-place; or at the private residences of any of the Lecturers.

Children are admitted into the general wards, where special accommodation is provided for their reception. The eye infirmary which pupils attend is under the care of the ophthalmic surgeon; attendance, Monday and Thursdays, at 12. There is also a lying-in charity, to which the pupils have access, and wards appropriated to female diseases, under the care of the physicians-accoucheur, by whom clinical lectures and instructions are given. The library, reading-room, museums of human and comparative anatomy, anatomical model room, models of cutaneous diseases (by Mr. Towne, modeller), are open to the students daily. The specimens in these museums, with the drawings and diagrams in all, amount to upwards of 15,000. Pupils entering to the hospital practice are expected to produce testimonials as to moral character and general acquirements. Connected with the institution are Physical and Clinical Societies.

This hospital contains upwards of 580 beds, and has, in addition to the ordinary medical and surgical, ophthalmic and obstetric wards.

Upwards of 40,000 out-patients are annually relieved.

Guy's Hospital Lying-in Charity.—It is the object of this charity to provide attendance during confinement for poor women, living within a distance of two miles from the hospital, at their own homes.

Cards are issued beforehand, on application, to persons who are proper objects for relief, and are to be presented, when labour is coming on, at the hospital, when provision will be immediately made for attendance on the case.

The charity is under the general direction and superintendence of the Obstetric physicians of the hospital, who are aided in carrying on the business of the charity by the resident Obstetric clerks, and by the pupils on the midwifery list.

Two books are to be kept in this department of the hospital—(1) A record of all persons to whom cards shall have been issued entitling them to the benefits of the charity. (2) A register of all cases actually attended from the charity: such register to contain all important details respecting the several cases.

Average number of women delivered by the agency of this charity, nearly 1,800 per annum.

Curator of the Museum: Dr. Wilks.
The library, museums, and model-rooms are open daily to the students, from nine o'clock a.m. till five o'clock.

Gentlemen desirous of becoming students must produce satisfactory testimony as to their education and conduct; they are required to pay 40*l.* for the first year, 40*l.* for the second year, and 10*l.* for every succeeding year of attendance. One payment of 100*l.* entitles a student to a perpetual ticket. The payment for the year admits to the lectures, practice, and all the privileges of a student for that year only.

Clinical clerks, dressers, ward clerks, dressers' reporters, obstetric residents, and dressers in the eye ward, are selected according to merit from those students who have attended a second year. Every student will be required to sign an engagement to conform to the rules and regulations for the internal management of the hospital. The privileges of a student will be withdrawn in the event of neglect or misconduct. Certificates will not be given for lectures, and practice, unless duly attended.

Mr Stocker, Apothecary to Guy's Hospital, is authorised to enter the names of students.

Res. Med. Tutor, Mr. J. W. Hulke. The duty of the medical tutor is to assist the students living in the College, as well as the non-resident students, in the subjects of the lectures of their first and second years.

HOSPITAL PRACTICE.

This hospital is situate in the immediate neighbourhood of the College. Dr. Arthur Farre attends at half-past twelve o'clock on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays. Clinical Lectures are delivered at one, on alternate Mondays, by Dr. Budd,; Tuesdays, by Dr. Todd; and at two, on alternate Tuesdays, by Mr. W. Fergusson; Fridays, by Mr. R. Partridge. Perpetual admission to the Medical and Surgical Practice: For Matriculated students, 31*l.* 10s.; not matriculated, 36*l.* 15s. Medical Practice: Three months, 6*l.* 6s.; six months, 10*l.* 10s.; eighteen months, 15*l.* 15s.; perpetual, 21*l.* Surgical Practice: Three months, 10*l.* 10s.; six months, 15*l.* 15s.; twenty-one months, 21*l.*; perpetual, 26*l.* 5s. The fees for matriculation amount to 4*l.* 15s. 6d., and must be paid on entrance.

The Fees for perpetual admission to every Course (except the Class of Analytical Chemistry and the Courses of Logic and Natural Philosophy), including the Hospital, amount to 108*l.* 3s.

It is strongly recommended that the Fee for attendance on the Medical Tutor's Class for one year be added:—Fee to resident Students, 2*l.* 2s.; to non-resident Students, 3*l.* 3s. All resident Students are required to attend the Tutor during their first year.

The fees may be paid either in one sum on Matriculation, or in two equal sums; the one at the commencement of the first Winter or Summer Session, the other after the first Christmas vacation, nor later than Jan. 21st, unless other arrangements are made at the time of entrance; but for full particulars respecting the payment of fees, see the King's College Calendar ed. 1856-7, page 143.

Analytical and Experimental Chemistry: Besides the Chemical Course and the summer class of Practical Chemistry, provision is made for those students who wish to become more minutely acquainted with certain subdivisions of the science. The class formed for this purpose is conducted in the laboratory, under the superintendence of the Professors and Demonstrator. By this means each student will be enabled to familiarise himself with the methods of analysis and research. Attention is particularly given to Analytical and Agricultural Chemistry, and processes of manufacturing art. The fees for admission to the Laboratory Class are, for one month, 4*l.* 4s.; for three months, 10*l.* 10s.; for six months, 18*l.* 18s., &c.

Pathological Chemistry: Demonstrations on the Urine: Dr. Beale, Professor of Physiology, has a laboratory adjoining King's College Hospital, arranged especially for the prosecution of microscopical researches in connexion with Pathology and Chemical Medicine. Fee, 5*l.* 5s. per month. He also gives practical demonstrations on the chemical and microscopical character of the urine. Fee for the course of demonstrations, 2*l.* 2s. For further particulars, see the King's College Calendar.

Natural Philosophy and Logic: Courses of Natural Philosophy and Logic, as required by the Army Medical Board, will be given in the first part of each winter session.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

A. Warneford Scholarships: The sum of 200*l.* is set apart annually, in consideration of 5,000*l.* presented to the College by the late Rev. S. W. Warneford, LL.D., for Scholarships to students of this department, viz.:

Class I.—"For the encouragement of the previous Education of Medical Students." Two Scholarships of 25*l.* per annum, for three years, are open to all new matriculated medical students at the beginning of their first winter session. Candidates are examined in Divinity, the Classics, English History, Mathematics, and the Modern Languages. An equal number of marks are assigned to each subject.

Class II.—"For the encouragement of Resident Medical Students." One Scholarship (at least) of 25*l.* per annum, for two years, is open to all second year matriculated medical students who, during at least six months of their first academical year, and the whole of their second academical year, } shall have resided within the limits of the College, and shall produce certain specified certificates. Candidates are examined in Divinity, and in the particulars of hospital practice.

B. College Scholarships: The Council of King's College give, at the close of each winter session, the following Scholarships to matriculated students of the medical department:

1. One of 40*l.* per annum, for three years, open to students of the third and fourth years.

2. One of 30*l.* per annum, for two years, open to students of the second year.

3. Three of 20*l.* per annum, for two years, open to students of the first year.

The subjects for these examinations, with the exception of certain specified portions of divinity (and Latin in the case of the Junior Scholarships), are wholly medical.

C. Daniell Scholarship: This Scholarship has been founded in honour of the late Professor Daniell, and is open to every student of the College, whether matriculated or occasional. It is of the annual value of 20*l.*, tenable for two years; and is given every second year for the best series of researches in Chemistry made in the laboratory of the College since the last award.

Digitized by Google

D. Divinity Scholarship: This Scholarship of 30*l.* is also open to matriculated students of this department.

PRIZES.

A. Leathes Prizes: The interest of 300*l.*, bequeathed by the late P. H. Leathes, Esq., is applied in the purchase of a Bible and Prayer Book, as annual prizes to the two medical students who shall be found most worthy of the same, for their proficiency in religious knowledge, and for their general good conduct.

B. Warneford Prizes: The sum of 40*l.* is set apart annually in consideration of 1,000*l.* presented to the College by the late Rev. S. W. Warneford, LL.D., and is expended in the purchase of medals and books, as prizes to the two medical students who shall most distinguish themselves at an examination consisting of questions in—1. Any two branches of medical science taught in the College, to be selected by the candidates. 2. The Holy Scriptures. 3. Butler's Analogy. The first prize is of the value of 25*l.*, and the second of 15*l.*

Matriculated students only can become candidates for the prizes A. and B., the examination for which takes place in October of each year.

C. Class Prizes and Certificates of Honour: Prizes are awarded annually for proficiency in the several subjects of Anatomy, Physiology, Chemistry, Materia Medica, Surgery, Medicine, Midwifery, Botany, Forensic Medicine, Comparative Anatomy, and Practical Chemistry. These consist of books of the value of 3*l.*

Certificates of Honour are given to such students in each class as the respective Professors shall consider entitled to receive them.

Two Medical Clinical Prizes, one of 3*l.*, for the winter session, and the other, of 2*l.*, for the summer session; and two surgical clinical prizes of the same value, are given for the best examination upon the cases treated of in the hospital, and upon the subjects discussed in the clinical lectures delivered during the winter and summer sessions respectively.

All students, occasional as well as matriculated, will be admitted to contend for the class prizes C, under rules laid down as to the number of courses of lectures.

Associates of King's College: At the end of each winter session, the Professors lay before the Council the names of those medical students whom they recommend to be elected Associates of King's College, London, on account of general good conduct, regularity of attendance at the classes in the College and at the hospital, and professional acquirements.

Degrees: Students of this College are admitted to degrees in Arts and Medicine, and for the honours, exhibitions, and Scholarships conferred by the Senate of the University of London.

By a regulation of the University of Edinburgh, three out of the four years of study required by that University for its degree of M.D. may be passed at King's College.

Residence of Students: Rooms are provided within the walls of the College for the residence of a limited number of matriculated students. The Censor of the College lives within its walls, and to him is committed by the Council the Superintendence of all resident students under academical discipline.

Some of the Professors receive pupils into their houses.

The Council have also sanctioned a limited number of medical gentlemen, residing in London or its immediate neighbourhood, to receive pupils into their houses.

The parents or guardians of students are earnestly requested to communicate with the Dean of the Medical Department before fixing their place of residence.

Dining Hall: There is a Dining Hall in the College, for the accommodation of the resident students, and for such other students as may desire to avail themselves of it.

The Dean of the Medical Department attends in the Marsden Library every morning from a quarter-past ten to eleven o'clock, and any letter addressed to him at King's College, London, on the subject of this department, will receive early attention.

LONDON HOSPITAL, WHITECHAPEL.

Phys., Drs. Little, H. Fraser, and Davies.—Asst.-Phys., Drs. Parker. Gibbon, and A. Clark.—Surgs., Messrs. Luke, Adams, and Curling, Asst.-Surgs., Messrs. Critchett, N. Ward, and J. C. Wordsworth.—Obst.-Phys., Dr. Ramsbotham.

The London Hospital contains 450 beds, of which about 150 are allotted to medical, and 300 to surgical cases. Of these 300 beds, upwards of 200 are exclusively appropriated to cases of accident. In the year 1855 21,677 patients were relieved, including 3,947 in-patients, and 17,730 out-patients. The accidents brought to the hospital during 1855 were 10,152, including 2,224 in-patients and 7,928 out-patients.

The Winter Session commenced on Wednesday, October 1st, 1856, when the Introductory Lecture was delivered by Prof. Bentley, at three p.m. Lectures on Anatomy, Physiology, and General and Morbid Anatomy, Chemistry, Medicine, and Surgery, will be given.

The Summer Session will commence on the 1st of May, 1857. Lectures on midwifery, materia medica, botany, forensic medicine, comparative anatomy, practical chemistry, and practical histology, will be given.

General fee for attendance on the medical and surgical practice, qualifying for the Examinations at the London University, Royal College of Surgeons, and Apothecaries' Hall, and for perpetual attendance on all the lectures, 88*l.* 4s., payable in two instalments of 44*l.* 2s. each, at the commencement of the two first sessions of attendance. Perpetual fee to the lectures alone, 50*l.* Students can make special entries to lectures or hospital practice.

WINTER SESSION.

Medicine: Dr. N. Parker. Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at 10.15 a.m. One session, 4*l.* 4s.; unlimited, 7*l.* 7s.

Surgery: T. B. Curling and G. Critchett. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at three p.m.

The lectures on Ophthalmic Surgery will be delivered by Mr. Critchett, in the Summer Session. One session, 4*l.* 4s.; perpetual, 6*l.* 6s.

Descriptive and Surgical Anatomy: J. Adams and N. Ward. Daily (except Wednesday), at a quarter-past nine a.m. Examinations on Saturday. One session, 5*l.* 5s.; unlimited, 8*l.* 8s.

Physiology and General and Morbid Anatomy: Dr. A. Clark. On Tuesday and Thursday, at three p.m., and Monday, at four p.m. One session, 4*l.* 4s.; perpetual, 7*l.*

Practical Anatomy: P. Y. Gowland. Attendance in the dissecting-room daily, from ten to three. Demonstrations will be given on alternate days, at a quarter-past eleven. One session, 5*l.* 5s.; unlimited, 8*l.* 8s.

Chemistry: Dr. H. Letheby. The subjects of this course are Physics in their relation to Chemistry, and Chemistry proper. Alternately, the one or the other constitutes the chief subject of the course, so that those who are studying for the Universities may in the period of two winter sessions obtain a full course of lectures on each subject. The days of lecture will be Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at half-past ten. One session, or unlimited, 7*l.* 7s.

Anatomy and Pathology of the Teeth, and Dental Surgery: H. J. Barrett. This course consists of twelve lectures, and will be delivered at seven p.m.

SUMMER SESSION.

Midwifery and Diseases of Women and Children: Dr. F. H. Ramsbotham. Gentlemen when qualified have opportunities of attending an unlimited number of cases of labour in the neighbourhood of the hospital. The days of lecture are Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, at three p.m. One session, 4*l.* 4s.; unlimited, 6*l.* 6s.

Forensic Medicine: Dr. F. H. Ramsbotham and Dr. H. Letheby. Daily (except Saturday), at half-past nine a.m. One course, 3*l.* 3s.; two courses, or unlimited, 4*l.* 4s.

Materia Medica and General Therapeutics: Dr. H. Davies. Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, at half-past eight a.m. One session, 3*l.* 3s.; unlimited, 4*l.* 4s. A cabinet of Materia Medica is open to students.

Practical Chemistry: Dr. H. Letheby. In this course the operations are conducted by the students, under the superintendence of Dr. Letheby. During May, June, and July, on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at a quarter-past ten a.m. Extra fee to students of the hospital, for apparatus, &c., one course, 2*l.* 2s.; others, 3*l.* 3s.

Botany: R. Bentley. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at eleven a.m. It is proposed to devote the Saturdays in the earlier part of the course to Examinations, and in the latter to herborizing excursions in the neighbourhood of London, and exercises in Practical Botany. One course, 3*l.* 3s.; two courses, or perpetual, 4*l.* 4s.

Practical Histology, and the Use of the Microscope in Diagnosis: Conducted by the students, under the superintendence of Dr. A. Clark, on Wednesday and Saturday, at twelve. A cabinet of Microscopic preparations is open to the students.

Comparative Anatomy: H. Coles. This course consists of twelve lectures.

HOSPITAL PRACTICE.

One of the Physicians and one of the Surgeons attend daily; the former at eight o'clock a.m., or one p.m.: the latter at one p.m.: and one of the Assistant-Physicians and one of the Assistant-Surgeons daily at one p.m. Casualties are admitted at all hours by the House-Surgeons and Dressers. Surgical operations, except in cases of emergency, are performed on Thursdays, at 1.30 p.m. Dr. Ramsbotham attends on Wednesdays and Saturdays, at one p.m.

Clinical Lectures are given by the physicians and surgeons.

Practical Morbid Anatomy: The post-mortem examinations take place at 12.30 p.m., and are superintended by Dr. Clark.

Entrance fee to the hospital practice required by the Royal College of Surgeons and the Society of Apothecaries, 36*l.* 15s.

Entrance-fee as a perpetual pupil, entitling the student to unlimited attendance on the hospital practice, and on every course of lectures delivered in the school, 105*l.*

The above general entrance-fees may be paid in instalments, by arrangement with the Dean of the School, Mr. Spencer Smith.

MEDALS, PRIZES, AND HONORARY CERTIFICATES.

Examinations in the various classes will take place at the termination o each session, and the prizes will be distributed annually in May. Mr. Spencer Smith offers a prize of the value of 10*l.* to the student who shall exhibit the greatest general proficiency. Dr. Bird offers a prize for proficiency in military surgery. Prizes will also be given in the classes of Clinical Medicine and Surgery; as well as one for the best anatomical preparation.

HOSPITAL PRACTICE.

The hospital contains more than 150 beds, 65 of which are devoted to medical and the rest to surgical cases. This division includes a ward appropriated to the diseases of women, and also beds for ophthalmic and aural cases.

The in-patients are visited daily by the physicians and surgeons at one o'clock.

Lectures on Clinical Medicine will be regularly delivered by Dr. Alderson, and on Clinical Surgery by Mr Ure, and occasionally by the other medical officers in their respective departments.

The out-patients are seen daily at half-past twelve by the assistant-physicians and assistant-surgeons.

Surgical operations are performed on Wednesdays at one o'clock.

Post-mortem examinations are made by Dr. Markham at two o'clock.

The Physician-Accoucheur attends on Mondays and Thursdays at half-past one o'clock. The Surgeon-Accoucheur attends on Tuesdays and Saturdays at half-past one o'clock. The Ophthalmic Surgeon attends on Tuesdays and Saturdays at half-past one o'clock. The Aural Surgeon attends on Mondays and Thursdays at half-past one o'clock. The Surgeon-Dentist attends on Mondays and Thursdays at half-past nine o'clock.

A Maternity Department is attached to the hospital for the delivery of poor married women at their own homes (204 were attended during the past year). Pupils are allowed to attend cases, under the direction of the Resident Obstetric Officer.

FEES.

For Medical Practice: Three months, 5*l.* 5s.; six months, 7*l.* 7s.; twelve months, 12*l.* 12s.; eighteen months, 15*l.* 15s.; perpetual, 21*l.*

For Surgical Practice: Six months, 9*l.* 9s.; twelve months, or such time as is required by the College of Surgeons, 21*l.*; perpetual, 31*l.* 10s.

Practical Pharmacy: Students may receive private instruction in Practical Pharmacy in the laboratory and dispensary of the hospital on the following terms: Six months, 6*l.* 6s.; twelve months, 10*l.* 10s.

There are four resident medical officers, who board free of all expense in the hospital, and are appointed for twelve months; three non-resident medical officers; a medical and a surgical registrar; all of whom are appointed by the weekly Board of Governors, on the recommendation of the beginning of the first session, 30*l.* at the beginning of the second session, and 15*l.* at the beginning of the third session; for every additional session, 5*l.*

Instruction in Practical Pharmacy, with opportunities of dispensing, is given by the apothecary; fee for six months, 8*l.* 8s.; for twelve months, 12*l.* 12s.

Instruction in Pharmacy, in the drug-room, without dispensing; For three months, 6*l.* 6s.

Museum—Curator, Dr. Van Der Byl: The museum is open to students daily.

Library—Librarian, Mr. Bing: Admission to the library and reading-room is included in the fees paid by general students. Occasional students, who desire to make use of the library, may do so on payment of 10s. 6d. The library contains an extensive collection of medical works, with the various medical periodicals. The books are allowed to be taken out from the library under proper regulations. Mr. Bing, a native of Germany, gives instruction in the French and German languages.

A Medical Society is established, under regulations sanctioned by the governing body of the hospital.

Prizes are awarded for proficiency in each class. Besides the ordinary class examinations, which must be attended by all the students, and the examinations for honours at the end of each session, voluntary examinations will be held periodically. Distinction in the voluntary examination will influence the selection in the appointment of Clinical Clerks, Dressers, and House-Surgeons, and will give a claim to honorary certificates and testimonials.

Clinical Prizes.—The physicians and surgeons have instituted two prizes, of the value of ten guineas each, which will be awarded at the annual distribution, to the students who shall present the most approved reports of cases that have occurred in the hospital during the preceding winter session.

Lecturers' Prize.—An annual prize of the value of ten guineas will be presented by the lecturers to the most highly distinguished pupil of the year.

A prize will be presented by Oscar Clayton, Esq.

The authorities of the hospital have made arrangements by which the clinical clerk and dresser of the week, and also a limited number of general students, under certain regulations, have liberty to dine with the resident officers at the Board-room table. Some of the medical officers receive a limited number of resident pupils into their houses.

Parents and guardians who propose sending pupils to the hospital may communicate with the Dean, or with Mr. De Morgan, treasurer to the school, at the hospital, daily from one to three o'clock. Information may also be obtained on application to any of the lecturers, or to Dr. Corfe, the resident medical officer.

All students on entering will be required to sign an undertaking to conform to the laws relating to the discipline of the hospital and school.

From recent enlargements, the hospital now contains upwards of 300 beds, of which 185 are for surgical, and 120 for medical cases. The cancer establishment receives thirty-three patients. Wards are specially appropriated to cases of uterine disease and of syphilis. Two thousand three hundred and eleven in-patients were admitted during the past year. The number of out-patients during the same period amounted to 16,363. Clinical clerks and dressers are selected by the physicians and surgeons from the most deserving pupils, without additional fee. Pupils are eligible to become dressers to the in-door patients after having practised dressing and bandaging in the out-patient room and surgery. The house-surgeons are elected half-yearly from the dressers; fee for twelve months, 21*l*. They are provided with board and residence in the hospital, free of expense. The in-patients are visited daily at one o'clock. Surgical operations are performed on Thursdays at half-past twelve. Clinical lectures are delivered regularly by the physicians and surgeons. The medical and surgical out-patients are attended on four mornings in the week by the assistant-physicians and assistant-surgeon, and every opportunity is taken to render this department available to the pupils for the ready investigation of disease.

Midwifery and the Diseases of Women and Children: Upwards of 800 cases of labour were attended under the direction of the physician-accoucheur during the last year, and the students are at all times furnished with an ample supply of cases under his superintendence. Out-patients with uterine and infantile diseases are seen by the physician accoucheur on Wednesdays and Saturdays at twelve o'clock.

Ophthalmic Department: Patients with diseases of the eye are attended by Mr. Moore on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, at nine o'clock.

Dental Surgery: Pupils receive instruction on diseases of the teeth, and the operations connected with them, on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, at nine o'clock.

Post Mortem Examinations are performed under the superintendence of Dr. Van Der Byl, at two o'clock.

ST. THOMAS'S HOSPITAL.

Formerly an almshouse, built by Richard Prior, of Bermondsey, in the year 1213, but having been destroyed by fire, was rebuilt in 1215, by Peter de Rupibus, Bishop of Winchester. In 1552 Edward VI endowed and incorporated St. Thomas's for the reception of the sick, infirm, and lame.

Cons. Phys., Dr. Roots.—Phys., Drs. Barker, J. R. Bennett, and Goolden.—Surgs., Messrs. South, Mackmurdo, Solly, Le Gros Clark, and Simon.—Asst.-Phys., Drs. Peacock and Bristowe.—Obst. Phys., Drs. Waller and Griffith.—Cur. of Museum, Mr. S. Jones.—Res. Med. Off., Mr. Whitfield.

This hospital contains 520 beds; nearly 5,000 patients are annually admitted within its walls, and upwards of 1,100 out-patients and casualties are relieved every week. A physician and a surgeon attend daily, in turn, from eleven to three o'clock, to go round and visit their patients. The out-patients are prescribed for daily, at half-past eight o'clock, by the assistant-physicians, surgeons, and obstetric physicians.

Post Mortem Examinations at one o'clock, by Dr. Bristowe and Mr. S. Jones.

WINTER SESSION.

Descriptive and Surgical Anatomy: Messrs. Le Gros Clark and Rainey. Daily at nine.

Chemistry: Dr. R. D. Thomson. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at ten.

Physiology and General Anatomy: Mr. Grainger and Dr. Brinton. Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at ten.

Demonstrations: Messrs. Rainey, Ord, and Wood. Daily, nine to three.

Surgery: Mr. South. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at three.

Microscopical Demonstrations: Mr. Rainey. Saturdays, at three.

Olinical Medicine: Dr. Barker. Tuesday and Thursday, at a quarter past three.

General Pathology: Mr. Simon. Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at four.

Theory and Practice of Medicine: Dr. J. R. Bennett. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at four.

SUMMER SESSION.

Materia Medica: Dr. Peacock. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at eight.

Forensic Medicine: Dr. Brinton. Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at eight.

Midwifery and the Diseases of Women and Children: Dr. Waller. Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, at nine.

Botany: Dr. Bristowe. Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at ten.

Practical Chemistry: Dr. R. D. Thomson. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at ten.

Comparative Anatomy and Natural History: Mr. S. Jones. Tuesday and Saturday, at eleven.

Clinical Medicine: Dr. Barker. Monday and Thursday, at one.

Public Health: Dr. H. Greenhow.

Gentlemen proposing to become students of St. Thomas's Hospital are required to produce satisfactory testimonials of moral character and general education.

The admission fee to hospital practice and all the lectures is 40*l.* for the first year, a similar sum for the second, and 10*l.* for each succeeding year; or 90*l.* at one payment for an unlimited attendance.

Special entries may be made to any course of lectures, or to hospital practice.

A Chemical Laboratory, under the direction of the chemical lecturer, is provided for students.

Under certain regulations, the students have access to the library and to the use of a microscope; as also to the museums of anatomy and pathology, of materia medica, and of chemistry and mineralogy.

Examinations are held at the end of the winter and summer sessions.

The Winter Session will terminate at the end of March. The Summer Session will commence on May 1st, and terminate at the end of July.

Clinical Instruction is given at stated times by the medical and surgical officers. Lectures in clinical medicine are given by Dr. Barker twice a week.

There is a special Ophthalmic Ward, under Mr. Macmurdo, and a Special department for the Diseases of Women and Children, under Dr. Waller and Dr. Griffith, in both of which departments clinical lectures are given.

Instruction in Dental Surgery by Mr. Patient, Tuesdays, at eleven o'clock.

Matriculation: To encourage and reward a good general education in pupils entering the medical and surgical school, there is held on the first three days of the session a Matriculation Examination in three divisions: viz. :—1. In Mathematics, Classics, and Ancient History; 2. In Physics, and Natural History; 3. In Modern Languages and Modern History. Attendance at these examinations is optional, but all matriculating students are at liberty to compete in any one or more of them, and a prize of 20*l.* is given to the successful candidate in each division.

First Year's Students—The Treasurer's Prizes: A first prize of 21*l.*, and a second prize of 10*l.* 10s, are awarded at the end of the first year in respect of general proficiency in the studies of that year.

Second Year's Students: A first prize of 21*l.* (given by the president), and a second prize of 10*l.* 10s., are awarded at the end of the second year in respect of general proficiency in the studies of that year. Clinical clerks and dressers are selected according to merit from among the students of this period. Dressers are provided with rooms and commons during their period of attendance in the hospital. Three prizes of 5*l.* each are given to the best clinical clerks of the three physicians respectively.

Third and Fourth Years' Students: Three clinical assistants are selected from among the past clinical clerks; each holds office for three months; and a prize of 15*l.* is awarded to the most meritorious of the year.

The Cheselden Medal is awarded in respect of a special examination in surgery and surgical anatomy.

Mr. Newman Smith gives a prize of 5*l.* for the best essay on "Neuralgia."

The Treasurers' Gold Medal is given annually for general proficiency and good conduct to whichever student has passed through his pupilage in the most meritorious manner.

The House-Surgeons and Resident Accoucheur are chosen by examination from gentlemen who have obtained their professional diplomas; the former to hold office for six or twelve months, the latter for three or six; all are provided with rooms and commons.

Two Hospital Registrars, at an annual salary of 80*l.* each, are selected from gentlemen who have completed their studies in the school. These are appointed to hold office for one or two years, so that at least one new apppointment may occur annually. Candidates for the registrarship must have been engaged at the hospital for at least three years and a half, and must have filled at least two of the higher prize offices.

Students of each year are classed according to their respective total merits in the examinations, and all of the first class in each year receive certificates of honour.

The conditions under which these prizes are awarded, with all other particulars as to subjects of examination, as also prospectuses, &c., may be obtained from Mr. Whitfield, the medical secretary, resident in the hospital.

WINTER TERM.

Anatomy: Mr. Ellis, daily, from nine to ten. The entire term, 6*l.*; first half term, 3*l.*; second half term, 3*l.*; Perpetual, 9*l.* In the dissecting-room the pupils will be directed in their studies during several hours daily by Mr. Ellis, and by Mr. D. B. Reid, Demonstrator.

Anatomy and Physiology: Dr. Sharpey, daily, from ten to eleven. Entire term, 6*l.*; first half term, 3*l.*; second half term, 3*l.*; perpetual, 9*l.*

Chemistry: Dr. Williamson, daily, except Saturday, from eleven to twelve. Half term, 3*l.*; entire term, 6*l.*; perpetual, 9*l.*

Comparative Anatomy and Zoology: Dr. Grant, daily, except Saturday, from three to four. Comparative Anatomy: From the beginning of October to the end of January. Zoology: From the 1st of February to the 1st of May. For Comparative Anatomy, 4*l.*; for Zoology, 3*l.*; perpetual, 8*l.* Attendance on Dr. Grant's courses of Comparative Anatomy and Zoology at this College is recognised by the Army Medical Board as equivalent to the course of Natural History required as a qualification for Army Surgeons.

Principles and Practice of Surgery: Mr. Erichsen, Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, from four to five p.m. For the term, 4*l.* 10*s.*; Perpetual, 6*l.*

Principles and Practice of Medicine: Dr. Walshe, daily, except Saturday, from five to six p.m.; on Saturdays at an earlier hour. For the entire term, 5*l.*; first half term, 3*l.*: second half term, 3*l.*; perpetual, 8*l.*

Dental Surgery: Dr. H. Shelley, Tuesdays and Thursdays, from six to seven p.m., commencing November 6th. For first part, 1*l.* 1*s.*; for second part, commencing in January, 2*l.* 2*s.*

SUMMER TERM.

Botany: Dr. Lindley.

Senior and Junior Classes: Fee for the Junior Class, 2*l.*; for the Senior Class, 3*l.*; for any single part, 2*l.*; for perpetual admission, 6*l.* Junior Class, daily from eight to nine a.m., until the end of April. Senior Class, daily, except Mondays, from eight to nine a.m., with the exception of one Saturday in each of the months of May, June, and July.

Pathological Anatomy: Dr. Jenner, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday, from nine to ten a.m. Fee, 3*l.*; perpetual, 4*l.*

Medical Jurisprudence: Dr. W. B. Carpenter, Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays, at ten a.m. Fee, 3*l.*

Practical Chemistry: Dr. Williamson, Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays, from eleven to twelve. Fee, 4*l.* This payment includes all cost of materials, apparatus, &c.

Ophthalmic Medicine and Surgery: Mr. Wharton Jones, Tuesdays and Thursdays. Fee, 2*l.* N.B. Gentlemen who propose to attend this course are requested to enter their names before the first of May, in order that the most convenient hour of lecture may be determined on.

Practical Physiology and Histiology: Dr. G. Harley. Demonstrations daily, except Saturday, from three to four. Fee, 2*l.*

WINTER AND SUMMER TERM.

Clinical Instruction: Clinical Instruction is given by the Physicians and Surgeons of the Hospitals in their daily visits, and also by means of Lectures and Examinations upon the cases. Payment included in the Hospital Fee.

Clinical Medicine: Lectures once a fortnight by Dr. Walshe, twice a week by Dr. Parkes, the Professor of Clinical Medicine, once a fortnight by Dr. Garrod, and once a week by Dr. Murphy.

Clinical Surgery: Lectures twice a week by Mr. Quain, and once a fortnight by Mr. Erichsen.

Analytical Chemistry: Dr. Williamson. The instruction in this department is conducted in a spacious Laboratory with complete arrangements for the pursuit of all branches of Chemical Investigation by the Senior Pupils, and for the practical study of Elementary Analysis by those less advanced. The Laboratory is open daily, from 9 a.m. to four p.m. from the 1st of October until the end of July, with a short recess at Christmas and Easter. The Professor is aided in the direction of the Students by Dr. H. Watts. Fee, exclusive of the expense of materials, 25 guineas; for three months, 10 guineas; for a single month, 4 guineas.

Philosophy of the Mind and Logic: Rev. J. Hoppus, Ph.D.

HOSPITAL PRACTICE.

The Physicians' and Surgeons' visits are made daily at one and two o'clock. Each of the three Physicians visits his patients three times a week.

Obstetric Department.—Dr. Murphy attends three times a week to see patients affected with uterine diseases, and children: and on alternate days to receive applications from women who wish to be attended in their confinement.

Ophthalmic Department.—Mr. W. Jones attends three times a week to see patients affected with diseases of the Eye; and will occasionally deliver Lectures at the Hospital, on the cases under his charge.

An Assistant-Physician and an Assistant-Surgeon attend four days in the week for the care of Out-Patients.

The Dental Surgeon attends on Wednesday mornings at ten o'clock.

Bandaging.—A Course of Practical Instruction in the application of Bandages and other Surgical apparatus is given by Mr. Marshall, Assistant-Surgeon, in the Summer Term.

Practical Pharmacy.—Instruction in the Hospital Dispensary for three or six months as required.

TERMS OF ADMISSION TO THE PRACTICE AND CLINICAL LECTURES.

To Students who have already entered, in the Medical Faculty of the College, to three classes, of which the courses are of six months' duration, —(two classes, in which the courses are of three months' duration, being considered equivalent to one of six months),—

Also to Pupils who produce certificates of having attended a course of lectures of a recognised School of Medicine, and during one year the practice of a recognised Hospital:

For perpetual admission to the Medical and Surgical practice, 26*l.* 5s.

For one year to the Physicians' and Surgeons' practice, 21*l.*: Physicians' or Surgeons' practice separately, 15*l.* 15s.

For six months to the Physicians' and Surgeons' practice, 15*l.* 15s.: Physicians' or Surgeons' practice separately, 10*l.* 10s.

Digitized by Google

For instruction in Bandaging, 10s.

For six months' Practical Pharmacy, 5*l.* 5s.; three months, 3*l.* 3s.

To Pupils other than as above specified.

For perpetual admission to the Medical and Surgical practice, 36*l.* 15s.

For one year to the Physicians' and Surgeons' practice, 30*l.*: Physicians' or Surgeons' practice separately, 22*l.*

For six months to the Physicians' and Surgeons' practice, 22*l.*: Physicians' or Surgeons' practice separately, 15*l.*

For six months' Ophthalmic practice, 5*l.* 5s.

For twelve months' Dental Surgery practice, 5*l.* 5s.

For instruction in Bandaging, 10s.

For six months' Practical Pharmacy, 5*l.* 5s.: three months, 3*l.* 3s.

The above fees to be paid at the Office of the College.

(Note.)—These fees are devoted to the maintenance of the Hospital, the Physicians and Surgeons having relinquished their proportion of them for its benefit.

Every pupil pays, in addition to the fees, 10s. Apothecary's, and 5s. Office fees.

Physicians' Assistants, House Surgeons, Midwifery Assistants, Physicians' Clerks, Surgeons' Dressers, and Ophthalmic Surgeons' Assistants are selected from Pupils, being Students of the College and of unexceptionable moral character, without additional payments. In case of the qualifications of the candidates for the respective offices being equal, preference will be given to those who have obtained the highest honours in the medical classes of the College. The Physicians' Assistants, Obstetric Assistant, and House-Surgeons reside in the Hospital, paying for their board.

CHARLES C. ATKINSON,
Secretary to the Council.

WM. JENNER,
Dean of the Faculty.

WESTMINSTER HOSPITAL, BROAD SANCTUARY.

Instituted, A.D. 1719: Incorporated, A.D. 1836; and affords relief to about 2,000 In-patients, and 20,000 Out-patients annually.

Phys., Drs. H. Roe, Basham, and Fincham.—Asst.-Phys., Drs. Radcliffe and Marcet.—Surgs., Messrs. Holt, Guthrie, and Brooke.—Asst.-Surgs., Messrs. Holthouse and Hillman.—Surg-Dent., Mr. J. C. Clendon.—Apoth., Mr. Newcomb.—Sec., Mr. F. J. Wilson.

Hospital Practice.—The in-patients are visited daily, at one o'clock, by the Physicians and Surgeons; and the out-patients, at half-past twelve, by the Assistant-Physicians and Assistant-Surgeons. Surgical operations are performed on Saturdays, at one o'clock. Post-mortem examinations and demonstrations of Pathological anatomy are conducted by Mr. Power, under the superintendence of the physicians and surgeons, at half-past one o'clock. Clinical Assistants, Physicians' Clerks, and Surgeons' Dressers, are selected from the most qualified students, without additional fee.

Clinical Lectures: Special courses of lectures on clinical medicine and surgery will be delivered during the winter and summer sessions. Those on clinical medicine, by Dr. H. Roe, on Fridays, at one p.m.; and those on clinical surgery, by Mr. B. Holt, on Thursdays, at one p.m. Clinical instruction will also be given by all the medical officers during their visits; as well as by occasional lectures in their respective departments.

Practical Midwifery: When properly qualified, students will be amply supplied with cases from the Westminster maternity charity (Physician, Dr. F. Bird; Assistant-Physician, Dr. W. Ogle), established for the delivery of lying-in women at their own homes.

Ophthalmic Surgery: In addition to the Ophthalmic practice of the hospital, the students are permitted to attend the practice of the Royal Westminster Ophthalmic Hospital, without additional fee.

Dental Surgery: Practical instruction in dental operations is given three times a week, and a special course of lectures on dental surgery will be delivered during the months of January, February, and March, by Mr. J. C. Clendon, on Wednesdays, at ten a.m.

Physiological and Pathological Chemistry: A course of lectures and demonstrations will be given during the summer session, by Dr. Marcet, on Wednesdays, at two p.m., in which the principles of organic chemistry will be considered, with special reference to their practical application to the investigation and treatment of disease.

Pharmacy: Practical instruction on this subject, with opportunities for dispensing, will be given by Mr. Newcomb.

Clinical Prizes: A prize in clinical medicine, of the value of 5*l.* 5*s.*, will be awarded for the best report of twelve cases, which have occurred in the practice of the physicians during the preceding twelve months, a commentary being added to each case illustrative of its diagnosis, pathology, and treatment. The report must be delivered to the junior physician, on or before the 15th of April, 1857. Candidates must be students who have not completed three years of study; and the prize will not be awarded if the character of the report fall short of a standard satisfactory to the Examiners. A prize in clinical surgery, of the value of 5*l.* 5*s.*, will be awarded for the best report of twelve cases, which shall have occurred in the practice of the surgeons during the preceding twelve months, a commentary being added to each case illustrative of its diagnosis, pathology, and treatment. The report must be delivered to the junior surgeon, on or before the 15th of April, 1857. Candidates must be students who have not completed three years of study; and the prize will not be awarded if the character of the report fall short of a standard satisfactory to the Examiners.

Museums and Reading Room: The museum of anatomy, the museum of materia medica, and the reading room are open daily.

WINTER SESSION.

Chemistry: Messrs. H. Lewis and Maugham; Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at nine a.m. One course, five guineas; perpetual, seven guineas. These lectures will comprise a description of the various elementary substances, the compounds of these elements, and the laws regulating their combinations. The course includes Inorganic and Organic Chemistry, with the Phenomena of Heat, Light, and Electricity, in their relations to Chemistry.

Descriptive Anatomy: Mr. Holthouse; Tuesday and Thursday, at 9 a.m. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at 10 a.m. One course, five guineas; perpetual, seven guineas. These lectures consist of a complete course of anatomical demonstrations, in which the student will be instructed successively in the Anatomy of the Bones, Ligaments, Muscles, Vessels, Nerves, and the Viscera of the Head, Chest, and Abdomen.

Digitized by Google

Dissections: The Students will be assisted in their dissections by Mr. C. Heath, daily from ten a.m. to two p.m.

Physiology and General Anatomy: Mr. Hillman, daily, except Saturday, at two p.m. One course, five guineas; perpetual, seven guineas. This course of lectures comprehends a systematic exposition of the Functions of the Living Body, and a full description of the organs by which they are performed.

Principles and Practice of Surgery: Messrs. Guthrie and Brooke, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday, at three p.m. One course, four guineas; perpetual, five guineas. These lectures will comprehend General Surgery, the Surgery of Tissues, the Surgery of Regions, and Operative Surgery.

Principles and Practice of Medicine: Dr. Basham, daily, except Saturday, at four p.m. One course, four guineas; perpetual, five guineas. This course will be illustrated by recent specimens of diseased structure, drawings, preparations, and models; and the characteristics of special diseases will be exemplified by reference to cases in the wards of the hospital.

SUMMER SESSION.

Botany: Mr. Syme, Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at half-past eleven a.m. One course, two guineas; perpetual, three guineas. This course will be illustrated by fresh and dried specimens of plants; a large collection of diagrams; microscopical demonstrations; and occasional excursions into the country.

Forensic Medicine: Dr. Fincham, Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, at two p.m. One course, two guineas; Perpetual, three guineas. In this course is taught the application of the several branches of medical knowledge to the elucidation of legal questions.

Materia Medica and Therapeutics: Dr. Radcliffe, Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, at three p.m. One course, three guineas, perpetual, four guineas. In this course the principles of Diet, Regimen, and Hygiene, as well as the ordinary topics of Materia Medica and Therapeutics, are fully considered. The lectures are illustrated by a complete museum, and by diagrams and drawings.

Natural Philosophy: Mr. Brooke, Wednesday, at three p.m. One course, one guinea. This course of lectures is intended to make the Student acquainted with the Elements of Physic, and their application to Medical Science.

Midwifery and Diseases of Women and Children: Dr. F. Bird, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, at four p.m. One course, three guineas; perpetual, four guineas. Pupils, when properly qualified to attend lying-in patients, will be amply supplied with cases.

Practical Chemistry: Mr. H. Lewis. (The days and hours of meeting will be arranged at the commencement of the session, to suit the convenience of the class.) One course, two guineas. In this course an opportunity is given to the student for personal manipulation in the ordinary processes of Chemistry, and for acquiring a knowledge of the various reagents for the detections of poisons.

Examinations: One course, two guineas. In order to facilitate the studies of gentlemen about to present themselves for examination at the University of London, the College of Surgeons, and Apothecaries' Hall, a Class for Examinations will be held by Mr Power during the winter and summer sessions, on Saturdays, from eleven to twelve o'clock.

Prizes and Honorary Certificates: At the conclusion of each session, examinations will be held in the various classes; and Prizes and Honorary Certificates will be annually awarded for superior merit, at the commencement of the Winter Session.

Fees: The entire period of hospital practice (medical and surgical) required by the College of Surgeons, and the Society of Apothecaries, may be attended on payment of a composition fee of twenty-six guineas, which may be paid at once, or by instalments of one half on entrance, and the remainder at the commencement of the second year.

The Medical and Surgical Practice may, if required, be attended separately for longer or shorter periods,—namely, Medical Practice for six months, ten guineas; twelve months, twelve guineas; eighteen months, fifteen guineas; and perpetual, twenty guineas; surgical Practice, for three months, eight guineas; six months, twelve guineas; twelve months, twenty guineas; and perpetual, thirty guineas.

The whole of the lectures required by the College of Surgeons and the Society of Apothecaries, may be attended on payment of a fee of forty-two guineas, which may be paid at once, or by instalments of one-half at the commencement of the first winter session, and the remainder at the commencement of the second winter session.

Any special course of lectures may be attended separately, on payment of the specified fee.

 The entire course of study (both hospital practice and lectures) required by the College of Surgeons and the Society of Apothecaries, may be attended for sixty-eight guineas.

Any information respecting the hospital and medical school may be obtained on application to Mr. Holthouse, of 2, Storey's gate, St. James's-park (who will also furnish the names of gentlemen willing to receive students to reside with them), or to

F. J. Wilson, Secretary to the Hospital.

ROYAL COLLEGE OF CHEMISTRY, 315, OXFORD STREET.

The Royal College of Chemistry has become the property of the Government, and its spacious and well-furnished Laboratories are now used for the instruction of the pupils of the Metropolitan School of Science applied to Mining and the Arts. The instruction in this Institution is under the superintendence of Professor A. W. Hofmann, Ph. D., and consists of—

I. A course of Practical Analysis in the Laboratory.

II. A series of Lectures on General Chemistry.

The Laboratory Instruction, which is divided into a qualitative and quantitative course, is necessarily adapted to the previous knowledge of the student, such as he may have acquired by attending the chemical lectures delivered at the Institution. The course commences with experimental exercises, calculated to make the pupil practically acquainted with the general properties of the simple substances. The next subjects of his study are the analytical properties of the elements, and of their most important compounds. The knowledge thus acquired is subsequently put into practice in the performance of a series of analyses, so arranged as to lead the student, step by step, from the simplest to the most complicated cases, both of qualitative and quantitative analysis. Particular attention is paid to the use of the blow-pipe, and the various methods of commercial testing, alkalimetry, chlorimetry, &c.

The fundamental studies in Practical Chemistry are the same for all pupils, how different the future pursuit may be to which the knowledge obtained will be applied. It is only after the most important methods of distinguishing, separating, and estimating substances have been mastered, and after sufficient practice and skill in experiment have been acquired, that the course of each student diverges into some special line. This will of necessity vary with his abilities and his ultimate objects.

Each laboratory student works independently; there are no classes. All operations are superintended by the Professor and his assistants. A table with drawers, cupboard, and shelves, is appropriated to every pupil. The Institution supplies gas, fuel, and re-agents. Larger and more expensive instruments, such as air-pumps, thermometers, barometers, condensers, large evaporating dishes, &c., may be had on loan from the Laboratory. The student has to provide himself only with the apparatus specified in the Laboratory Regulations.

The course of lectures is delivered in the Theatre of the Museum of Practical Geology, in Jermyn-street. It consists of 100 Lectures, and treats of General Chemistry, with especial reference to its application in the arts and manufactures. This course commenced on the first Monday in October.

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY, 17, BLOOMSBURY SQUARE.

CONNECTED WITH THE PHARMACEUTICAL SOCIETY.

The Lectures on Chemistry and Practical Pharmacy by Mr. Redwood are delivered at half-past eight on the Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings, from October to July.

Mr. Redwood will also give a practical course of instruction in Pharmacy, which will continue throughout the year, with the exception of August and September.

Mr. Bentley will deliver Lectures on Botany and the Natural History of Drugs, at the house of the Society, every Monday and Saturday morning from October, and in the gardens of the Royal Botanic Society, Regent's Park, every Monday and Saturday morning during May, June, and July.

Wishaw, and Mr T. Wright; Hon. Sec., Mr. R. Cull; Trustees, Hon. M. Elphinstone, Dr. T. Hodgkin, and Mr. F. Hindmarsh.

The Ethnological Society was founded in 1843, to promote the study of Ethnology. The object of this science is to ascertain the distinguishing characteristics, physical and moral, of the varieties of mankind which now inhabit and have formerly inhabited the earth, and to ascertain the causes of such characteristics, in order to determine the relationships of the several varieties of man to each other.

The Society has formed a library, which is continually being enriched by the addition of books for the student, and for those who wish to verify the statements of writers on Ethnology; and also by philological and other special works, for those engaged in advancing the science.

The Society meets during the winter season, from November to June inclusive, for the reading of papers and other communications, and for the discussion of subjects connected with Ethnology.

The Society has issued four volumes of its journal, and the fifth is in the press.

Fellows are admitted by ballot; there is no entrance fee, and the annual subscription is 2*l.* Fellows who reside beyond twenty miles from London may claim to be made non-resident Fellows at an annual subscription, during such residence, of one guinea.

ROYAL INSTITUTION OF GREAT BRITAIN, ALBEMARLE-STREET, PICCADILLY.—Established under a Charter granted by his Majesty King George the Third, in the year 1800. Enlarged and confirmed by an Act of Parliament in the year 1810. Pres., Duke of Northumberland; Treas., Mr. W. Pole; Sec., Rev. J. Barlow; Hon. Prof. Chem., Mr. W. T. Brande; Fuller. Prof. Chem. and Dir. of Labor., Mr. M. Faraday; Fuller. Prof. Physiol., Mr. T. H. Huxley; Prof. Nat. and Exper. Philos., Dr. J. Tyndall; Asst.-Sec. and Lib., Mr. B. Vincent; Asst. in Labor., Mr. C. Anderson.

The chief objects of this institution are—

1. To promote scientific and literary research.
2. To teach the principles of inductive and experimental science.
3. To exhibit the application of these principles to the various arts of life; and
4. To afford opportunities for study.

The Royal Institution comprises—

I. Public lectures intended to supply that which books or private instruction can rarely afford.

II. A laboratory for the promotion and advancement of chemical and electrical science, by experiments and original investigations.

III. A library of nearly 28,000 volumes, including the best editions of the Greek and Latin Classics and the Fathers of the Church,—English county histories,—works of science and literature, of art and antiquarian research,—the transactions of the principal British and Foreign academies and scientific institutions, as well as an extensive collection of historical and miscellaneous tracts.

IV. A reading-room for study.

V. A newspaper room, in which the principal journals, magazines, and reviews, in the English, French, and German languages, are regularly provided. A circulating library is subscribed to, in order to afford the members an opportunity of seeing the newest books as soon as published.

VI. A museum, containing mineral specimens, many of which are named, and also other collections. The chief object of this museum is to furnish illustrations for the lectures and the Friday evening discourses.

VII. Weekly meetings of the members of the institution.—These are held on every Friday evening during the session, and the members have the privilege of introducing two friends to them by tickets.

Terms of Admission: Ten Guineas (Five Guineas as the first annual payment, and Five Guineas as a contribution to the Library Fund); or Sixty Guineas in lieu of all payments. Members are admitted to ALL lectures delivered in the institution, to the libraries, to the museum, and to the weekly evening meetings, and have the right of voting at the monthly meetings; they may also introduce by tickets two friends to each of the weekly evening meetings, and their families have the privilege of attending the lectures at reduced charge. And for every additional subscription of Twenty Guineas at one time, or Three Guineas per annum, each member is entitled to introduce, personally, or by a written order, one visitor to each of the public lectures.

Annual Subscribers to the institution pay Five Guineas, and One Guinea to the library fund on admission. They are admitted to all the public lectures delivered in the theatre of the institution, to the libraries, and to the newspaper rooms, but have not the privilege of attending the evening meetings.

Subscribers to lectures for all the courses of lectures (extending from Christmas to Midsummer) pay Two Guineas; for a single course of lectures pay One Guinea.

The General Monthly Meetings of the Members for 1857 will be held on the following Mondays, at two o'clock, p.m.:—Feb. 4; March 3; April 7; May 5; June 2; July 7; Aug. 4; Nov. 3; and Dec. 1.

The Weekly Evening Meetings will be on the following Fridays:—Jan. 25; Feb. 1, 8, 15, 22, 29; March 7, 14; April 4, 11, 18, 25; May 2, 9, 16, 23, 30; and June 6, 13.

The General Annual Meeting for the election of officers will be held on Thursday, May 1.

Lectures will be delivered on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays from January 22 to June 14, at three o'clock p.m., except in Passion and Easter Weeks.

ZOOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF LONDON, OFFICES, 11, HANOVER-SQUARE. GARDENS, IN THE REGENT'S PARK.—This Society was instituted in 1826, under the auspices of Sir Humphrey Davy, Bart., Sir Stamford Raffles, and other eminent individuals, for the advancement of Zoology, and the introduction and exhibition of subjects of the animal kingdom, alive or in a state of preservation. Pres., H.R.H. Prince Albert; Vice-Pres., Sir J. P. Boileau, Bart., Marquis Breadalbane, Admiral Bowles, Mr. J. Gould, Mr. R. Owen, and the Lord Bishop Oxford; Council, Mr. J. S. Bowerbank, Sir B. Brodie, Bart., Mr. E. S. P. Calvert, Rt. Hon. Sir G. Clerk, Bart., Mr. J. S. Gaskoin, Mr. T. C. Harrison, Mr. A. J. B. Hope, Mr. R. Hudson, Dr. Percy, Mr. E. I. Rudge, Mr. T. Tooke, jun., Sir R. R. Vyvyan, Bart., and Mr. W. Yarrell; Treas., Mr. C. Drummond; Sec., Mr. D. W. Mitchell.

The General Monthly Meetings of the Zoological Society are held on the first Thursday of every month.

Fellows pay an admission fee of 5*l.*, and an annual contribution of 3*l.*, or a composition of 30*l.* in lieu thereof; the whole payment, including the admission fee, being 35*l.* Annual subscribers pay a contribution of 3*l.* on the 1st of January in every year. Honorary, foreign, and corresponding members pay no contribution.

The Scientific Meetings take place on the second and fourth Tuesday of every month (except August, September, and October), at nine o'clock P.M.

THE LONDON AND PROVINCIAL MEDICAL PROTECTION AND BENEVOLENT SOCIETY, 43, LINCOLN'S-INN FIELDS.—Pres., Mr. J. Propert; Trust., Mr. N. Clifton, Islington; Mr. H. Day, Isleworth; Mr. J. Propert, New Cavendish-street; and Dr. Webster, Dulwich; Treas., Mr. J. Ince; Bankers, Goslings and Sharpe, 19, Fleet-street; Sec., J. Capes.

The objects of the Society are—

1st. To provide a safe and efficient medium by which the Medical Profession may secure more certain and regular payment for their services; with every consideration for the convenience of those who are willing, but unable directly to discharge their liabilities; with rigour for those who are able, but have not the disposition, to remunerate Medical men.

Digitized by Google

These ends to be accomplished without interfering with the valuable time of the Members of the Profession, or exposing them to the unpleasantness which necessarily attends applications for money, or the uncertain results of employing private collectors.

2nd. With the machinery necessary for carrying out the foregoing purposes, to establish a means of privately negotiating the transfer of practices and partnerships, and the providing of assistants and pupils.

3rd. To raise a Benevolent Fund by devoting to that object the profits arising from the general operations of the Society.

The Society consists of qualified Medical Practitioners only. Annual Subscription, one guinea; a firm consisting of two partners, a guinea and a-half; a firm of three partners, two guineas.

The general business is carried on by a Staff of Officers at the central office, 43, Lincoln's-inn-fields, together with trustworthy agents appointed in Town and country, the whole of whom are under the direction and superintendence of the Committee.

The Metropolitan Members of the Committee, with the Trustees, are responsible for all moneys received by the Society.

MEDICAL BENEVOLENT FUND.—Established 1836. Pres., Sir J. Clark, M.D.; Trust., Sir C. Hastings, M.D., Worcester; Sir J. Clark; Dr. Burrows; W. Newnham, Farnham; and Mr. Toynbee; Treas., W. Newnham, Farnham; Asst.-Treas., Mr. Toynbee; Joint Hon.-Secs., Dr. J. Bright and Mr Toynbee.

An earnest appeal on behalf of this Fund is now made to the Profession at large, in the confident expectation that such appeal cannot be in vain. Instituted in the year 1836, it has pursued its unwearied course of usefulness and efficiency; it has passed its day of small things, and now stands before the public as one of the most useful of the medical charities. Its income has increased from an average of 50*l.* a-year for the first five years, to 818*l.* 18s. 6d. in the last year; and the number of cases relieved has augmented from an average of three, in the first five years, to the fearful number of seventy-five during the last year; and, besides this casual relief, the Benevolent Fund distributed 181*l.* 10s. in annuities, thus making a sum of 1,000*l.* a-year actually expended in the relief of misery. The Benevolent Fund is distinguished by doing much and promising little. The Committee meet at 11, New Burlington-street, on the last Tuesday of every month, to receive, and when need be, to relieve the necessitous. In five months of the past year twenty-five cases were relieved, and several are now waiting for consideration,—ay, waiting for the means of relief, because the present funds are fearfully inadequate to the relief of the misery, and want, and sickness, and sorrow, and destitution, which are monthly presented to the Committee. And is it possible that such a fact can be made known to the Profession at large, and not meet with a corresponding answer? Is it possible that the tear of the widowed mother—the cry of the hapless orphan, shall be heard in vain? Is it possible that the wants of the aged practitioner, disabled from practice by disease of a vital organ shall be made known among upwards of 20,000 brethren, and that they should reply, "Be ye warmed and be ye filled," and yet should refuse to give of their substance to supply these wants? Oh! let it not be said that the cold heart of man is inaccessible to this appeal from his starving brother!

W. NEWNHAM, Treasurer.

The purposes of the College are—

1st. To provide an asylum for duly qualified medical men and their widows in reduced circumstances:

2nd. To provide a school for the sons of duly qualified medical men: and,

3rd. To provide annuities, or occasional pecuniary assistance, to duly qualified medical men in distressed circumstances, or to their families, when they can be granted without detriment to the asylum or school, which are to be ever regarded as the principal objects of the College.

The Council of the Royal Medical Benevolent College gratefully acknowledge the warm and extensive support which this much-needed Institution has met with, and continues to enjoy, at the hands of the members of the Medical Profession, and of the public at large. They have pleasure in again availing themselves of an opportunity of recording their especial thanks to the Honorary Local Secretaries, to whose energy and zeal in the cause so much of its success has been due. The Council most cordially congratulate their Medical brethren upon the fact that the Institution is now in operation, and that there are several deserving widows and members of the Profession enjoying the benefits it affords. The numerous applications that are constantly being made for admission prove most palpably that the means at the disposal of the Council are far beneath the requirements of the case. Relying, however, upon the merits of their cause, which is truly one of the whole Medical Profession, and of all who have ever derived benefit from its members; in full confidence and faith that the work, so well begun, will with its growth take a firmer hold in the affections, and receive a proportionately increasing support from their countrymen; the Council trust that by further support they may be able to receive, in the course of the ensuing year, an additional number of the deserving applicants as pensioners. The untiring zeal displayed by the Medical Profession at all times in the service of their brethren while labouring under disease, often at a sacrifice of health and even of life, may reasonably be urged as a ground upon which to ask the public for their generous support of the Royal Medical Benevolent College. The Council hope that those who enjoy affluence will not withhold their contributions; that those who cannot spare from their own incomes, will use their influence with their friends; and that all will contribute as much as in them lies, by word or deed, to realise in full a plan which will redound to the credit and honour of all engaged in the enterprise. By order of the Council,

HERBERT WILLIAMS, Asst. Sec.

Office, 37, Soho-square, Sept., 1856.

Donors of ten guineas are life governors of the College; subscribers of one guinea annually are governors during the continuance of their subscription.

Any member of the Profession desirous of accepting the office of Honorary Local Secretary and Treasurer for his neighbourhood, in which one has not been appointed, would oblige by communicating with the Secretary on the subject.

Subscriptions received by the bankers, Goslings and Sharpe, 19, Fleet-street; the Members of Council; and the Hon. Local Secs.

SOCIETY FOR THE RELIEF OF WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF MEDICAL MEN IN LONDON AND ITS VICINITY, 53, BERNERS-STREET, OXFORD-STREET.—Instituted 1778. Officers, 1856-7. Pres., Sir C. M. Clarke, Bart., M.D.; Vice-Pres., M. Ware, E. A. Brande, J. Nussey, Sir J. McGrigor, Bart., M.D., Sir B. C. Brodie, Bart., Dr. P. M. Latham, J. Bacot, Dr. T. Turner, T. A. Stone, B. Travers, D. H. Walne, Dr. A. J. Sutherland. Treas., J. Miles, E. Tegart, Dr. J. Clarke (Acting). Direct., Dr. W. M'Intyre, J. C. Taunton, J. C. Salisbury, R. C. Griffith, W. Dickinson, Dr. C. B. Brown, Dr. A. Billing, J. Propert, Sir J. Eyre, M.D., H. Blenkarne, R. L. Thorn, C. Hawkins, G. J. Squibb, H. Combe, A. M. Randall, Dr. H. Jeaffreson, J. Hilton, Dr. H. Oldham, R. S. Eyles, W. Self, H. Sterry, Dr. G. H. Roe, H. K. Owen, Dr. R. B. Todd. Trust., T. A. Stone, J. T. Ware, Dr. A. J. Sutherland, C. Hawkins, Dr. G. Burrows, Dr. J. Clarke, H. Blenkarne. Sec., Dr. S. W. J. Merriman. Coll., C. H. Tidbury. Bankers, Sapte, Banbury, and Co., 77, Lombard-street.

This Society was formed in the year 1778, by Dr. T. Denman, Dr. R. Denison, Dr. A. Douglas, Dr. J. Sims, Dr. J. Squire, W. Chamberlaine, and T. Rendall, with the object of establishing a brotherhood for relieving, half-yearly, those Widows and Orphans of its deceased Members, who might need assistance.

It unites the advantages of a Provident, with those of a Benevolent, Society. It is Provident, as by the small yearly subscription of Two Guineas, the Members do, through it, protect their own families from destitution, however unlikely; and it is Benevolent, as its benefits are conferred only on those who are left in indigent circumstances.

The Society has been greatly assisted by Legacies and contributions from Members and others, and has especially to acknowledge the gracious Patronage of various members of the Royal Family.

The permanent efficiency of the Society depends on the maintenance of a due proportion between the available income, and the claims made on the funds. Computations have been made by experienced actuaries on all the points susceptible of calculation by way of average.

The proportion of Members whose families may become Applicants for Relief scarcely admits of calculation; but the experience of more than sixty years has proved the wisdom and benevolence with which the Society was planned, and the prudence and efficiency with which its affairs have been conducted.

Since 1793, more than 49,000*l.* have been distributed amongst the Widows and Orphans of Members who had left their families in circumstances requiring the aid of the Society, whilst great care has been taken, in the management of its resources, to secure the means of affording, with certainty and regularity, such relief as the Society provides, for those whose unfortunate condition renders assistance needful. Upwards of 1,500*l.* are annually distributed among the Widows and Children of deceased Members.

The Society's affairs are managed by a President, twelve Vice-Presidents, three Treasurers, and twenty-four Directors, who are elected by the Members annually, and whose services are gratuitous. All duly qualified Members of the Profession, residing within the County of Middlesex, or within seven miles from the Royal Exchange, in Surrey, Kent, and Essex, are eligible for proposal, and the mode of admission is by ballot.

Proposal Papers, and other communications for the Court of Directors, should be sent to the Secretary before the first Wednesday in the months of March, June, September, and December. Laws, Lists, and Forms of Proposal may be obtained from the Secretary, and will be sent by Post on receipt of a Stamp.

The Secretary attends at the Office, 53, Berners street, every Wednesday and Friday, from four to five p.m.

*The Institution of Nursing Sisters, 4, Devonshire-square, Bishopsgate.

This Institution was established in 1840, and appears to be at present progressing very satisfactorily. It is under the supervision and government of a Committee of ladies, of whom Lady Inglis is the President, with Treasurer and Secretaries, also ladies.

The Training Institution for Nurses, St. John's House, Queen-square, Westminster.

Its government consists of a President (the Lord Bishop of London, for the time being), a Council, a Master who must be a Clergyman, and a Lady Superintendent, whilst its present establishment consists of Sisters, Nurses, and Probationers in process of training. It is partly supported by subscriptions and donations, and partly from funds arising from the hire of nurses by those who can well afford to pay for the services rendered them; but it is to be remarked that one important feature of the Institution is that its advantages are extended to the poor gratuitously. Nurses are not provided for lying-in cases except in cases of emergency. Communications may be addressed to the Rev. the Master or to the Lady Superintendent.

* No return from the Secretary for the present year.

ENGLISH, SCOTCH, AND IRISH UNIVERSITIES, COLLEGES, AND HALLS,

WHERE DEGREES IN MEDICINE AND LICENCES TO PRACTICE CAN BE OBTAINED.

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE.

CHANCELLOR, H. R. H. Prince Albert.
HIGH STEWARD, Lord Lyndhurst, LL.D., Trinity.
VICE-CHANCELLOR, W. Whewell, D.D., F.R.S.
REGISTRAR, J. Romilly, M.A., Trinity.

Professorships.	Professors.	College.	Elected.
Regius Physic . .	H. J. H. Bond, M.D. . .	Corpus Christi .	1851
Chemistry . . .	J. Cumming, M.A., F.R.S.	Trinity . . .	1815
Anatomy . . .	W. Clark, M.D. . . .	Trinity . . .	1817
Botany	J. S. Henslow, M.A., F.L.S.	John's . . .	1825
Downing Medicine	W. W. Fisher, M.D. . .	Down . . .	1841

CURATOR OF THE BOTANIC GARDEN, J. Stratton.

The course of lectures on Physic consists of fifty (twenty on general and thirty on special Pathology), delivered during the Lent and Easter terms.

The course on Human Anatomy consists of fifty, delivered during the Michaelmas and Lent terms.

The course on Chemistry consists of fifty, delivered during the Lent and Easter terms.

The course on Botany consists of twenty, delivered during the Easter term.

The Downing Professor delivers a course of fifty lectures on some subject connected with the study of medicine in the Michaelmas and Lent terms.

It is imperative on candidates for medical degrees to attend the above lectures.

The Professor of Anatomy delivers a course of twenty-five lectures on comparative anatomy, during the Michaelmas term.

Mr. Humphry delivers a course of lectures on Surgery, during the vacations. (A certificate of attendance on these lectures is accepted for L.M.)

Pupils have an opportunity of dissecting in private.

There is a rich and interesting Anatomical Museum open to medical students daily.

Students are admitted to the medical and surgical practice of the hospital on the payment of 10*l.* 10*s.* for a year, and an additional 10*l.* 10*s.* for an unlimited period.

Medical students are required to reside in Cambridge nine terms (nearly three years), during the first half of which time they are generally occupied in the study of Classics, Mathematics, &c., in their respective Colleges; then, having passed the previous examination in these subjects, analogous to the preliminary examination required at the University of London, they can pursue the study of Medicine, attend the practice of the Hospital and the Professors' lectures above specified. This done, they may continue their medical studies in Cambridge, or elsewhere.

If it be thought desirable, the student may continue his classical and mathematical reading for a longer period than the above arrangement contemplates; and may, in due time, present himself for the second Examination in those subjects whereby he becomes B.A.; but this is optional.

Proceedings in Physic—M.B. The candidate for M.B. must have resided nine terms, have passed the previous Examination, have attended the Professors' lectures above specified, have been diligently employed in the attendance on medical lectures and the practice of some well-known hospital for two years, and have been examined by the Professors of Physic, Anatomy, Chemistry, Botany, and the Downing Professor of Medicine. This examination may take place when the student has entered his fifth year; and the degree may be taken when he has entered his sixth year, computed from the date of his first admission at the University. It is therefore well to secure the admission of the student some little time before he comes into residence.

A Bachelor of Arts may become a Bachelor of Physic, after having entered on his sixth year, computed from the date of his first admission at the University, provided that one year at least has intervened between the final determination in Arts and his admission to the degree of Bachelor of Physic.

The exercises for this degree are one Act*, and one Opponency (academical disputation).

L.M. A licence ad practicandum in Medicina may be granted to a Bachelor of Physic in the term subsequent to that in which he has taken his degree, or to a Master of Arts of two years' standing.

Candidates for a licence ad practicandum in Medicina being previously Bachelors of Physic, are required to produce to the Regius Professor of Physic certificates of their having attended hospital practice for three years, exclusive of the nine terms which they kept by residence for the degree of

---

* In the 'Medical Act' there are two questions or subjects for discussion (quæstiones). The first is proposed by the respondent or candidate who keeps the Act, and submitted to the professor; the second is appointed by the professor.

FORM OF NOTICE FOR AN ACT.

Q.S.—I. Ex rerum vitiis oritur diabetes.
II. Actio vomendi a musculis abdominis perficitur.
Coll.—die.—Jun. A.B., respond.

The respondent begins by reading his thesis: the professor then calls up the opponent, who is a candidate for the same degree, and wears the same habit as the respondent, to bring forward the arguments which are propounded in the syllogistic form, three against the first question and two against the second. In case there should be no opponent, the arguments are propounded by the professor. After the disputation is ended, the professor reads a determination upon the second question.

Every candidate for M.B. pays the professor for his Act, 7*l.*, and for M.D. 11*l.* 11*s.* for the two Acts.

The Annual public assembly for conferring degrees on all students, who may have completed their academical education at Cambridge, is called the Commencement, at Oxford, the Act. It takes place on the first Tuesday in July. The Act at Oxford and the Act at Cambridge will now be understood to refer to academical proceedings, which are not identical.

Bachelor of Physic; and of their having attended lectures on the following subjects—viz.: Practice of Physic and Pathology, Anatomy and Physiology, Chemistry, Botany, Medical Jurisprudence, Materia Medica and Pharmacy, Principles of Surgery, Principles of Midwifery, Practical Anatomy, for two seasons.

Candidates for a licence ad practicandum in Medicina, being previously Masters of Arts, are required to bring satisfactory evidence to the Regius Professor of Physic of their having been employed in the study of Physic for five years, after they became Bachelors of Art; and to produce to him certificates of their having attended on hospital practice for three of the said five years, and of their having attended lectures on the subjects before mentioned.

Every candidate for a licence ad practicandum Medicina is required to pass an examination to the satisfaction of the Regius Professor of Physic, the Professor of Anatomy, the Downing Professor of Medicine, and a Doctor of Physic, to be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor, and approved by the Senate at the first Congregation after the 10th of October in each year.

There are two such examinations in every year; one in the week immediately preceding that in which the division of the Michaelmas term falls—the other in the week immediately preceding that in which the division of the Easter term falls.

UNIVERSITY TERMS AND RESIDENCE.

Full term is understood to commence on the first day of the week after the first congregation is held; so that if the congregation be held on the Monday, the Sunday after is considered the first day of full term. For the degree of M.D., the degree of Bachelor in Medicine is required, after undergoing the same three examinations that are appointed for Bachelors of Arts. No one can be examined for the degree of Bachelor of Arts before the beginning of the fourth* year from the date of his matriculation. By those who have not taken any degree in Arts, Michaelmas and Hilary Terms are each kept by six weeks' residence, and Easter and Trinity Terms by three weeks'. Sixteen terms are required for the degree of B.A., but of these the day of matriculation, if it be in term, counts for one, the day of admission to the degree for another, and two more are dispensed with by congregation; so that, in point of fact, residence for twelve terms (about three years) only is necessary. At the expiration of twenty-eight terms from matriculation, and twelve terms from the third examination for the degree of B.A., the candidate may become a B.M., and at the end of three years more he may obtain the degree of D.M.

EXERCISES FOR DEGREES.

1st. To perform the Exercise called Responsions, which are fixed to take place in Hilary Term, on the Monday after the 4th Sunday in Lent and in Trinity Term, on the Thursday after the first Sunday after Trinity, and in Michaelmas Term, on Dec. 5. This exercise consists in an examination in the Greek and Latin languages (chiefly with a view to their grammatical construction), in the rudiments of logic, or in Euclid's Elements of Geometry, and in Arithmetic.

2nd. To pass an examination under Moderations. These examinations take place twice in each year, viz., commencing on Wednesday after the first Sunday after Easter, and on November 20.

3rd. To be Publicly Examined. Public examinations are held twice a year, viz., in Michaelmas Term, beginning on the second day of November, and in Easter Term, beginning on the Friday which follows the second Sunday after Easter. The examination comprises—1st. The rudiments of religion; 2nd. The Literæ Humaniores; 3rd. The elements of the mathematical sciences, and of physics; 4th. Natural science. 5th. Law and modern history. The candidate is permitted his choice of these different schools, but he must pass in two at least. In medicine, all students (besides undergoing the three same examinations appointed for Bachelors of Arts) are to be examined by the Regius Professor of that faculty and two examiners of the degree of D.M., appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, in the theory and practice of medicine, anatomy, physiology, and pathology; in materia medica, and in chemistry and botany, so far as they illustrate the science of medicine, and in two at least of the following ancient medical writers—Hippocrates, Aretæus, Galen, and Celsus. For a Doctor's degree in medicine, a dissertation upon some subject, to be approved of by the Regius Professor of Medicine, is to be publicly recited in the schools, and a copy of it afterwards delivered to the professor.

The examination for the Bachelor's degree in medicine takes place once a year, viz., in Trinity or Act Term. The examiners are Drs. Ogle, Daubeny, and Acland. Degrees are conferred, generally, once in every fortnight during term, according to an announcement of the several days made by the Vice-Chancellor at the commencement of every term.

* The sons and the eldest sons of the eldest sons of English, Scotch, and Irish peers and peeresses in their own right, as well as baronets and the eldest sons of baronets and knights, when matriculated as such, and not on the foundation of any College, are allowed to offer themselves as candidates for the degree of B.A. after having completed three years.

A candidate for a licence ad practicandum in Medicina, being previously Bachelor of Physic, cannot be examined for the said licence until the examination which shall occur next but one after his having passed the examination required for the degree of Bachelor of Physic.

M.D. The degree of Doctor of Physic is granted to a Bachelor of Physic of five years, or to a Master of Arts of seven years' standing.

The Exercises for this degree are two Acts and one Opponency. (Vide Note, p. 644.)

Every candidate for the degree of Doctor of Physic, who has not previously obtained a licence ad practicandum in Medicina, is required to produce, to the Regius Professor of Physic, the same certificates, and pass the same examination, as are required in the case of candidates for a licence ad practicandum in Medicina.

The attendance on the practice of the Hospital, and the teaching in Anatomy and Chemistry, are recognised by the College of Surgeons, London, and the Society of Apothecaries; so that the student who is desirous to qualify for the membership or fellowship, and the licence of those bodies, may complete his first winter session, according to their curriculum, in Cambridge.

Candidates for the Fellowship of the College of Surgeons who have taken a B.A. degree, are exempt from the preliminary examination in Greek, Latin, &c., and are required to have been five years engaged in the acquirement of professional knowledge, instead of six.

The students have the use of a Reading-room, where all the standard Medical and Surgical Journals are provided. They have also free access to the Museums of Anatomy, Physiology, and Pathology, as well as those of Chemistry and Materia Medica. The Diagrams, Models, and Plates, illustrative of the various courses of lectures, may be used by them, under certain rules, with which they will be made acquainted.

In addition to the obstetric preparations in the Museum, the collection belonging to the Lying-in Hospital will be made accessible to the students under suitable regulations.

The Dissecting Rooms are open from eight in the morning until five at night, and the pupils have the benefit of a constant superintendence in their dissections.

Clinical Courses will be given by those lecturers who are attached to the various public institutions of the town. The lectures are so arranged that no interference with attendance upon hospital practice will be caused by them. Prizes will be awarded in each course, under fixed regulations; and a prize will also be given for general proficiency.

For the benefit of the students, examinations will be held by the lecturers to test their qualifications for matriculation at the University of London.

Some of the lecturers will receive students into their houses; and parents or guardians are requested to communicate with the Principal before placing students at lodgings.

Composition fee for all the lectures required by the College and Hall.

Further particulars may be obtained by application to the Principal, or to any of the lecturers.

Herapath, daily, at ten a.m. Sessional course, 3*l.* 3s.; unlimited, 5*l.* 5s.

Fee for the perpetual attendance on all the above courses, excepting practical chemistry, 47*l.* 5s.

The course of lectures upon the practise of Medicine and upon Surgery will be illustrated by preparations from the Museum, as well as by numerous morbid specimens and cases from the practice of the Bristol Royal Infirmary and the Bristol General Hospital.

The lectures upon General Anatomy and Physiology will be accompanied by numerous Microscopic Demonstrations, and further elucidated by an extensive series of diagrams and specimens from Human and Comparative Anatomy.

The students attending the course of Descriptive Anatomy will have every facility for devoting themselves to Practical Anatomy in the dissecting-rooms, under the superintendence of Messrs. C. Leonard and W. M. Clarke.

The Chemical Lectures are elucidated by experiments, and by a very large collection of chemical specimens, both from organic and inorganic chemistry.

Instruction and cases in Practical Midwifery are provided for the students in the Midwifery Class, and the course will be illustrated by a very valuable series of preparations from the museum.

The collection of Materia Medica, to which students attending this course have free access, is very good and complete.

Forensic Medicine: The museum of the school contains many specimens of great interest, exhibiting the effects of poisons upon the human stomach at various intervals after death.

The students of the Botanical Class attend the lecturer on herborizing excursions. Vegetable Physiology is made a prominent part of the course, and diagrams, as well as a very beautiful series of microscopical preparations of vegetable tissue, are used in illustration of the subject.

Extracts from the "Regulations respecting Students."—"1. Every student on his first entering to any of the classes, is required to enter his name in the General Register, in token of acquiescence in the regulations of the School.—2. Tickets for admission to all or any of the Classes are to be obtained only from the Secretary, to whom all fees are to be paid at the time of taking out the tickets. These tickets are afterwards to be taken to be countersigned by the lecturers respectively, and then to be registered by the Official Registrar of the School. Those students who take perpetual tickets must have them countersigned by the lecturers of the Classes to which they give admission, at the commencement of such Course or Courses, the attendance on which is required to be registered."

At the conclusion of the Session, Prizes, for the students of the several years, will be distributed in accordance with the regulations of the School.

Students from a distance can be provided with board and lodging, under the recommendation of the Faculty of the School.

The Honorary Secretary and the Registrar will attend at the School at stated times, of which notice will be duly given, for issuing and for registering tickets.

HOSPITAL PRACTICE.

BRISTOL ROYAL INFIRMARY.—This hospital contains 242 beds; nearly 20,000 patients are annually under treatment; and of these, more than 2,600 are in-patients.

The physicians and surgeons are in daily attendance, from half-past eleven a.m. till two p.m. Medical and surgical Clinical instruction is carefully attended to, and the study of Practical Pathology, for which the facilities are very great, receives every encouragement from the physicians, surgeons, and house-surgeon. Surgical casualties are attended to in the Accident Ward, at all hours, by the resident dresser, under the immediate superintendence of the house-surgeon. By payment of a small fee, students may be instructed in Practical Pharmacy, in the laboratory and dispensary. The museum is extensive, and peculiarly rich in specimens of calculi and diseased bone. The library contains many thousand volumes, and additions are constantly made to it. Students are allowed to take home the books they may require.

SUPLE SCHOLARSHIPS.—Two Scholarships, founded by the late R. Suple, Esq., of Clifton, will be awarded annually to the two best students attending the medical and surgical practice of the infirmary.

The Fees are the following: Surgeon's Pupil (non-assistant), first year, 20*l.*; second year, 12*l.* 10s.; third year, 7*l.* 10s.; for three years, at one payment, 35*l.* Surgeon's Pupil (dresser), first year, 35*l.*; second year, 30*l.*; third year, 25*l.*; for three years, at one payment, 80*l.*; Physician's Pupil, 15*l.* per annum.

Each pupil is required to pay an entrance fee to the Infirmary of 5*l.*, and a subscription of 1*l.* per annum to the library.

The Dressers reside in the Infirmary in weekly rotation, to attend upon the Casualties, and have unusual opportunities of becoming practically acquainted with the treatment of injuries and surgical maladies of all kinds. JOSEPH GRIFFITHS SWAYNE, M.D., Hon. Sec.

The Courses of Lectures delivered in this College are open to all Students, whether they intend to Matriculate at the University of Durham, or the University of London, or pass the Examinations of the Royal College of Surgeons, or the Society of Apothecaries.

Those Students who Matriculate at the University of Durham are enabled to proceed in the first place to a Licence in Medicine, and then to the Degrees of Bachelor and Doctor of Medicine in that University.

The course required is as follows: One year's residence in the University of Durham, and attendance on lectures similar to those given to Students in Arts in their first year. At the end of this year all Students in Medicine are required to pass an examination in the Rudiments of Religion, Literature, and Science.

Students of Medicine who have passed their first examination must afterwards pursue their studies for three years in the College of Medicine at Newcastle, and then, preparatory to obtaining a licence in Medicine, pass at Durham and Newcastle the final examination, which will be directed to the Medical Sciences.

Licentiates in Medicine may proceed to the Degrees of Bachelor and Doctor of Medicine, by performing such exercises as the Warden and Senate

A LIST
OF THE
CORONERS FOR COUNTIES AND BOROUGHS IN ENGLAND AND WALES.

THE EDITORS beg to express their sincere thanks for the information kindly forwarded by 300 of the gentlemen whose names appear in this List. Although there are doubtless some errors, the EDITORS have reason to believe the following to be the most accurate and complete LIST OF CORONERS yet published.
To the names of those gentlemen who have not returned the Circular forwarded to them, an asterisk (*) is prefixed, and for the correctness of those entries the EDITORS are not responsible.

FEES CLAIMABLE BY MEDICAL WITNESSES.

At a coroner's inquest for attending and giving medical evidence, in obedience to the order framed according to schedule A of the 6 and 7 William IV, cap. 89, commonly called "The Medical Witness Act" . . . . 1*l.* 1*s.* 0*d.*

If the witness has also, by direction of the Coroner, according to the like form, made a post-mortem examination of the body of the person deceased, then, on attending the inquest, and giving evidence thereon, the witness is entitled to receive a fee of . . . . . 2*l.* 2*s.* 0*d.*

The order to make a "post-mortem examination" comprehends a chemical analysis of the contents of the stomach, if such be necessary, as well as an analysis of any other fluid or substance placed in the hands of the witness by direction of the coroner, under suspicion that it was concerned in the demise of the person deceased; the chemical analysis is a part of the autopsy, and no separate or additional fee is recoverable for such analysis. A medical witness to whose skill a post-mortem examination is confided, is presumed to be competent to make every portion of a pathological or anatomical inspection; or, if he derive aid in his investigation from a professed chemist, or other such specially accomplished person, he must himself prove at the inquest all the appearances detected at the autopsy.

For attending to give medical evidence at trials in the criminal courts and in suits at law . . . . . 1*l.* 1s. 0*d.* to 2*l.* 2*s.* 0*d.*

Medical witnesses who, at inquests, are bound over by the coroner to appear at the sessions or assizes to give evidence at a trial for manslaughter or murder, are paid for attending at the trial, in addition to the payment at the inquest, a sum per day not fixed by law, but varying according to the practice of the county. The sum is probably nowhere less than a guinea per day. When a medical witness is examined at a police court, or before a bench of magistrates, he obtains no fee for his evidence there, and is remunerated only at the criminal court where the trial of the prisoner takes place. This is unjust in principle, as it opens a temptation to strain evidence against the accused at the preliminary enquiry. The medical witness on such occasions should obtain from the committing magistrate or justices a certificate of his claim to be paid at the trial, and present it at the office of the clerk of the arraigns, or other place where the fees of witnesses for attending the criminal court are paid.

A surgeon, called by a police officer to treat an accident, or a person in a state of insensibility, has a legal claim upon the patient, or his or her friends. If, however, he be summoned by the police to attend a sick person at the station-house, he is allowed 3*s.* 6*d.* for a visit in the day-time, and 7*s.* if after nine o'clock at night. These fees are paid by the police authorities.

The statute is so very precise in relation to the attendance and claims of medical gentlemen at coroners' inquests, and it is so necessary that it should be clearly comprehended, in order to save them needless trouble, that we subjoin the following exposition of the law:—

First and chiefly it should be understood, that to entitle a medical witness to receive a fee in the coroner's court, he must have received an order to attend the court, or to open the dead body, signed by the coroner, framed in the following terms:—

"Coroner's inquest at the . . . . in the parish of . . . in the county of . . . . . upon the body of . . . . . .

"By virtue of this my order, as coroner for . . . . you are required to appear before me and the jury at the place aforesaid, on the . . . day of . . . . . one thousand eight hundred and . . . at . . o'clock on the . . . . . noon to give evidence touching the cause of the death of the aforesaid person; and make, or assist in making, a post-mortem examination of the body, (with an analysis of the contents of the stomach, if such be necessary,) and report thereon at the said inquest.

"To Mr. . . . . "A. B., Coroner."

When any legally qualified medical practitioner has attended upon any inquest in obedience to any such order, as aforesaid, of the coroner, the said practitioner shall, for such attendance at any inquest in Great Britain, be entitled to receive such remuneration or fee as is mentioned in the table marked B in the "Table of Fees."—Section III of the Act.

At the same time that it provides for the payment of medical witnesses who previously had no security for payment, the Act throughout indicates that the summoning of witnesses to make post-mortem examinations and give medical testimony, shall rest with the coroner himself, expressed by the "order" above printed, and not be subject to the whim or discretion of any officer of Police, constable, beadle, or headborough; and without the possession of the "order" in question, a medical witness cannot legally claim the payment of the fee. The statute, however, does not exonerate medical gentlemen from the duty of obeying a common summons signed by the constable, under the warrant to assemble the inquest, since it may happen that professional men may be the proper persons to testify to facts that do not possess a medical character, and they are in law as fully bound to obey that summons as the express medical order of the coroner.

BRITTON, Simon Gage, M.D. St. Andrew's; M.R.C.S. Eng. 1812; Surg. R.N. 1806; on March 6, aged 73.

"The late Dr. Britton was a Surgeon in the Royal Navy, and amongst other appointments served the office of Acting Surgeon on board H.M.S. Pickle, during the memorable battle in which England's bravest naval hero fell. Mr Britton, then an Assistant-Surgeon in the Navy, volunteered his services on board the Victory, which were accepted, it being the duty of the little Pickle to sail round the fleet, and to carry despatches, &c. Some time after the Peace of 1814, Mr. Britton commenced practice as a Surgeon in his native city of Bristol, and resided for several years in St. Paul's street, Portman-square, where he attained great celebrity in his profession. During the years 1819 and 1820, the writer of this memento had the happiness of living in his domestic circle, in the capacity of an assistant Mr. Britton married the only child of the Rev. Thomas Hopkins, and has left a daughter and two sons, both of whom are distinguished scholars and clergymen of the Church of England. Dr. Britton left Bristol several years since, and retired to Newport, near Barnstable, where, for some time, he gave his advice gratuitously. Here, again, his success in the treatment of disease became widely spread, when he found himself drawn reluctantly into an extensive practice as a physician. At the urgent request of Earl Fortescue, and others, he allowed himself to be elected Physician to the North Devon Infirmary; advancing years and impaired health obliged him to retire from this office, when he was elected Consulting-Physician to the same Institution. He lived to a good old age, highly respected, and rendered ample service to his country and to his kindred. His end was peace."—Cheltenham Examiner.

CAMPS, THOMAS, M.R.C.S. Eng. 1824; L.S.A. 1823; on September 16th, at his residence, Fenny Stratford, Bucks, aged 55. In his medical practice—indeed in all his practice—he joined a touching kindliness of manners with a delicate conscientiousness, deep and lively feeling for all the modes of human suffering, a wide-spread benevolence with great liberality, exercised during his life upon numerous individual objects rather than centred upon masses. Himself unmarried, he loved childhood, and children loved him. He loved the poor and lowly, and chose his later residence in an obscure neighbourhood, in order to be amongst them, and adminster to their weakness. The labours of the busy day done up to the hour, the offices of charity prepared for even by anticipation, his death was momentary, seated at the domestic table with his papers before him, in the quietude of the evening hour. It may be a satisfaction to those who read this brief notice of a life of usefulness, as well as to those friends who knew him personally, also to know that the summons to a better world, momentary as it was, found him not unprepared, but was clearly foreseen by himself, although the hour and the manner of it was hidden from all previous observation. He communicated to several of the most distinguished members of his profession observations new to them, which they tested, approved, and used, and he was the writer of an able article in Medical and Chirurgical Review for 1854. He was interred in the burial ground of the Society of Friends, at Woburn Sands, among his forefathers of several generations.

from an old family long resident in the county of Durham, and was related to Sir Robert Chambers, Chief Justice of Bengal; Sir Charles Chambers, Judge of the Supreme Court of Bombay; Lord Glenelg, and Sir Robert Grant. Dr. Chambers was the son of William Chambers, Esq., in the civil service of the East India Company, and a distinguished Oriental scholar; his mother was the daughter of Thomas Frazer, of Balmain. He came to England in 1793, was educated at Westminster School, and afterwards became a student at Trinity College, Cambridge. His professional studies were conducted at the Windmill street School of Medicine, and at St. George's Hospital. In 1816, when only thirty years of age, Dr. Chambers was appointed full physician to the latter establishment. In 1820, he married his first cousin, Mary Frazer, by whom he had two sons and two daughters, all living. Soon after this period his practice rapidly increased, and he is well known to have held for many years the first rank as a physician in this metropolis. In 1837, he was gazetted as a physician to his Majesty William IV, who created him a K.C.H., but he is said to have declined adopting the usual title of knighthood, for reasons which have not been explained, but which were no doubt satisfactory to his own high sense of honour. In the year 1848, he experienced a severe attack of illness, marked by symptoms of disordered circulation in the head, accompanied by occasional epileptic fits, and partial palsy of the right hand, leg, and right half of the tongue. This visitation induced him to retire almost wholly from practice, and it was hoped that his health, which had always been delicate, would be restored by repose from the arduous duties of professional life. Such, however, was not the case, for after his retirement the unfavourable symptoms continued to increase, so that walking was attended with great difficulty, and even conversation was carried on by him with extreme labour. About a week before his decease, he was observed to be much better than usual, and conversed with unwonted ease about the subject of some books which were read to him. This improvement was attributed to the pleasure which he experienced in seeing all his family around him on the occasion of the marriage of his youngest son. But the transient amelioration of his symptoms was followed by an aggravation of the tendency to serous effusion on the brain which he had previously manifested, and a fatal termination was indicated by the occurrence of vomiting and stupor, rapidly followed by complete coma, and he died without pain or convulsion.

future; and though possibly in some instances but indifferently comprehended by his contemporaries, yet his various merits can now be more accurately estimated, and the claims he has on our respect and gratitude fairly judged in the meridian light of that literature and science whose early rising he with so much industry watched and foreshadowed."—*Extr. of Biog. in Med. GRAY, DAVID, Professor of Natural Philosophy, Marischal College, on Feb. 10, at Aberdeen. Professor Gray was highly respected in the City, not only for his ability as a man of science, but also for his generous catholicity of heart, and readiness to aid in every movement having for its aim the welfare of the people at large. While he was beloved by his college students, he was not less esteemed by a large number of the youth of Aberdeen in a lower station of life, for the willing manner in which he gave his services as teacher of one of the evening classes at the Mechanics' Institution—the poorest pupil of which he taught as cheerfully, and recognised as kindly, as the most fortunate of his scholars proper. Professor Gray, who had only attained his forty-sixth year, was a native of Kirkcaldy, and had held his appointment in Marischal College for about eleven years. His disease was a combination of gastric fever and diarrhœa, of which he had been ailing for several months.

Mr. Guthrie was elected Assistant-Surgeon to the Westminster Hospital in 1823, and full Surgeon in 1827. In 1824 he was elected a member of the Council of the Royal College of Surgeons at an earlier age than any other person so honoured—being only 38 years of age; and in 1833 was elected to the highest office, that of President—an honour conferred on him in 1842 and 1855, being the only instance at present on record of a member of the Council holding this office three times. Mr. Guthrie had also held the office of Professor of Anatomy and Surgery. For some time Mr. Guthrie's health had been such as to occasion considerable alarm in the minds of his family and friends, arising evidently from a diseased state of the heart. A few days previous to his decease it was considered he was much better, and he contemplated sojourning for a short time in the south of France. On the evening of April 30, he suffered much from a violent cough, and on the next morning, at 5 o'clock, he ceased to exist. He leaves behind him a son—Mr. Gardiner Guthrie, Surgeon to the Westminster and Ophthalmic Hospitals, and an unmarried daughter by his first marriage. Having married a second time he has also left a widow and an infant son to deplore his loss.

HILLS, ROBERT, M.D., Erlangen, 1838; M.R.C.S. Eng. 1838; L.S.A. 1839; on January 27, after a few days' illness, at his residence, 1, City-terrace, City-road. The deceased gentleman was a Fellow of the Botanical Society, and author of "Wife and Mother's Guide;" "Pathology and Treatment of Abortion," &c.

HOFFMAN, GEORGE HENRY, Surgeon, at Margate, on August 12, aged 80. Mr. Hoffmann was the senior partner of the firm "Hoffman, Son, and Beverly," of Cecil-street, Margate; and as such was very highly and deservedly respected. He died somewhat suddenly of paralysis; and the bereavement is deeply felt by his son, the surviving representative of the firm, who within six months has had to mourn the loss of a much-esteemed junior coadjutor (Mr. Beverly), and now of his much honoured-parent.

HOLLAND, THOMAS SEWARD, M.D. Edin. and M.R.C.S. Eng. 1850; formerly of Cork, and late Assistant-Physician at the Renkioi Hospital in the Dardanelles, on June 16, at Lambeth, aged 29. The deceased gentleman returned from Renkioi on Saturday, the 14th; he came home in the Alice Jackson, transport, having in his charge the nurses and other servants of the hospital. He had been gone from England about fourteen months, and, on his return, appeared much stouter and in better health than when he left. On Monday, the 16th, he was apparently quite well, and went to transact some business at the War Office, and on his return home walked up and down the garden with his brother-in-law. After that he left to go to his lodgings, and about eight o'clock next morning Dr. Ladd, his brother-in-law, was called to see him. When Dr. Ladd arrived at the house he found Dr. Holland lying in bed, on his face, quite dead. Whilst a student in Dublin, and since that time, he had been subject to epileptic fits, and Dr. Ladd was of opinion that while in such a fit he had turned on his face and died. We believe that the deceased gentleman had latterly been writing a great deal for a publication relative to the late war. Dr. Holland was a Corr. Mem. Soc. Anat. and Paris. Med. Soc. Author of "Pathological Anatomy, considered in its relations to Med. Science," 1852, and Contributed the following papers: "Aneurisms of the Arteria Innominata, their History and Differential Diagnosis from Aneurisms of the Arch of the Aorta," Dub. Quart. Journ. Med. 1852; "Excess of Colorless Corpuscles of the Blood (Leucocy Memia) occurring in Cases of Goitre," Quart. Journ. Microscop. Science, 1853.

HOPE, CHARLES WILLIAM, M.R.C.S. Eng. 1844—Resident Surgeon of the Convict department—was brutally murdered while in discharge of his duty, early on the morning of February 8th, by a convict on board the Stirling Castle. The deceased studied at King's College, where he received from the Professors distinguishing marks of his abilities and assiduity in gaining professional knowledge. Having passed the College of Surgeons, London, in 1844, he became attached to the Medical Staff of the Hôpital, "Havre de Grace." Afterwards he received the appointment of Assistant-Surgeon to the "Convict Hulks," where he remained up to his melancholy death. He performed capital operations with marked success. Notwithstanding this, and his general and careful attention to the sick under his care, his labours were unrewarded by promotion, because, forsooth! "only Naval and Military Surgeons are deemed qualified to fill the post of Surgeon in the Convict Service." Let this be a warning to all young men who may think of entering this Service with the prospect of becoming Surgeons in it. Mr. Hope had been for some time previous to his death pursuing some barometrical investigations, the result of which incessant toil would probably have been made known to the world had he lived a few days longer.

HURST, ISAAC, M.R.C.S. Eng. 1820; F.R.C.S. (Hon.) 1843; late Surgeon to the Bedford General Infirmary; on April 9, at Bedford.—Mr. Hurst was the son of the late Rev. Isaac Hurst, of Milton Ernest, Bedfordshire, and grandson of the Rev. Robert H. Hurst, formerly Incumbent of Newton Blossomville, Bucks. He was born in 1797, and received his education at Christ's Hospital. In 1814 he commenced his professional education, as pupil of the late Charles Short, Esq., of Bedford, and in 1819 entered at Guy's and St. Thomas's Hospitals. During his Studentship at this school, his steady attention to his Professional pursuits attracted the notice of Sir Astley Cooper, with whom he became a favourite pupil. He was often entrusted to put up anatomical preparations, and not unfrequently he was taken by Sir Astley to see interesting cases in his private practice. The following Testimonial, which was presented to Mr. Hurst at the termination of his studies in London, will show the high estimation in which he was held by that distinguished Surgeon. It is not an ordinary form of Testimonial, and may, therefore, claim notice in this place:

"It is with singular pleasure I bear testimony to the professional and moral character of Mr. Isaac Hurst. His zeal in the pursuit of science is unbounded, his attainments in practical knowledge are greater than those of any other person of his age I have had the pleasure to instruct. Also diffident, gentle, and humane, he is peculiarly qualified to practise a Profession which requires skill, attention, and humanity.

"London, July 6, 1823. "ASTLEY COOPER."

On leaving London he became an assistant of the late Dr. Andrews, of Watford, to whom he was strongly recommended by Sir Astley Cooper. In this situation Mr. Short, with whom he had served his apprenticeship, expressed a strong wish for him to join him in his practice, which he did, first as assistant, and afterwards as partner. On the retirement of his much-respected partner, Mr. Hurst was appointed his successor as one of the Surgeons to the Bedford Infirmary. He held this post until last year, when he relinquished the active duties of his Profession, and was appointed a Consulting-Surgeon to that Institution. For some years past, he has been joined in partnership by Mr. Robert Couchman, nephew of his first tutor and subsequent partner, the late Mr. Charles Short. After the new charter had been granted to the Royal College of Surgeons, Mr. Hurst was inserted in the first list of Provincial Surgeons upon whom the honorary distinction of Fellow of the College was conferred. About a year and a half ago symptoms of ramollissement of the brain began to show themselves, and Mr. Hurst gradually withdrew from practice. During the last few months he was seized, on three occasions, with strong convulsions; from the last of these attacks, on the 30th of March, he never thoroughly rallied. The distinguishing characteristics of this lamented gentleman were, his ardent love of the practice of his Profession, and his kind and liberal conduct towards every one with whom he came in contact. His love of his Profession was unbounded, and his practice of it was self-denying and laborious in the extreme. During the last few years, he was often called in consultation by his fellow-practitioners in the town and county of Bedford, and even in the neighbouring counties. From the first he had enjoyed an extensive general practice, consequently he had seen very much in all the departments of the Profession; his mind was a rich store-house of large experience, and his judgment greatly to be relied upon. When the writer of this short sketch was conversing with him from time to time, upon certain important points of practice, Mr. Hurst has often expressed regret that he had never made any record of interesting cases which had come under his observation. Few practitioners, during the last thirty years, have had ampler opportunities of enriching the practical Medical literature of the day; and it is a source of regret that the results of his extensive experience should not have been communicated to others than his own immediate Medical friends. His unvarying kindness to every one, and particularly to his Professional brethren, was a pre-eminent characteristic of the deceased. The young medical practitioner looked up to him as a steady and unwavering friend, ready with his assistance and advice in every emergency. These services were frequently rendered without any fee or any reward except the gratitude of his Professional brother and of the patient. Any difficulty which might present itself in the practice of his brother surgeon, whether the patient were rich and could pay a fee, or whether he were poor and penniless, would equally claim his best and most willing services. He was especially jealous, too, of the reputation of his brethren, and would most tenderly guard it from any imputation of unskilfulness. He scorned anything like an approach to meanness, and would practise nothing but the most straightforward and honourable mode of rivalry. At any time he would rather generously give up a patient than supplant a brother-practitioner in public estimation. He has been known voluntarily to act as mediator between patient and medical attendant (to the former of whom he had been professionally called) when some misunderstanding had arisen. He has succeeded in reconciling the parties, rather than attempt to widen the breach for any selfish ends. On such occasions he would say, "My dear, sir, God knows that I would rather give you a dozen of my patients if I could, than take one of your own." Medical etiquette, in Mr. Hurst's practice, was reduced to its utmost and primitive simplicity; for the ruling principle of his professional as well as of his social life, was solely "To do unto others as he would that others should do unto himself." Beloved by all who knew him, he has gone from the scene of his valuable labours, and has left behind him a bright example of unselfish and generous devotion to his Profession, which it will be well for every one of us to imitate.

KEELE, JOHN RUSHWORTH, M.R.C.S. Eng. 1805; on January 31, at Southampton, aged 69. Mr Keele had been fifty years in practice in Southampton. He was one of the best specimens of the old-fashioned practitioners, who allowed patients to come to him, and never sought them; he practised medicine as a profession, not as a trade, gaining thereby the respect of the public as well as of his medical brethren. Mr. Keele was a practical geologist, and an antiquarian; with the history and antiquities of his native town he was minutely acquainted. He had been twice mayor in the old corporation, of which he was an active member. Up to the last three months he had continued his practice; and his death was hastened by a poisoned wound received whilst dressing one of his patients. His remains were followed to the grave by nearly the whole of his professional brethren in the town and neighbourhood.

LEECH, JOHN, L.R.C.S.I., L.M. Dub.; on August 6, at the residence of his brother, Upper Seymour-street, London, aged 44. Mr Leech sank under a very painful affection of the liver, from which he had suffered, more or less, during the last six years. He was attached to the Liverpool Dispensaries for a period of ten years; and during this lengthened period of servitude, Mr Leech was most zealous and indefatigable in the discharge of his arduous duties, and was much beloved by the patients, and esteemed by the managers. The illness which has proved fatal to him became developed during his last years of service, and was, undoubtedly, in part brought on by the extreme fatigue and anxiety of mind that he had undergone.

LONGMORE, THOMAS, formerly Surgeon R.N.; on July 18, aged 77.

LUCAS, PHILIP BENNETT, F.R.C.S. Eng. This truly estimable gentleman and excellent Surgeon died at Pau, in the Pyrenees, on May 22, where he had gone for the benefit of his health, aged 53. In the eventful year of railway speculation, Mr. Lucas, like many of our brethren, became a victim to the prevailing mania, and to escape the consequences took up his residence in Boulogne, where he rapidly rose into fame as a skilful practitioner, and for many years had carried on a large and lucrative practice. Eventually he came into possession of a large private fortune, but not before he had surrounded himself with warm and generous friends, and formed ties and associations which could not be lightly broken, presenting a powerful obstacle to his return to the first scene of his professional success, London, which, however, was always uppermost in his thoughts. At each annual visit, for years past, of the writer of this brief notice to his friend, the parting words were "the next time we meet will be in London." Alas! death has interposed, and denied him this chief gratification of his wishes. His kindness of heart, gentlemanly deportment, and agreeable manner, made him a general favourite in the sphere of his professional avocations, whilst among his brethren he had obtained by his writings a status, high in the rank of scientific Surgeons. His loss is severely felt by a large circle of friends.

He was held in the highest estimation by a wide circle of acquaintances, both as a medical practitioner and an estimable member of society; and now that he has been removed from the scene of his earthly labours, the members of many a quiet unobtrusive family will have occasion to say that in him they have lost not only a skilful physician but a dear and valued friend.

RICHOND DES BRUS, Corresponding Member of the Academy of Medicine, Paris, and a copious work on "Syphilitic Diseases."

ROBERTS, RICHARD WORTHINGTON, late Surgeon-General in the Artillery, on March 5, aged 81.

ROBINS, JAMES, M.R.C.S. Eng. 1824; L.S.A. 1830; on July 15, at Heaton House, Leek, Staffordshire.

ROSS, ARCHIBALD C., M.D., on September 6th, at Funchal, Madeira, from cholera, aged 47. A short time previous to his decease, this gentleman had hastened from England, where he had arrived to arrange some private affairs, in order to render his aid to the sufferers from epidemic cholera in the Island of Madeira, where he had for many years conducted a considerable practice. But, one week had scarcely elapsed since his arrival at Funchal when this accomplished and able physician fell a victim to the epidemic,—thus adding another name to the list of those medical worthies who have been sacrificed at the shrine of duty. Dr. Ross was highly esteemed by all who enjoyed the privilege of his acquaintance, and his premature decease will be deeply lamented.

RUMLEY, THOMAS, F.R.C.S.I. at York-street, Dublin.

RUMSEY, EDWARD, M.D., late of Amersham, Bucks, on December 11th, at Oporto, aged 66.

RUMSEY, JAMES, M.D. Archb. Cantab., F.R.C.S. (Hon.) &c.; formerly of Amersham, Bucks, on February 26, at Clifton, aged 78.

RUSSELL, R. J., M.D., Bombay Army, on November 20th, at Bombay, aged 37.

RUSSELL, THOMAS, Surgeon, H.E.I.C.S., on September 28th, at St. George-street, Aberdeen, aged 46.

RYAN, M. H., Surgeon, at 8, Caroline-row, Dublin.

SALTER, THOMAS, M.R.C.S. Eng. 1810; F.R.C.S. 1844; F.L.S. &c., on February 20th, at Poole, Dorset.—The deceased gentleman was the descendant of a highly respectable Quaker-family in Somersetshire, and became at an early age the pupil of the late Thomas Bell, Esq., of Poole. In 1809 he entered at St. Thomas's Hospital, and in 1810 he was admitted a Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, the Council of which, on the grant of the new Charter in 1844, conferred on him the title of Fellow. On his return to Poole, after the completion of his medical studies in London, he was admitted into partnership by Mr. Bell, whose only daughter he married. From this time, until the day of his death, he continued to practise his profession in Poole, where he acquired a high degree of influence, not only by the success of his medical practice, but also by his social qualities, the cheerfulness of his disposition, and the atmosphere of pleasant comfort which his presence diffused even in the chamber of sickness and of suffering. Through the whole of this lengthened period he prosecuted his profession in all its scientific bearings, and constantly kept pace with advancing discovery, reading all the most important medical works as they appeared, and preparing with his own hands anatomical and pathological specimens. The medical library which he has left behind him is one of the largest, and his medical museum by far the most important in the county of Dorset. He also contributed many valuable Papers to medical literature, most of which were published in the Transactions of the different medical societies; and educated more than twenty pupils, many of whom, including his three surviving sons, hold a distinguished position in the ranks of the profession. His youngest son, Mr. Morgan Salter, unhappily volunteered to take the medical charge of H.M.S. Prince, and perished from the wreck of that ill-fated ship in the great storm at Balaklava. Mr. Salter's death, which was no doubt hastened by this sad event, from the shock of which he never recovered, took place suddenly. On his way to visit some sick poor, on the night of the 20th of February, the extreme coldness of the air appears partially to have arrested his circulation, which his heart was apparently too feeble to restore. He sought refuge in the house of a friend, where he died before any assistance could arrive, from no actual disease, but from sudden and complete prostration of the system. In early life he devoted his few leisure hours to the study of geology, botany, and chemistry, and he has left a choice and numerous collection of fossils accumulated at that period. In 1824 he became a Fellow of the Linnean Society, and in 1827 of the Medico-Chirurgical: he held also the Commission of a Justice of Peace for the town of Poole. Although it was his express desire that his funeral should be quiet and unostentatious, some hundreds of the most respectable inhabitants of the town attended to do honour to his memory, and the closing of shops and private houses in the route through which the funeral was to pass, evinced the deep respect in which he was held. He died at the age of 70.

SANDERSON, JOHN, M.R.C.S. Eng. 1808; in practice prior to 1815; formerly of the Royal Artillery; on November 29th, at his residence, Bishopton, near Stockton-on-Tees, Durham, after an illness of about a fortnight.

SANDRAS, M.D., Physician to the Hotel Dieu, on April 24th, at Paris. Dr. Sandras was the Author of a well-known treatise on Nervous Diseases, of which a second edition was about to appear. Seized with the symptoms of fever while visiting his patients at the Hotel Dieu, he obstinately resisted all treatment, and was carried off by a supervening cerebral affection.

SANKEY, EDWARD, M.R.C.S. Eng. and L.S.A. 1820; on August 16th, at Canterbury, aged 57.

SAYERS, HENRY BOWLES, M.R.C.S. Eng. 1851, at Bandon, Co. Cork.

SCHEDEL, HENRY, well known as the joint author with M. Cazenave of an excellent work on the Diseases of the Skin, perished in Switzerland by a fall from the rocks whilst attempting to ascend Mount Pilate alone, and in the night. M. Schedel was the son of a German and an English lady. He had for several years past relinquished practice, and devoted his highly cultivated mind and immense information to purely scientific pursuits.

SEMPLE, DOUGLAS, L.F.P. S. Glasg. 1851; M.R.C.S. Eng. 1852; at Dudley, Worcestershire.

SHARPLES, THOMAS HENRY, M.R.C.S. Eng. and L.S.A. 1838; on January 11th, at Tamworth, aged 41.

SHEEN, FREDERICK, Surgeon of the "Mercia," in June last, on his way home from Hobart Town.

SHEPPARD, JAMES, M.D. Aberd. 1844; M.R.C.S. Eng. and L.S.A. 1840; J. P. County Devon, &c., on September 2nd, at his residence, Stonehouse, Devon, aged 39. The decease of this lamented gentleman is thus spoken of by a local paper: "By this unexpected event society has been deprived of an ornament, and the inhabitants of Stonehouse in particular have sustained a loss which will be much felt and deeply deplored. Of pure morals, and genuine but unobtrusive piety, nature had endowed him with varied mental powers, which, in his professional writings, developed views at once original and well supported. Amiable and dignified in his manner, his skill and kindness of heart converted his patients into obliged and affectionate friends, who feel in his death a well-nigh irreparable loss. As a citizen, his far-seeing and generous mind, urged him amid the foremost ranks of an enlarged and philanthropic liberalism, where his graceful amenity conciliated his opponents and divested opposition of its rancour. An active magistrate, he tempered justice with mercy. Accessible to all classes on all occasions, the earnest interest he evinced in every public or private benefit he could procure, may in some measure explain the general shock and sorrow which was felt throughout Stonehouse at the news of his untimely end. A large number of the tradesmen have shown their esteem for his memory by partly closing their shops."

SHOWGER, Samuel Badley, L.S.A. 1837; at Yarmouth, Norfolk.

SIDDALL, John, Veterinary Surgeon, of the Royal Horse Guards (Blue), after a service of fifty-two years in that regiment, of which he was the last remaining member present at Waterloo, on October 2nd, at 3, Albert-place, Long Walk, Windsor, aged 69.

SIDEBOTTOM, Samuel S., M.R.C.S. Eng. 1846; at Mottram, in Longdendale, Cheshire.

SKINNER, George Robert, Assistant-Surgeon, H.E.I.C.S., Bengal, on March 26, at Bath, aged 30.

SLAYTOR, John, Surgeon, at Bawtry, Yorks, on May 4.

SMART, James Campbell, L.S.A. 1825, on December 29th, at Richmond, Surrey, aged 56.

SMITH, John, M.D. and S. Havana, 1845; M.R.C.S. Eng. and L.S.A. 1837; at Nottingham.

SMITH, John Whittaker, Surgeon, of Artillery-place, Finsbury.—Mr. Smith was the third son of the late Mr. Smith, of Barrowby, Hull, Yorks. He commenced his studies with Mr. J. Branson, of Doncaster, and afterwards proceeded to London, and entered at the Boro' Hospitals during the period of the union of Guy's and St. Thomas's, and was one of Mr. Granger's most regular attendants at the Webb-street School of Anatomy. While a student he was elected Assistant Medical Officer to the Pontefract Dispensary, where he gave universal satisfaction. He afterwards ended his curriculum of study at the London hospitals, and became a Licentiate of the Apothecaries' Company in 1826, and a Member of the Royal College of Surgeons in 1827; he was then elected Resident Medical Officer to the Wakefield General Dispensary, the duties of which office, however, he did not discharge, as he was anxious to enter into private practice. He commenced his career in London, and was soon elected Surgeon to the London Fire Engine Establishment, which he held up to the day of his death, a period of more than twenty-two years. He also held the appointments of Surgeon to the City of London and East London Dispensary, of Out-door Medical Officer to the Poor of St. Luke's Parish, by whom he was most deservedly beloved, and of Examining Surgeon to the Houseless Poor. He was a Member of the Hunterian Society, and Senior Member of the Physical Society, Guy's Hospital. He died at his residence, 8, Artillery-place, Finsbury-square, on the 7th January, in his 53rd year, of typhus fever, after only ten days' illness, during which time he was kindly attended by Drs. Addison and Jeaffreson, and most unremittingly by Dr. Gull. He has left a widow and nine children, who deeply mourn his loss. His eldest son, who is following his late father's profession, is now studying at Guy's Hospital.

SMITH, Thomas, late Physician-General H.E.I.C.S., on February 25, at Craigforth House, Stirlingshire.

SOLE, William, M.R.C.S. Eng. 1829; F.R.C.S. 1852; L.S.A. 1825; at St. Neot's, Hunts.

SPACKMAN, Robert, M.R.C.S. Eng. 1812; M.S.A.; in practice prior to 1815; on May 4, at St. Alban's, Herts, aged 66, after a protracted illness. The deceased was a good and successful practitioner for upwards of forty years at Lutterworth, in Leicestershire, where he was much and deservedly respected. He retired from the active duties of a profession to which he was warmly attached, and of which he was a worthy member, in the early part of 1854, to taste that retirement to which so many years devoted to the labours of his profession entitled him, but which he was not long permitted to enjoy.

SPIERS, JOHN ROBERT, M.D. and L.R.C.S. Edin. 1832; on March 16, at Grey-place, Greenock, Renfrewshire. The deceased gentleman was surgeon to the Gaol and Admiralty, and senior surgeon to the Hospital and Infirmary; he also contributed to the Lancet, "Hospital Cases relative to Excision of the Elbow-joint," 1850.

SPROAT, JOHN, M.D., for many years in practice in Melbourne, Australia, on August 28, at Rockville, Kirkcudbright, N.B.

STAINES, RICHARD, Surgeon, on January 8, at the Grove, Stratford, Essex, aged 75.

STAMP, CHARLES HENRY, L.S.A. 1824; formerly Asst.-Surg. of Militia and of Boston Gen. Disp.; on May 8, at Ramsey, Hunts.

STEEL, RICHARD H., F.R.C.S. 1843; many years Surgeon to the West Herts Infirmary, on February 1, at Berkhampstead, aged 89.

STUART, JAMES, Staff-Surgeon, late of the Ceylon Rifle Regiment, at Haslar Hospital, on March 10.

STUBBS, J., Surgeon, at Peel, Isle of Man.

SUTHERLAND, NEIL, M.D., on April 12, at Aberdeen, aged 86.

TAIT, GEORGE, M.D., on February 23, at Cullen, Banffshire, aged 23, of typhus fever, caught in the discharge of his professional duties. Dr. Tait had commenced practice only about three weeks before he was seized with his fatal illness. His amiable disposition and unassuming manners were calculated to win for him very general esteem; and a universal feeling of regret for his untimely death prevails throughout the district which was the scene of his brief labours.

TAYLOR, HENRY. In practice prior to 1815; House-Surgeon and Visiting Apoth. Branch Dispensary of Cheltenham General Hosp.; on December 12, 1855, at Oxford House, Cheltenham.

TAYLOR, JOHN, M.D. Eng. 1830; Treasurer of the Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh; Vice-President of the Medico-Chirurgical Society, &c.; on July 14, at his residence, 2, Abercromby-place, Edinburgh, aged 52.

TAYLOR, JOHN, M.R.C.S. Eng. 1842; L.S.A. 1845; at Earle's Colne, Essex.

TAYLOR, WILLIAM, Surgeon, at 53, Upper Stamford-street, Blackfriars-rd.

TEMPLE, WILLIAM, L.K.Q.C.P. and L.R.C.S.I., Surgeon to the Monaghan Regiment of Militia, on July 26, at Belturbet, where he was quartered, aged 28. Dr. Temple was universally esteemed, and is much regretted by his brother officers and a numerous circle of friends.

THOM, ALEXANDER, L.R.C.S. Edin. 1816; formerly Regimental Assistant-Surgeon; on July 5, at Dobcross, Manchester.

THOMAS, JOHN. In practice prior to 1815; at Burnage, Manchester.

THOMAS, T., Surgeon, at Llanfaircaerinon, Montgomeryshire.

TOMKYNS, WILLIAM, Ext. L.R.C.P. Lond. 1843; M.R.C.S. Eng. and L.S.A. 1820; late Med. Off. Ilchester Gaol; Mem. Med. Socs. of Geneva and Paris, &c., in November, 1855.

TOMLINSON, JAMES FRANCIS, M.R.C.S. Eng. 1815; L.S.A. 1816; of Maldon, Essex, on August 27, at Foley-place, Regent-street, aged 62.

TRANTER, GEORGE, M.D., for many years Surgeon to the United Malwa Contingent, on November 10, at Mehidpore, Central India.

TRAYER, THOMAS R., M.D. St. And. 1845; M.R.C.S. Eng. 1844; L.S.A. Irel. 1841; on October 5, on board the "Donald McKay," of which he was surgeon. The deceased gentleman had been for many years the respected and assiduous house-physician of the Cork South Infirmary, and had determined on going to Australia for the benefit of a sea voyage. On Sunday, when the ship was off Cape Clear, he was ill, and died in the short space of three hours. He had, like many of his brethren, been overworked in the "famine and fever year;" had contracted typhus fever himself; and not being able afterwards to enjoy the leisure required for a perfect convalescence, his constitution had continued very gradually to decline, but hopes were held out that a foreign clime might restore it. Instead of that (as says a local paper) his wife is a widow, his children are orphans, and his sister bereft of the aid of a generous brother's care. But they have not been left without the sympathy of the profession. At a meeting held on Saturday, the 11th, in the space of half-an-hour the sum of 90*l.* was paid into the hands of the treasurer, Dr. Richard Corbett.

VEITCH, JAMES, M.D. Edin., L.R.C.P. Lond., &c., Deputy Inspector of Hospitals and Fleets, on July 4, at his residence, 6, Ovington-square, Brompton, aged 86. Dr. Veitch was formerly Surg. Roy. Naval Hosp., Plymouth; Surg. of Antigua Hosp. (and at this asylum the humane treatment of the insane was fully established in 1815), and of prisoners of war, Norman Cross, and the Lunat. Asyl. Hoxton, and Phys. of the Chelsea, Brompton, and Belgrave Disp.; Mem. Roy. Med. Soc. Edin., and formerly one of the Annual Pres. Roy. Phys. Soc. Edin. Author—"Essay on the Prevention and Cure of Yellow Fever;" Latin Treatise on the same; the first introducer of Vacc. Inoculat. into the Navy, in 1800, under the auspices of Earl St. Vincent; and of the small round single ligature into the practice of surgery; "Essays on Insanity;" a brochure in 1829, "On the Means of Preserving the Health of Children;" "Essay on Secondary Hæmorrhage;" "Essay on Amputation at the Hip-Joint, and the Ligature of Arteries;" also "A Fasciculus, recommending the assimilation of the Med. Departments of the Army and Navy as to pay and rank;" and the inventor of the Med. Chir. Ambulance for the day of battle (for which the Soc. of Arts voted their Hon. Testimonials); also "Proposition in 1835 for converting our Naval Hosps. into Schools of Med.;" "An Essay on the Influence of the Surface of the Body in Causing and Curing Disease."

VIDAL, M. (de Cassis), on April 16th, at Paris, aged 53. He had for some years past suffered from a painful affection of the kidneys; notwithstanding which he was able, until lately, to fulfil his duties as Surgeon to the Midi Hospital, and to revise the fourth edition of the "Traité de Pathologie Externe," and the second edition of the "Traité des Maladies Vénériennes." He was the inventor of several ingenious procedures in Surgery, and a frequent contributor to the medical journals.

WADD, THOMAS MILNER, M.R.C.S. Eng. 1804; Surgeon to Whitecross-street prison, on September 12th, at his residence, Bevis-court, Basinghall-street, aged 76.

WARBURTON, JAMES THREAPLAND, M.R.C.S. on June 27, at Croft House, Wibsey, Bradford, aged 62.

WARING, JOHN ARTHUR, M.R.C.S. Eng. 1830; L.S.A. 1835; late Surgeon H.E.I.C.S.; on August 3rd, at Parson's green, Fulham, aged 48.

WARREN, JOHN C., M.D., on May 4th, at Boston, United States, aged 77. The deceased had a name on both sides of the Atlantic as one of the most eminent Surgeons of the age. He was Emeritus Professor of Anatomy and Surgery in Harvard College, President of the Boston Society of Natural History, a Member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, of the American Philosophical Society, of the Philadelphia Academy of Natural Sciences, of the Academy of Naples, and the Medical Society of Florence, an honorary member of the Medico-Chirurgical Society of London, and a corresponding member of the Royal Academy of Medicine in Paris. Dr. Warren was born in Boston, August 1st, 1778. His father, Dr. John Warren, was a distinguished Surgeon, and his predecessor as Professor of Anatomy and Surgery in Harvard College. Dr. Warren graduated at Harvard College in 1797. It is remarkable that the four most eminent scholars of that class have survived nearly sixty years after graduation. In 1806, the deceased was appointed Adjunct Professor of Anatomy and Surgery at Harvard College, and in 1815 succeeded to the full Professorship. During the past ten years the deceased had devoted himself with great zeal to the study of the natural sciences. His museum of specimens in comparative anatomy, osteology, and palæontology is regarded as one of the richest private collections in existence. It contains a very perfect skeleton of a mastodon giganteus of North America, of which he published a description in a splendid quarto volume, which was gratuitously distributed to scientific men and institutions, in our country and in Europe. Dr. Warren was a devoted and loved Physician, a skilful Surgeon, an intelligent medical teacher, and a public-spirited citizen.

WASHBOURNE, THOMAS, M.R.C.S. 1820; L.S.A. 1819; at Corsham, Wilts.

WATHEN, WM., L.S.A. 1828; at Gloucester.

WILLIAMS, JOHN CALTHORP, M.D. Edin. 1824; F.R.C.P. Edin. 1845; Grad. Univ. Edin. 1824; on July 21st, at Nottingham. This gentleman's death was sudden, and occasioned by a lamentable accident. He was returning in his carriage from Wollaton Hall, Notts, the seat of Lord Middleton, after dining with his Lordship, and when near the town the horse became restive. The unfortunate deceased was thrown out of the carriage, and, falling upon his head, was fearfully injured. He was conveyed to his residence at Nottingham, where a number of his professional friends attended him, but he died from the effects of the accident on Monday night. Dr. Williams held the following appointments: Visiting Physician to the General Lunatic Asylum, Nottingham; Hon. Consulting Physician to the Blind Asylum for the Midland Counties; late Physician of the General Hospital and of the Nottingham Dispensary. Author of "Practical Observations on Nervous and Sympathetic Palpitations of the Heart," 1836; Second Edition, 1852.

WILLIAMS, JOHN, Surgeon, R.N., on November 8, at Queen's terrace, Southsea, aged 71.

WILLIAMS, PETER, M.R.C.S. Eng. 1812; in March, at Solwa, Pembrokeshire.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

AMICABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY,

50, FLEET-STREET, LONDON.

Incorporated by Charter of Queen Anne, A.D. 1706, and empowered by Special Acts of Parliament, 8 Victoria, cap. viii, and 17 Victoria, cap. xii.

DIRECTORS.

Francis Geo. Abbott, Esq.	Robert Obbard, Esq.

PHYSICIANS.

Francis Boott, M.D., 24, Gower-street, Bedford-square.
Theophilus Thompson, M.D., F.R.S., 3, Bedford-square.

SOLICITOR.

Charles Rivington, Esq., Fenchurch-buildings.

BANKERS.

Messrs. Goslings and Sharpe, Fleet-street.

This Society has been established upwards of a century and a half, and is the oldest Life Assurance Institution in existence. Its principles are essentially those of Mutual Assurance, and the whole of the profits are divided among the members.

Policies entitling assurers to participate in the profits, and in virtue of which the lives assured are admitted members of this Corporation, are now issued exclusively on the bonus plan established in 1845; but policies are also granted for fixed sums (without participation in profits) upon a reduced scale of premiums, on the lives of persons who do not, in right thereof, become members.

Assurances may be effected on the lives of persons in every station or profession, and upon every contingency depending on human life. No charge is made for policy stamps.

The rates of premium required by this Society are moderate; the sums assured by its policies are guaranteed by a large accumulated capital invested in the Government funds, freehold estates, and other approved securities; and the expenses of management amount only to about 3 per cent. on the annual income.

The Directors are empowered to lend money upon mortgage of freehold estates, life interests, &c.; and loans of sums not less than 20*l.* are granted upon the security of the Society's policies after three years' payments have been made.

Prospectuses and every information may be obtained at the Office.

HENRY THOMAS THOMSON, Registrar.

Auditors.

Standish Grove Grady, Esq., Recorder of Gravesend, Pump-court, Temple.
James Walton, Esq., Clifton-road, St. John's-wood.

Medical Officers.

Henry Ancell, Esq., M.R.C.S., 3, Norfolk-crescent, Hyde-park.
Robert Dunn, Esq., F.R.C.S., Norfolk-street, Strand.

Bankers.—Union Bank of London, 4, Pall-mall East.

Solicitor.—Charles Pool Froom, Esq., 35, Lincoln's-inn-fields.

Actuary & Secretary.—Thomas Henry Cooper, Esq.

The principles upon which this Society is based are such as to embrace all the liberal improvements peculiar to modern institutions of a like nature.

Policies are so framed as to render the payment of the amount assured "ABSOLUTE" and Indefeasible; and in all cases where a policy may have been assigned for a bonâ fide consideration, no contingency will deprive the assignee of his interest therein.

The business of this Society comprises all descriptions of risk connected with Life Assurance, including Annuities, Present and Deferred; Endowments, or Deferred Absolute payments; and Loans on approved security.

Assurances are granted by this Society on the lives of persons in every station of life, under every contingency of occupation, residence, or climate: —on survivorships;—for life or for terms of years.

The Society offers every facility for effecting Policies, and for rendering them available in business transactions; notice of the assignment of Policies will be received and duly registered; Policies will be granted from £50 to £5,000; the Premium may be paid either in one sum, or annually, half-yearly, or quarterly; and should the Insured die within thirty days after the yearly day of payment of the Premium, payment by the representatives will be held sufficient to preserve the Policy.

The Terms for Assurances on any contingency depending upon Life, for Annuities, Endowments, &c., may be obtained, on application, either personally or by letter.

The Board Day is every Tuesday at 3 p.m., but Assurances may be effected any day from 10 to 4, except on Saturdays, when the Office closes at 2.

All Policy Stamps and Medical Fees are paid by the Society.

The Expenses of the Office are regulated by the strictest economy, and the Directors are thereby enabled to exercise great liberality towards Solicitors and others introducing Assurances.

 The Medical Attendant on the proposed Assurer paid £1 1s. for any report required by the Society.

His late Majesty King William IV, when Duke of Clarence, insured his life in the ALBION, on the non-participating scale, and died at the age of seventy-two, his payments having exceeded the sum insured. On the other hand, there are but too many instances, in which the advantages of Life Insurance over every other means of providing against uncertain contingencies are strikingly shown. The destruction of the "Amazon" steamship furnishes a painful example. The celebrated Author of 'The Crescent and the Cross,' who perished on that awful occasion, had insured his life in the ALBION only two days before he sailed, little anticipating how soon the value of the insurance would be realised.

ARGUS LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY,

39, THROGMORTON-STREET, BANK.

CHAIRMAN—Thomas Farncomb, Esq., Alderman.

DEPUTY-CHAIRMAN—William Leaf, Esq.

Richard E. Arden, Esq.	John Humphery, Esq., Alderman
Edward Bates, Esq.	Rupert Ingleby, Esq.

PHYSICIAN—Dr. Jeaffreson, 2, Finsbury-square.

SURGEON—W. Coulson, Esq., 2, Frederick's-place, Old Jewry.

ACTUARY—George Clark, Esq.

ADVANTAGES OF ASSURING WITH THIS COMPANY.

The Premiums are on the lowest scale consistent with security.

The Assured are protected by an ample subscribed capital—an Assurance Fund of 430,000*l.* invested on Mortgage and in the Government Stocks—and an Income of 80,000*l.* a year.

Premiums to Assure £100.			Whole Term.

MUTUAL BRANCH.

Assurers on the Bonus system are entitled, at the end of five years, to participate in nine-tenths, or 90 per cent. of the profits.

The Profit assigned to each Policy can be added to the sum assured, applied in reduction of the annual premium, or be received in cash.

At the first division a return of 20 per cent. in cash on the premiums paid was declared; this will allow a reversionary increase varying, according to age, from 66 to 28 per cent. on the premiums, or from 5 to 15 per cent. on the sum assured.

One-half of the "whole-term" premium may remain on credit for seven years, or one-third of the premium may remain for life as a debt upon the policy at 5 per cent., or may be paid off at any time without notice.

Claims paid in One Month after proofs have been approved.

Loans upon approved security.

NO CHARGE FOR POLICY STAMPS.

Medical Attendants paid for their reports.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

Persons Assured for the whole term of Life, for £100 and upwards, in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, will have an ADDITION made to their policies every FIFTH YEAR (instead of every seventh, as heretofore), or an equivalent reduction will be made in the future payments of Premium, at the option of the Assured.

Policies may also be effected for the whole term of Life by payments yearly or half-yearly, also by a limited number of yearly payments, a mode of assurance which originated with this Company in 1816.

ASSURANCES FOR SHORT PERIODS may now be effected in this Office at considerably reduced rates of Premium.

The next VALUATION will be made at Christmas, 1859; and Policies which may be effected before that date will, if the parties be then alive, participate in proportion to the time they may then have been in force.

The following Statement of SUMS PAID on various Policies, which Statement is printed with the consent of the Representatives of the Claimants, exhibits the BONUS or ADDITIONS which ATTACHED THERETO respectively, and confirms the very satisfactory result of the principles on which the Company's business is conducted, viz.—

No. of Policy.	Name of Life Assured.	Term of Years during which Bonus accrued.	Sum Assured.	Bonus.	Total Amount Paid.	Bonus per Cent. on the Sum Assured.	Bonus equal to the undermentioned per Cent. per Annum on the Sum Assured.

The Directors have the satisfaction of stating—

That the INCOME of this branch for the year 1855 exceeded £184,000.

That the INVESTMENTS for the Life Policy Holders now amount to £1,601,859;

That the Interest and Dividends arising therefrom are invested for the SOLE BENEFIT of the Policy Holders.

The Company has paid to Claimants under Life Policies, from the year 1808 to the close of 1855, the sum of £2,992,692, of which a very considerable proportion was for ADDITIONS, by way of Bonus on the sum originally assured.

Digitized by Google

The following Table shows the TOTAL ADDITIONS made to Life Policies for £1,000, effected in London or through an Agent in Great Britain, which had been in force for the Thirty-eight Years ending at CHRISTMAS, 1854.

Equivalent Reductions have been made in the future payments of Premium, where the parties assured have desired to have the amount of Bonus so applied.

CHARLES ANSELL, Actuary.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The Company undertakes the Assurance of Property in the Manufacturing, Agricultural, and other districts, on favourable terms. Risks of extraordinary hazard on special agreement, or on survey.

AN ALLOWANCE FOR THE LOSS OF RENT OF BUILDINGS rendered untenantable by Fire is one of the advantages offered by the Company. THE ASSURED ARE ENTITLED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE PROFITS OF THIS BRANCH EVERY FIFTH YEAR.

The Office Proposals and Forms for Assurances on Lives or against Fire, with full particulars explanatory of the constitution, &c., of the Company, may be obtained at the Office in London, or of any of the Company's Agents in the principal cities and towns of the United Kingdom.

The Public are invited to examine for themselves the advantages gained for assurers by the plan on which Policies are granted by this Office.

Assurances may be effected for any sum from £20 to £5,000 upon any known system of Life Assurance.

No entrance or admission money required.

All Premiums are made payable on one of the usual quarter days.

Claims payable in three months after satisfactory proof of death shall have been given.

A Board of Directors and Medical Officers are in attendance on Tuesdays, at two o'clock, and every facility is afforded for effecting Assurances on any other day.

Medical Referees are paid by the Society for their professional report upon all cases referred to them,

Forms of Proposal, and every information, may be obtained on application to any of the Agents, or at the Office, No. 17, New Bridge-street, Blackfriars, or by letter to the Secretary.

CHARLES JAMES THICKE, Resident Secretary.

The Directors of the British Mutual Life Assurance Society, in order to encourage parties desirous of making small investments, or obtaining loans from 25*l.* to 1,000*l.*, beg to invite attention to the

which have been established upon the following principles:—

Each Class consists of Members, who each subscribe 1*l.* per month for fifty months for every £50 of the Capital Fund or Stock of the Class to which he belongs. Each Member to subscribe not less than 10s. (for £25), nor more than £5 (for £250) per month.

The Funds so raised are advanced each month by way of anticipation to that Member who may be willing to give the greatest bonus for the priority of the advance—i.e., for receiving at once, instead of waiting till he has completed his subscriptions, the ultimate amount of the sum he may subscribe for, such bonus to be paid in equal monthly proportions extending over the remaining period of duration of his Class.

The Member so entitling himself to the priority will simply have to give a Bond, joined by two approved sureties, or, if more convenient to himself, such other security as shall be approved by the Trustees of his Class for the due payment of his future subscription and bonus.

Several Classes have been already established, and others are now in course of formation, and will shortly commence operations. Persons desirous of joining, or of obtaining any further information, may apply at the Offices of the British Mutual Life Assurance Society, 17, New Bridge-street, Blackfriars.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES OFFERED BY THIS OFFICE.

1. Life Policies on the profit scale become payable during the Assurer's lifetime without extra Premium.

2. The adoption of a more equitable division of Profits, in accordance with the system recommended by the Select Committee of the House of Commons. This is accomplished by appropriating, to the extinction of the last payments of Premiums, those Profits which are generally applied by way of Bonus, thus enabling the Association to pay the Policy during the Assurer's lifetime, providing against the often-urged objection, "that Assurers do not themselves reap the benefit of their payments," and adding to the stability of the Office, instead of weakening its resources.

3. Policy holders receive 80 per cent. of the Profits. No loss arising from misapplication thereof by mistaken distribution.

4. Investment Policies issued, assuring a given sum at seven, ten, and thirteen years, or at death, should it previously occur.

5. Annuities granted on most liberal terms, an increased rate being allowed to Invalid Lives.

6. Endowments for Children, and every description of Life Assurance effected.

Detailed Prospectuses and every information may be obtained at the Chief or Branch Offices, or of any of the Provincial Agents.

By order of the Board,

JOHN MESSENT, Secretary.

 The Directors will be happy to receive applications from properly qualified Practitioners in the Provinces, to act as Medical Referees for the Association.

ASSURANCES may be effected on Lives, Survivorships, &c. &c., as stated in the Society's Prospectus, to any amount not exceeding 5,000*l.*

The whole available Bonus is the sole property of Life Assurers, no part whatever is taken from it to be shared amongst proprietors. The greatest advantage to Life Assurers necessarily results from this principle of Mutual Assurance, that at the end of every fifth year return is made to every Assurer of that which is then found to be an excess of payment made by him, beyond that which the circumstances of the case required, as proved by experience.

The Fee to the Medical Referees is paid by the Society.

Applications for Prospectuses, or further information, to be made at the Office, 3, BROAD SANCTUARY, WESTMINSTER.

"This Society is strictly confined to the Clergy of the Church of England and of the Episcopal Church of Scotland, their wives and families, and the near relations of themselves and wives, and is distinguished from other institutions by the title of

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURES OF THE SOCIETY ARE:—

Proposals for every description of Life Assurance entertained for any Sum from £25 to £5.000.

Low Rates of Premium receivable by Annual, Half-yearly, Quarterly, or Monthly instalments.

Non-Forfeiture of Policies.—From the facilities afforded by this Society, a Policy need at no time be forfeited, thus removing one great objection to Life Assurance.

Loans granted upon terms and arrangements highly advantageous.

Half-Premium Assurances.—Policies will be granted on payment of one-half of the usual premium during the term of seven years.

Proposals to assure lives not strictly select, entertained on moderately increased rates.

Medical Referees paid by the Society for their professional reports.

CONSOLIDATED LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY,

45, CHEAPSIDE, LONDON.

ESTABLISHED 1856.

This Company embraces all the substantial improvements in the system of Life Assurance, and affords many advantages, of which a few may be mentioned.

First,—A Capital of £50,000, with power to increase it to £500,000, whereby an unquestionable security is at once obtained by the Assured, while they are in no way responsible for any claim or losses of the Society.

Second,—Claims on Policies paid Thirty Days after Proofs, and all Policies are Indisputable except in cases of fraud.

Third,—Seventy-five per Cent., or Three-fourths of the Profits, is divisible every five years among all the Assured on the participating scale, and may be applied at their option to the increase of the sum Assured, the decrease of future Premiums, or received in a Cash payment.

The following are specimens of Bonuses, declared at the last Division of Profits, on 30th September, 1851 :—

Number of Premiums paid.	Age when Assured.	Annual Premium.	Sum Assured.	Bonus.	Amount now Assured.

1	27	10 14 7	500	6 13 3	506 13 3

The Second Division of Profits will be made in 1856.

Policies are granted for £50 and upwards, and the premiums may be paid in one sum, or by annual, half-yearly, or quarterly payments, or in any other manner to suit the convenience of the Assured.

Prospectuses, Forms of Proposal for Assurances, Endowments, Annuities, and all other necessary information may be obtained gratis, on application, personally or by letter, to the Head Office in London, or any of the Company's Agents.

LIFE ASSURANCE affords a certain and economical means

TO HUSBANDS—of providing, after their death, for their Widows.

TO PARENTS—of educating their children; of establishing them in the world; and of endowing them with Marriage Portions.

TO THE YOUNG—of securing ease and comfort in Old Age.

TO HOUSEHOLDERS—of converting their Leasehold tenure into Freehold; or of providing the amount of Fine required for renewal on the lapse of an existing Life.

TO PARTNERS IN BUSINESS—of indemnifying themselves against Loss, consequent on the Withdrawal of Capital on the death of one of the Firm.

TO HEIRS IN REVERSION OF PROPERTY—of reducing their Contingent Interest to a Certainty.

TO PURCHASERS OF ANNUITIES, or other rights to property, which expire on the death of another—of Guaranteeing themselves against Loss, by the occurrence of such death before they have obtained a fair return for their Investment.

TO BORROWERS—of providing for payment, in the event of their death, of the Balance of the Loan.

TO CREDITORS—of guarding against loss of their Claim, by the death of the debtor, before it is discharged.

And generally, to all who have a pecuniary interest in the continuance of another's life—of protecting that interest from loss through the premature close of the life on which it depends.

PROSPECTUS.

The following ADVANTAGES are secured to ASSURERS in this company, viz.:—

1. Absolute Indisputability (except in case of fraud): "the fact of issuing the policy to be conclusive evidence of the validity thereof."

2. The lowest scale of Premiums consistent with perfect security.

3. Half-Credit Premiums. Assurances may be effected by payment of one-half of the Premiums; the remaining half to be considered as a Claim on the Policy, subject to interest at 5 per cent. per annum.

4. Non-Forfeiture of Premiums Paid. Should an Assurer be unable to continue payment of the Premiums after three years, the Company will either issue a Free Policy, proportionate to the amount paid, or return such amount, subject to deductions for risks already incurred. Or a suspended Policy may be renewed on payment of arrears, together with Interest on them at 5 per cent. per annum.

5. Loan of Premiums. One-half of the amount of Premiums paid may be borrowed, at 5 per cent. interest, by Assurers of three years' standing, on deposit of their Policy.

6. Annuity Privilege, by which 10 per cent of the sum Assured may be drawn as an Annuity by the Assurer on his reaching the age of 60.

7. Exemption from all Entrance, Medical, and Stamp Fees.

8. Participation in Profits. Eighty per cent. of all ultimate Profits is appropriated to the benefit of Assurers.

9. Claims paid within three Months of being allowed by the Directors.

The Equitable Society has now been established for very nearly a century,—was the first institution of the kind ever formed on the principle of mutual liability and mutual benefit,—and few institutions have been attended with such uniform success and prosperity throughout a period of equal duration, or more completely realized the intentions of their founders. Commencing its career for the express purpose of securing to great numbers of persons in particular situations of life and circumstances of fortune the benefit of life assurance, it has provided comforts and competence that could not otherwise have been rendered certain, to many thousands of families;—nor ever, but in two instances, disputed a claim out of its numerous and vast engagements, the extent of which may be gathered from the fact of its having issued above Thirty-nine Thousand Policies since its commencement, and paid in claims, bonuses, and the purchase of policies upwards of Twenty-nine Millions Sterling.

To those desirous of assuring their lives for the same great object for which thousands have resorted to it in times past, the Equitable Society still offers the security of an immense Capital, and the right to participate on equal terms with most of its present members in a Surplus reserved out of the profits and accumulations of many preceding years of prosperity and frugality—a fund so ample, that the annual interest on it is more than six times the amount of the yearly expenses of management of every kind, and leaves the premium of every new member to be invested and improved free from any deduction or charge on that account.

The Capital of the Society, on the 30th of June, 1855, amounted to £7,184,446; and the Income of the Society from the Interest on that Capital, and from Annual Premiums, exceeds £400,000.

This Society is established on the tried and approved principle of Mutual Assurance. The funds are accumulated for the exclusive benefit of the Policy-holders, under their own immediate superintendence and control. The Profits are divided annually, and applied in reduction of the current Premiums. Policy-holders participate in Profits after payment of five Annual Premiums.

The Annual General Meeting was held on the 28th May, 1856, when a highly satisfactory Report of the state of the affairs and progress of the Institution was presented to the Members. During the last three years, upwards of 1,200 new assurances have been effected, yielding an increase of premium income of more than 20,000*l.* per annum; and although a general high rate of mortality has prevailed among Assured lives during the last two years, it has not been deemed necessary to reduce, in the slightest degree, the allowances previously awarded to the Policy-holders.

The Members present at the Meeting were fully satisfied with the Report, and resolved unanimously that a reduction of 31½ per cent. should be made in the current year's Premium payable by all Policy-holders now entitled to participate in the Profits.

Credit is allowed for half the Annual Premiums for the first five years.

The following Table exemplifies the effect of the present reduction.

Age when Assured.	Amount Assured.	Annual Premium originally paid.	Allowance of 31½ per cent.	Annual Premium now payable.

Edwin James Farren, Esq.

This Office will be found highly eligible for every description of Life Assurance, its main features being the publicity of its accounts, and the systematic readiness of its transactions.

Perfect Security is guaranteed by an ample paid-up capital, subscribed by persons of the highest character and respectability. The Company moreover being under public Act of Parliament, official copies of its accounts may be readily had at the Government Registrar's, on payment of the usual record fee.

Policies may be effected without loss of time, formalities being carried through at the office every day, from ten to four; Saturdays, ten to two; medical officer daily at eleven. The Board assembles on Thursdays at half-past twelve.

A great portion of the Society's Policies are upon first-class lives, but the Company being specifically established to include the Insurance of individuals of regular and temperate habits, in whom health may be more or less impaired, the Board openly seek to transact business of this class at equitable rates, founded upon a careful consideration of these cases. Lives of this description, declined at some offices, are accordingly open to acceptance at the Gresham.

Loans may be obtained in connexion with Policies effected with the Company. There has been advanced in this respect upwards of £200,000 since July, 1848.

The range covered by English Rates in times of Peace, and under ordinary circumstances, is North of Gibraltar and Philadelphia.

EDWIN JAMES FARREN, Actuary and Secretary.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

Medical Fees allowed by this Company.

Under the provisions of an Act of Parliament this Company now offers to future Insurers FOUR-FIFTHS OF THE PROFITS, WITH QUINQUENNIAL DIVISION, or a LOW RATE OF PREMIUM, without participation of Profits.

The next division of Profits will be declared in June 1860, when all Participating Policies which shall have subsisted at least one year at Christmas 1859, will be allowed to share in the Profits.

At the Five Divisions of Profits made by this Company the total Reversionary Bonuses added to the Policies have exceeded 913,000*l.*

At Christmas 1854 the Assurances in force amounted to upwards of 4,240,000*l.*, the Income from the Life Branch in 1854 was more than 200,000*l.*, and the Life Assurance Fund (independent of the Guarantee Capital) exceeded 1,700,000*l.*

LOANS granted on Life Policies to the extent of their values, provided such Policies shall have been effected a sufficient time to have attained in each case a value not under 50*l.*

UNSOUND LIVES.—Persons who are not in such sound health as would enable them to insure their lives at the Tabular Premiums, may be insured at such extra Premiums as the Directors may deem adequate to the increased risk thereby incurred.

Every renewable Policy is held in force during the 30 days allowed for its renewal, provided the Premium shall be paid within that period.

A Policy taken out on Own Life is held to be valid in case of suicide, death by duelling, or by the hands of justice, to the extent of any bonâ fide interest acquired therein by other parties.

Age admitted in all cases upon proof being furnished satisfactory to the Directors.

Appearances taken any day, but the usual day of appearance is Friday, at one o'clock.

Appearances also taken by appointed Agents of the Company in most parts of the United Kingdom and Continent of Europe, without Fine for non-appearance in London.

No additional Premium required from Naval and Military Men, unless when called into actual service.

No additional Premium required during peace for passing by sea from one part of Europe to another.

No charge made for Entrance Money or Admission Fees.

No charge for Policies.

FOREIGN RISKS.—The extra Premiums required for the East and West Indies, the British Colonies, and the Northern parts of the United States of America, have been materially reduced.

In the FIRE DEPARTMENT, Insurances are effected upon moderate terms; and no charge is made for the Policy.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.—The important advantages offered by the plan and constitution of the Life Department of this Society are:

That Insurers are protected by a large invested Capital, upon which there is no Interest to pay, and for which no deduction of any kind is made; which enables the Directors to give the whole of the Profits to insuring Members. That the Profits are divided annually amongst all Members of five years' standing, and applied towards reducing Life Insurance to the lowest possible rates of Premium.

The abatement of Premium on all Policies of five years' standing was in 1842, 1843, and 1844 at the rate of 45*l.* per cent. in each year; in 1845, 1846, 1847, and 1848, 50*l.* per cent. in each year; and in 1849, 1850, 1851, 1852, 1853, 1854, 1855, and 1856, 52*l.* 10*s.* per cent. in each year; and it is expected that an equal abatement will in future be annually made.

Persons insuring their own lives, or the lives of others, may become members. Persons who are willing to forego participation in the profits can insure at a lower rate than that charged to Members.

The following Table will show the effect of the Reduction of Premium made by the Society on Members' Policies that have been five years in force:

Age when Insured.	Sum Insured.	Annual Premium for first Five Years.	Reduced Premium.
30	100	2 13 5	1 5 6
40	100	3 7 11	1 12 3
30	500	13 7 1	6 7 0
40	500	16 19 7	8 1 3
45	1,000	38 19 2	18 10 1
40	2,000	67 18 4	32 5 2
45	5,000	194 15 10	92 10 6

This system of reducing the Premiums affords immediate benefit to the Members, and enables them to insure a further sum upon their lives equal to more than one-third of the present policy, without any additional outlay.

No charge for Policy Stamps.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Insurances are effected on every description of property at the usual rates.

Martin T. Smith, Esq., M.P.
Newman Smith, Esq.

The Income from the Premium Fund of this Company is upwards of 110,000*l.* per annum, and the investments exceed 37 per cent. of the sums insured.

The SCALE OF PREMIUMS adopted will be found of a very moderate character, but at the same time quite adequate to the risk incurred.

ONE-THIRD of the Premium on Insurances of 500*l.* and upwards, for the whole term of life, may remain as a debt upon the Policy, to be paid off at convenience; or the Directors will lend sums of 50*l.* and upwards, on the security of Policies effected with this Company for the whole term of life, when they have acquired an adequate value.

FOUR-FIFTHS, or 80 per cent. of the Profits are assigned to Policies every fifth year, and may be applied to increase the sum insured to an immediate payment in cash, or to the reduction and ultimate extinction of future Premiums.

At the fifth appropriation of profits for the five years terminating January 31, 1856, a reversionary bonus was declared of 1l. 10s. per cent. on the sums insured, and subsisting additions for every premium paid during the five years. This bonus on policies of the longest duration, exceeds 2l. 5s. per cent. per annum on the original sums insured, and increases a policy of 1,000*l.* to 1,638*l.*

The next appropriation will be made in 1861, and parties who insure during the current year will participate in the profits to the fullest extent.

Proposals for insurances may be made at the chief office, as above; at the branch office, 16, Pall-mall, London; or to any of the agents throughout the kingdom.

LIFE ASSOCIATION OF SCOTLAND.

FOUNDED 1838.

(Empowered by Royal Charter and Act of Parliament.)

The SEVENTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING of the LIFE ASSOCIATION of SCOTLAND was held within the EDINBURGH OFFICE on 6th August 1856.

SIR JAMES FORREST of Comiston, Bart., in the Chair.

During the year ending 5th April last, there were submitted to the Association—

Proposals for New Assurances and Annuities to the Number of . 1,064

Of these the Directors accepted 869

The New Life Assurances proposed amounted to . £513,701

And those accepted amounted to . . . £415,456

The Annuities were for £1,009 per annum, on 23 Lives, and were purchased at the price of . . . £10,722

The Annual Income of the Association from Assurance Premiums and Interest on Investments is . . £109,601

The Progress of the Association from its commencement is shown in the following Table:—

	Assurances transacted since commencement of Business in Dec. 1838 up to these Dates.		Annual Income at these Dates.
	Numbers.	Sums Assured.
5th April 1841 - - -	149	£75,699	£2,709
Do. 1844 - - -	489	261,569	8,321
Do. 1847 - - -	895	489,017	14,630
Do. 1850 - - -	2423	1,085,936	32,582
Do. 1853 - - -	6094	2,320,938	67,536
Do. 1856 - - -	9045	3,737,773	109,601

Since the commencement of the Business 357 of the Assured have died, and the Association have put their families, or others in right of the Policies, the sums Assured, amounting to £168,024.

The Profits are divisible annually amongst the Participating Policy-holders, and are applied in reducing their Premiums for the current year. Accordingly the Participating Policy-holders, who entered on or before 5th April 1852, will be required to pay only 13s. per £1 of this year's Premiums (the Premiums due between 5th April 1856 and 6th April 1857), —That is, a Policy-holder whose Premium is £50 will be asked to pay only £32 10s.; and if it be £20, he will be asked to pay only £13.

Life Department.

This Corporation has granted Assurances on Lives for a period exceeding 130 years, having issued its first policy on the 7th June, 1721.

Two-thirds, or 66 per cent. of the entire profits are given to the Assured.

Policies may be opened under any of the following plans, viz.—

At a low rate of premium, without participation in profits, or at a somewhat higher rate, entitling the Assured, either after the first five years, to an annual abatement of premium for the remainder of life, or, after payment of the first premium, to a participation in the ensuing quinquennial Bonus.

The abatement for the year 1857 on the Annual Premiums of persons who have been assured under Series "1831" for five years or longer, is upwards of 33 per cent.

The high character which this ancient Corporation has maintained during nearly a century and a half, secures to the public a full and faithful declaration of profits.

The Corporation bears the whole expenses of management, thus giving to the Assured, conjoined with the protection afforded by its Corporate Fund, advantages equal to those of any system of Mutual Assurance.

Premiums may be paid Yearly, Half-yearly, or Quarterly.

All Policies are issued free from Stamp Duty, or from charge of any description whatever, beyond the Premium.

The attention of the Public is especially called to the great advantages offered to Life Assurers by the Legislature in its recent enactments, by which it will be found that to a defined extent Life Premiums are not subject to Income-tax.

The fees of Medical Referees are paid by the Corporation.

Annuities are granted by the Corporation, payable Half-yearly.

Every facility will be given for the transfer or exchange of Policies, or any other suitable arrangement will be made for the convenience of the Assured.

Prospectuses and all other information may be obtained by either a written or personal application to the Actuary or to the Superintendent of the West-End Office.

Department of Medical Statistics—William Farr, Esq., M.D., F.R.S.

By the Annual Report of 1853, it appeared that the number of Policies then in force was 3,434, insuring £1,337,500, and yielding an income of £55,207.

At the FIFTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING, held on the 27th November, 1856, it was shown that on the 30th June last,—

The Number of Policies in force was 5,738
The Amount Insured was . . . . . £2,752,197 7s. 2d.
The Annual Income was . . . . . £118,557 16s. 2d.

Two Bonuses have been declared (in 1848 and 1853) adding nearly 2 per cent. per annum on the average to sums assured, and by which a Policy of £1,000, issued in 1842 on a healthy life, is now increased to £1,260.

Since the last Division of Profits in 1853 the accumulated funds have increased by more than £105,000, offering considerable advantages to present assurers.

Profits divided every five years—next division in 1858.

The Society has paid claims on 651 Policies, assuring £254,008 since its establishment in 1841.

Premiums for India have been computed on the actual results of European Life in that Colony, extending over the whole period of the East India Company's experience, and will be found generally lower than those of other companies, and especially favourable for military men.

Civil rates charged on the lives of military officers holding civil appointments, for the term of such appointments.

Immediate reduction to English rates on the Assured returning to Europe permanently to reside.

Policies may be made payable either in London or in India, at the rate of Two Shillings sterling per Company's Rupee.

GENERAL ADVANTAGES.

Assurances are effected at home or abroad on healthy lives at as moderate rates as the most recent data will allow.

No extra premium is required on healthy Lives in the Army or Navy unless in actual service.

The Policies issued by this Society give greater facilities to parties going to or residing in Foreign Climates than those of most other companies.

Invalid Lives Assured on scientifically constructed tables based on extensive data, and a reduction in the premium is made when the causes for an increased rate of premium have ceased.

Policies issued free of stamp-duty and every other charge, except the premium.

Medical men are paid a guinea for each report, and receive the same advantages as Solicitors for any business they may introduce.

Notices of Assignment are registered and acknowledged without charge.

Assurers incur no risk of Copartnership as in Mutual Offices, but are free from all liability.

A Capital of Half-a-Million sterling, fully subscribed (in addition to a large income and accumulated assets) affords a complete guarantee for the fulfilment of the Company's engagements.

Agents wanted in vacant places.

Prospectuses, Forms of Proposal, and every other information, may be obtained on application to any of the Society's Agents, or of ADVANTAGES OFFERED BY THIS SOCIETY.

PERSONS OF EVERY RANK AND STATION MAY INSURE IN THIS OFFICE.

No charge for Policy Stamps.

The Medical Profession paid for their Reports.

Policies Indisputable, except in cases of fraud.

The whole Profits divided amongst the Members every Three Years.

The Reversionary Bonus assigned to Members at the valuation in 1852 by F. G. P. Neison, Esq., averaged 1¾ per cent. per annum on the amount Assured, or 25 per cent. on the Premiums paid.

BONUS, 1855.

The Reversionary Bonus assigned to Members at the valuation just completed, under the direction of Professor De Morgan, of University College, averages 25 per cent. on the Premiums paid, or 1¼ per cent. on the amount Insured.

Assurances may be effected on a Single Life—Joint Lives and Survivorships, and for any amount.

Policies may be made payable to the Assured on attaining a given age, or at Death, if previous.

Non-forfeiture of Policies.—Assurers unable, or who find it inconvenient to pay their Premiums as they fall due, may obtain, on application to the Board of Directors, a Temporary Credit, or a New Policy will be granted of a smaller amount, of an Equitable Value, without any further payments, and may also participate in the Profits.

Policies on the Life of another not forfeited by the parties going beyond the prescribed limits. Whole-world Policies granted.

No extra charge is made for residence in the United States, British North America, Canada, Bermuda, Malta, or the Ionian Isles.

Four-fifths of the value of a Policy of five years' standing will be advanced on the security of the Policy.

No personal liability to the Assured.

THE FOLLOWING IMPORTANT BENEFITS ARE AFFORDED BY THIS COMPANY:—

1st.—A guaranteed Return will be made at any time for the surrender of existing whole term Policies, effected by even rates, of 40 per cent. of the amount of ordinary Premiums received thereon. This is an advantage which it is believed has not hitherto been afforded by any other Assurance Company.

2nd.—A person desirous of surrendering his Policy may receive, instead of a payment in cash, a new Policy for an equivalent sum, not subject to further payment of Premium.

3rd.—Credit given for one-third of the Premiums upon whole term Policies.

4th.—Notices of assignments received and registered, and acknowledged if required.

5th.—No claim will be disputed, except in case of palpable fraud: an unintentional error will not vitiate a Policy.

6th.—No entrance money or fee of any kind, nor any charge made for Policies.

7th.—Loans are granted on deposit of Policies of five years' standing to the extent of their value.

8th.—No appearance before the Court of Directors required.

The Income for 1855 was . . . . . 64,057*l.* 11s. 1d.
The Accumulated Funds on 31st Dec. 1855, were . 288,115*l.* 13s. 10d.

Prospectuses, Forms of Proposal, and every information, may be obtained at either of the Offices as above, or from any of the Agents throughout the kingdom.

FOUR-FIFTHS OF THE PROFITS DIVIDED EVERY FIVE YEARS.

The Directors particularly invite attention to the very large Bonus declared in June, 1852.

The reduction of Premium then averaged 35·22 per cent. on the Premiums payable during the next five years.

The Reversionary Bonus averaged 60 per cent. on the Premiums received during the preceding Five Years, or 9 per cent. on the sums assured.

Upon the Policies which had been full five years in existence the Reversionary Bonus averaged 2¾ per cent. per annum on the sum assured—a result which has been seldom equalled, and will bear comparison with that of any Office.

The following Table illustrates the Bonuses declared—

	Average Reduction of Premium.	Average Reversionary Bonus.
1st Division—1842	16·333 per cent.	31 per cent.
2nd ,, 1847	31·333 ,,	53¼ ,,
3rd ,, 1852	35·22 ,,	60 ,,

Policies effected by the Participation Scale prior to 31st December, 1857, will participate in the Division of Profits in 1862.

Manager and Secretary.—Frederick Lock, Esq.

This Society is conducted on the basis of Mutual Assurance, and there being no proprietary body to share the profits with the Assured, the entire advantages belong exclusively to the Members, who are enabled to effect Assurances on their Lives at the least possible expense.

The Society possesses a large accumulated and invested Capital, affording the fullest security to parties Assuring at this Office.

Assurances can be effected for any sum from £50 to £5,000.

Parties may assure a fixed sum payable at death, but the annual premium to cease at any given period.

Assurances can also be effected whereby parties may secure a sum payable to themselves on attaining the age of 60, or any given age, which sum would be payable to their representatives in case of death previous to that age.

To meet the convenience of Assurers who may prefer the payment of their premiums once a quarter, special rates are chargeable; to others who desire to leave a portion of the Premium unpaid, and chargeable upon the policy when it becomes a claim, facilities are afforded on terms which (with any other information), can be obtained at the Office.

ADVANTAGES OFFERED BY THE SOCIETIES.

THE JOINT OFFICES POSSESS AN INCOME OF £30,000 A YEAR, affording all the security of a proprietary company, while the profits belong almost exclusively to the assured, among whom they are DIVIDED ANNUALLY.

POLICIES NEVER DISPUTED in the absence of wilful fraud; they are a sure and safe provision for settlements, renewal of leases, security of debts, &c.

THE RATES OF PREMIUM, which are founded on the most accurate observations of the duration of human life, are as moderate as is consistent with due security.

PREMIUMS may be paid either Yearly, Half-yearly, or Quarterly, or in a single payment, or in a limited number of payments, or by an increasing or decreasing scale; or half the Premiums may remain unpaid at simple interest for the first Seven Years, and may then be paid off, or remain as a Debt upon the Policy at the option of the Assured.

In URGENT CASES, Proposals may be made, and Assurances completed, in a single day.

WHOLE WORLD POLICIES are granted to persons assuring the lives of others on payment of an extra premium.

NO ENTRANCE FEE or POLICY STAMP CHARGED.

APPEARANCE BEFORE THE BOARD DISPENSED WITH.

The two Societies are now prepared to act in full concert and support of each other.

Applications for Proposal Forms, &c., addressed to any of the Agents of either Society throughout the Kingdom, or to the Actuary and Secretary of the joint offices will have immediate attention.

2. An accumulated premium fund of more than 621,000*l.*
3. An annual revenue from life premiums exceeding 112,000*l.*
4. Nine-tenths (or 90 per cent.), of the profits divided every seven years, thereby affording the benefits of a mutual insurance office, with the advantages of a paid-up capital, and may be applied either to the increase of the sum insured, to an immediate cash payment, or to the reduction and ultimate extinction of future premiums.
5. Policies on the participation scale guaranteed a prospective bonus of 1 per cent. on the sum insured, including previous bonuses, for each premium paid, should the policy become a claim within the next seven years.
6. Premiums payable until the age of 65, when the policy becomes due, or previously in case of death.
7. An ascending scale of premium, whereby insurances may be effected at the lowest possible expense.
8. On insurances for the whole term of life, half the premium may remain on credit for the first five years.
9. Premiums may be paid annually, half-yearly, or quarterly.
10. Policies shall, on proof of age of the party insured, be DECLARED INDISPUTABLE from and after the expiry of five years from their date.
11. A fee paid for the medical report.
12. A liberal commission to solicitors and others.

PHYSICIAN—John Maclean, M.D., F.S,S., 29, Upper Montagu-street, Montagu-square.
BANKERS—Messrs Ransom, Bouverie, and Co.

No Charge for Policy Stamps or Medical Fees.

The Rates of Premium are those adopted by the principal Life Offices; the Rate without Bonus is lower than that of most other Offices.

The Bonuses are added to the Policies, or applied to the reduction of Premiums.

Policies issued by this Office are purchased at their full value; or Loans may be obtained upon them after they have been in existence five years.

If a party neglect to pay for the renewal of his Policy, he may repair the omission any time within twelve months, upon proof of good health.

The profits (subject to a trifling deduction) are divided among the Insured. The plan upon which they are divided gives to each party insured a share proportionate to the amount of the Premiums he has contributed.

In addition to this advantage, which is now offered to the Policy-holders in this Office, an annual addition or Bonus is made to each Policy in anticipation of the Quinquennial Division of Profits.

The following Extract, from the LIST OF CLAIMS paid by the "PROVIDENT," is published with the sanction of the parties interested in the Policies, some of whom have accompanied their acknowledgment of the unexpected advantages with an earnest desire that the widest circulation may be given to the publication.

FIRE, LIFE, and MARINE ASSURANCES may be effected with this Corporation on advantageous terms.

Life Assurances are granted with, or without, participation in Profits; in the latter case at reduced rates of Premium.

The following Table shows the large BONUSES declared up to the 31st December 1855, on British Participating Policies of Fourteen years' standing, for the Sum of £1000 each.

Equivalent Reductions have been made in the Annual Premiums payable by Persons who preferred that form of Bonus.

The future divisions of Profit will take place every Five Years.

The Expenses of Management, being divided between the different Branches, are spread over a larger amount of Business than that transacted by any other Office. The charge upon each Policy is thereby reduced to a sum so small as to account for the magnitude of the Bonus which has been declared, and to afford a probability that a similar rate will be maintained at future Divisions.

This Corporation affords to the Assured a liberal participation in Profits, with exemption from the liabilities of Partnership;—a rate of Bonus equal to the average returns of Mutual Societies, with the guarantee of a large invested Capital-Stock;—the advantages of modern practice, with the security of an Office whose resources have been tested by the experience of nearly a Century and a half.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

An Assurance may now be effected for any sum not exceeding £15,000 on the same Life. In this arrangement the Directors have in view the convenience of persons who desire to insure for large sums, but who object to the trouble of appearance and medical examination at numerous offices.

JOHN A. HIGHAM, Actuary and Secretary.

THE SCOTTISH EQUITABLE (MUTUAL) LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY.

INSTITUTED 1831.

Incorporated by Special Act of Parliament.

The following is the position of the Society at 1st March, 1856:—

Sums remaining Assured	£4,553,752
Annual Revenue	169,400
Accumulated Fund	979,261

The amount paid to the representatives of deceased members is upwards of £700,000.

EFFECT OF ADDITIONS.

A Policy for £1,000, effected during the first year of the Society, has now received Vested Additions amounting to £571 18s. 10d. Supposing the age of the party at the date of Assurance to have been 40, these Additions may be surrendered to the Society, either for a present payment of £308 7s. 5d., or such surrender would not only redeem the entire Premium on the Policy, but also entitle the party to a present payment of £16 8s. 8d., and, in both cases, the Policy would receive future triennial additions.

THE STANDARD LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY.

ESTABLISHED 1825. CONSTITUTED BY ACT OF PARLIAMENT.

GOVERNOR—His Grace the Duke of Buccleuch and Queensberry.
DEPUTY-GOVERNOR—The Right Hon. the Earl of Elgin and Kincardine.
CHAIRMAN OF THE LONDON BOARD—The Right Hon. the Earl of Aberdeen.

ORDINARY DIRECTORS.

Thomas H. Brooking, Esq., 14, New Broad-street.
John Griffith Frith, Esq. Austin Friars.
Alexander Gillespie, Esq., 3, Billiter-court.
John Scott, Esq., 4, Hyde Park-street.
Sir Anthony Oliphant, C.B.
F. Le Breton, Esq., 3, Crosby-square.

SECRETARY IN LONDON—H. Jones Williams.
INSPECTOR OF AGENCIES—William Bentham.

The STANDARD LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY is one of the oldest and most successful of the Scottish Life Offices, and the Directors attribute its high position in public favour to the unremitting care bestowed on its management, to the liberality which has marked its dealings, to the facilities granted to its Policy-holders, and to the successful results of the business, as evinced by the Division of Profits.

PROGRESS OF THE BUSINESS.

It will be perceived, from the following results, that the Company enjoys a large share of public patronage:

RESULTS of the BUSINESS for the year ended 15th November, 1855.

Sums proposed for Assurance during the year	£716,383	7	11
New Assurances effected	609,323	7	11
Claims by Death, exclusive of Bonus Additions during the year	75,640	8	0
Annual Revenue at 15th November, 1855	237,450	1	9
Total amount Assured in force at 15th Nov., 1855	5,556,106	17	4

UNCHALLENGEABLE POLICIES AND FREE RESIDENCE IN ANY PART OF THE WORLD.

When a person formerly assured his life, he generally looked to the rate of Premium, the prospects of Bonus, and the general character of the Office, but seldom gave attention to the "Terms and Conditions" of assurance. Within the last few years, however, indeed since 1851, when this Company promulgated the system of "Select Assurance," admission to which renders Policies indisputable and unchallengeable on any ground whatever, the question of "Terms and Conditions" has become a most important point of consideration, and the day is quickly approaching when no one will hold a Policy from an Office which does not give similar advantages. What a boon it is to heirs of entail, to borrowers of all descriptions, to marriage trustees, in short to all classes, to know, that whatever may happen, wherever the Assured may go, the claim will be met at death, subject to one simple condition, that the annual premium originally stipulated be punctually paid!

DIVISION OF PROFITS.

The STANDARD LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY was established in 1825, and the Profits which have arisen on its business have already been divided on five occasions — in 1835, 1840, 1845, 1850, and 1855—when large additions were made to the Company's Policies.

EXAMPLES OF BONUS ALREADY DECLARED.

Date of Policy:	Sum in Policy.	Bonus Additions to 1855.	Sum in Policy with Bonus Addition.
15th Nov. 1825	1,000	1,152 0 0	2,152 0 0

Lapsed Policies can now be revived within thirteen months of the non-payment of Premiums, under certain conditions.

Liberal surrender values allowed.

Every information can be obtained at the Offices of the Company in London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, or at the Agencies.

The Life Bonus of the Year 1855, of four-fifths of the Profits in the LIFE DEPARTMENT, has been just declared; and, with the exception of a Reserve of nearly 20,000*l.* (to accumulate towards the next Bonus in 1862), is payable upon and with the Sum Insured.

The Directors beg to state that by a recent change in the Regulations of this Society, the Assured realize the advantages of MUTUAL OFFICES by sharing the Profits (with the exception of one-fifth as a small compensation for the necessary guarantee), and are free from the liability incurred by the Members of Mutual Societies.

The accumulated Invested Capital now amounts to upwards of ONE MILLION Sterling.

Messrs. Tatham, Upton, Upton, and Johnson, 20, Austin Friars.

This Company offers the security of a large paid-up Capital, held in shares by a numerous and wealthy Proprietary, thus protecting the Assured from the risk attending Mutual Offices.

There have been three Divisions of Profits, the Bonuses averaging nearly 2 per cent. per annum on the sums assured from the commencement of the Company, or from 30 to 100 per cent. on the premiums paid.

Sums Assured.	Bonuses added.	Payable at Death.
£5,000	£1,987 10 0	£6,987 10 0
4,000	1,590 0 0	5,590 0 0
3,000	1,192 10 0	4,192 10 0
2,000	795 0 0	2,795 0 0
1,000	397 10 0	1,397 10 0

EXAMPLE.

A person aged 25, in 1834, who Insured his life for 5,000*l.*, at an Annual Premium of 107*l.* 5s. 10d., will have paid to this Company, on 31st December last, 2,253*l.* 2s. 6d. in Premiums, and have had a Bonus of 1,987*l.* 10s. added to his Policy, almost as much as the amount paid.

The Premiums, nevertheless, are extremely moderate, and only one half need be paid for the first five years, when the Assurance is for life.

Loans granted on approved personal security.

Parties effecting Policies with this Office in Scotland will secure every facility and advantage which they can obtain by assuring with an exclusively Scotch Office.

Prospectuses and every information afforded, on application at the Office, in London.

All Policies indisputable after Three Annual Payments.—The Benefits of Life Assurance extended to Impaired Lives.

LIFE.

The business of this Office embraces all Classes in every condition of Life within the United Kingdom, its Colonies and Dependencies; the Court of Directors being thus empowered by the Letters Patent.

No extra rates charged for residence in Europe or the temperate climates of the globe. Premiums may be paid yearly, half-yearly, or quarterly, or in one sum, or by a fixed period.

Short period Policies exchanged for Whole Life Policies, on payment of the extra rates, and re-examination as to health.

DISTINCTIVE ADVANTAGES.

Assurers in this Office have an immediate, certain, and transferable Interest in all payments on Whole Life Participating Policies after three years. Such Policies specially empower the owner, on surrender of the original, to claim a Policy freed from future payments (but still participating in Profits) for the amount fixed by Table C; with a right to revive the original Policy, with all its equities, on payment of arrears of Premium, and re-examination of health; thus avoiding the heavy loss frequently sustained from inability or disinclination to keep up a Policy.

The actual Age of the Assured calculated.

The inconveniences from assignments of Policies removed by a Power of substitution.

The peculiarities of the health and habits of Assurers confidential with the Medical Members.

GUARANTEE FOR FIDELITY.

Objections to simple Guarantee Societies obviated by the combination of a Life Policy with the Guarantee Policy, the former being granted at a diminished rate, so that the honest employed obtains an immediate benefit from the payment by his employer of the Guarantee Premium.

SECRETARY.—Michael Elijah Impey, Esq.

Life Assurance Companies may be placed among the most useful institutions of modern times, and their increase shows that their value is daily becoming more appreciated. A very large proportion of the property of this kingdom is comprised in Entailed Estates, Estates held by persons as Tenants for Life, Church Property, Pensions, Annuities, Money receivable under Wills, &c.; all showing the importance of these Societies to the more opulent classes, while, in the middle ranks of society, there are now but few whose means of supporting their families depend upon their own personal exertions, or are derived from incomes which cease at their deaths, who do not gladly seize upon the means thus afforded them of leaving some provision for the future maintenance of their surviving dependants; in short, there are but few situations in life in which it is not desirable, at some period, to enter into a contract for Assurance.

ONE-FIFTH of the ascertained Profits of the five preceding years is divided between the Policy-holders and Shareholders; three-fourths to the former, and one-fourth to the latter. The remaining four-fifths are set apart to enter into the averages of the preceding years, and thus to provide against unforeseen contingencies.

The Assured have the option of appropriating their Profits to the immediate reduction of their Premiums, or as a Bonus to the Sum Assured.

Persons proposing Assurances will not be subjected to any unnecessary form or delay, and females will not be required to appear before the Board, but may attend the Medical Officer at his residence, or be attended by him at their own.

When application is made for assuring a life subject to more than ordinary hazard, an augmented premium, proportionate to the increased risk, will be charged, which will be regulated by the strictest attention to justice between the Society and the Assured.

All Policies, becoming Claims, will be discharged within three months after the decease of the Assured shall have been proved to the reasonable satisfaction of the Directors.

Policies are granted in London, and by resident Committees at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, on Indian risks, at very advantageous rates, calculated from the records of the East Indian Government, showing the true risk of life during residence in India, and after retirement from foreign service.

AGENTS IN INDIA.—Messrs. BRADDON and Co., Calcutta; Messrs. BAINBRIDGE and Co., Madras; Messrs. LECKIE and Co., Bombay.

J. L. Seager, Esq., Millbank-row, Westminster.
J. B. White, Esq., Swanscombe, Kent.
J. C. Wood, Esq., Victoria st., Westmr.

The distinguishing features of this Society are—

The unquestionable security afforded. The moderate rates of Premium charged. The large Bonuses or return of Profits made to Life Assurers, in addition to other important advantages, all of which are fully detailed in the Society's Prospectus.

Three-fourths of the Profits are divided every five years, among those Policies entitled to participate.

The practical effects resulting from this system will be at once seen by the following extracts from the Society's books:—

Additions already made to Policies of various amounts.

Year Policy issued in.	Sum Assured.	No. of Years Assured.	Bonus added to Policy.	Total Sum payable at Death.
1842	£3,000	13	£504 12 6	£3,504 12 6
1844	2,550	11	305 19 10	2,855 19 10
1845	2,000	10	215 7 6	2,215 7 6
1849	5,000	6	205 18 0	5,205 18 0
1851	5,000	4	124 1 10	5,124 1 10

The Third Quinquennial Division of Profits will take place at the close of the year 1859.

GENERAL ADVANTAGES.

1. Participation of Profits or not at the option of the Assured. The without Profits are at rates lower than those demanded by many of the existing Offices.

2. Parties allowed to pass and repass in times of peace, from one part of Europe to another by sea or land, except Turkey or the Levant, without payment of additional Premiums, or incurring the risk of forfeiture of Policy.

3. Claims paid three months after proof of the death of the party assured, or sooner, deducting interest at 5 per cent.

4. Should a party from any unforeseen circumstances be unable to pay a Premium, he will be allowed by the Directors (if his Policy be of at least three years' standing) to let that Premium stand over as a debt against the Policy.

Insurances of all descriptions are undertaken by this Office at moderate rates of premium.

Short-period Policies are granted.

Losses from explosion of Gas and from Fire by Lightning made good.

Rent may be insured.

Losses are promptly and liberally settled.

The Westminster Fire Office, established in 1717, is one of the oldest Offices for Insurance against Damage by Fire now existing; it has carried on an extensive and successful business for upwards of One Hundred and Thirty-nine years in the Metropolis, to which its operations have till very recently been confined, and during the whole of that period has maintained the highest character for respectability and liberality in all its transactions. As a proof of the just manner in which the claims on its funds have been met, it may be observed that it has only on one occasion been obliged to defend an action either in a court of law or equity.

From the well-known character and stability of the Office, the Directors can confidently recommend it to the notice of Insurers in those districts to which they are now extending its business.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND EXHIBITIONS.

In the Faculty of Medicine six junior scholarships, of the value of £20 each, are appropriated as follows:—Two Scholarships to Students of the first, second, and third years, respectively. Also, two Senior Scholarships of the value of £40 each are appropriated to Students of the Fourth Year.

Several Exhibitions, varying in value from £15 to £25 have been founded, which are awarded at the same examinations.

All Candidates for Scholarships and Exhibitions are required to pass a Matriculation Examination.

In addition to the Scholarships and Exhibitions above mentioned, Prizes are awarded by each Professor at the close of the Session.

Scholars of the first, second, and third years, are exempted from a moiety of the Class fees.

The Medical School of the Queen's College, Galway, affords every facility for acquiring Medical and Surgical knowledge. It contains an extensive Pathological and Anatomical Museum, and every requisite appliance for the cultivation of the collateral branches. The Hospitals to which Students are, by a recent arrangement, admitted, contain on an average TWO HUNDRED BEDS, and are visited every morning by the Medical Professors, who deliver Clinical Lectures.

In order to induce Medical Students to attend the practice of the Hospital during the entire course of their Education, the Fee for Hospital attendance and Clinical Lectures conjointly has been reduced to £2 for each Session.

Further information may be had on application to the REGISTRAR, from whom Copies of the Prospectus may also be obtained.

MUNSTER HOUSE, NEAR FULHAM,

THREE MILES FROM HYDE-PARK CORNER,

For the Care and Recovery of Nervous, Epileptic, and Insane Gentlemen.

Proprietor, Mr. CYRUS ALEXANDER ELLIOTT, Surgeon, late of Cowper House, Old Brompton.

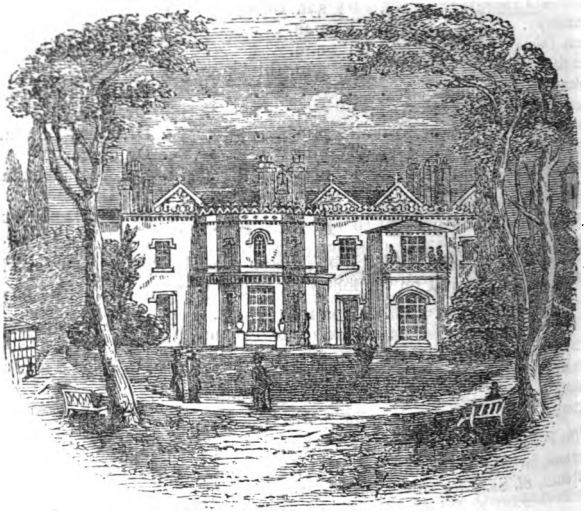
ESTABLISHED 1825, BY MESSRS. ELLIOTT AND CO.



MUNSTER HOUSE, once the Hunting Seat of his Majesty King Charles II, contains twenty-nine rooms, and is situated on the road from London to Fulham, in the highest and healthiest part of the parish, and upon a gravelly soil. The pleasure grounds are eight acres, entirely walled in, ornamented with fountains and gold fish, statuary and rockwork, terraces and parterres, conservatories and summer-houses, and studded with noble trees and flowering shrubs; the whole offering most cheerful inducements for recreation, exercise, and amusement, which consists of a Bowling-green and Bowling-alley, Swings and Rocking-horses, Billiard and Reading-rooms, with Newspapers, Periodicals, and Musical Instruments, and a Library well stored with books.

An additional House (not seen in the view) has been built, containing a Hall, large and lofty Dining, Sitting, and Bed-rooms, seventeen separate rooms, Washing and Bath-rooms; the whole erected, arranged, heated, ventilated, and lighted with gas, under the sanction and advice of the Commissioners in Lunacy.

This Establishment has the advantage of being near to London, and yet as rural as any of our country villages. It is easy of access for Professional and other visits, by the Putney Omnibuses, every ten minutes from the Bank and London-bridge Railway Station, and it is also within three-quarters of a mile of the Putney Station upon the Windsor Railway.

EFFRA HALL, NEAR THE CHURCH, BRIXTON,

THREE MILES FROM THE BRIDGES,

For the Care and Recovery of Nervous, Epileptic, and Insane Ladies.

ESTABLISHED AT COWPER HOUSE, OLD BROMPTON, 1825,

BY MESSRS. ELLIOTT AND CO.

Proprietor, Mr. CYRUS ALEXANDER ELLIOTT.

The House, surrounded by its Lawn, walled-in Gardens, Meadow, and Orchard of Five Acres, has long been admitted to be one of the most beautiful and secluded residences in this well-known healthy locality, proverbial for its pleasant walks and varied scenery. The greatest care has been taken to render this an Establishment for Recovery and a Domestic Home, rather than an Asylum in the general acceptation of the term; and being exclusively for the reception of Females, a greater extent of Liberty and Recreation is available than can possibly be obtained in houses where both sexes are admitted. The additions and detached buildings have been erected at considerable expense, on the most approved plans.

The Faculty are invited to view, in Effra Hall and Munster House, the arrangements expressly made for the various forms of Mental Disease, which have, by experience, been found to assist so materially the Medical and Moral Treatment, by affording Classification to the Insane, Quietude to the Nervous, and to the Epileptic those accommodations which are so particularly required.

Those patients whose cases permit are allowed (accompanied) to walk and ride into the country, and attend Divine Worship; and if change of air is considered requisite, will, by the request of their friends, be sent to the Sea Coast. The proprietor has a cottage always in readiness for a case not admissible into an Asylum.

Omnibuses pass Effra Hall every Five Minutes, from the City and Oxford-street.

For the Terms, which are strictly moderate, and Attendants, apply to Warren H. Diamond, M.R.C.S. and L.S.A., Medical Superintendent, as above, or to Munster House; and to W. V. Pettigrew, M.D., F.R.C.S. of England, 7, Chester-street, Grosvenor-place.

HEIGHAM HALL, NEAR NORWICH.

A PRIVATE ESTABLISHMENT

FOR THE

OF

PERSONS OF UNSOUND MIND,

CONDUCTED BY

W. P. NICHOLS, F.R.C.S., Surgeon to the Norfolk and Norwich Hospital, and Consulting Surgeon to the City Bethel;

W. H. RANKING, M.D. (CANTAB.), Physician to the Norfolk and Norwich Hospital; and

J. F. WATSON, M.R.C.S., the Resident Proprietor.

This Establishment, which has been in active operation for Thirty Years, receives Patients from the Upper and Middle Classes of both sexes, and offers suitable accommodation to persons of ample as well as limited means.

The House is pleasantly situate within Twelve Acres of Ornamental Ground, and commands a fine view of the City of Norwich. Its general aspect and internal arrangements are those of a Gentleman's Mansion, a point much insisted on by the Commissioners in Lunacy, who consider it advisable to discard those appurtenances which too often assimilate the Asylum to ordinary places of detention.

The Patients are visited daily by Dr. RANKING or Mr. NICHOLS, and have the benefit of the constant presence and association of Mr. and Mrs. WATSON. Divine Service is performed, in the Establishment, by a Clergyman of the Church of England.

Strict attention is paid to the occupation and amusements of the Patients, and it is found that Billiards, Chess, and Music, a carefully selected Library, Daily Newspapers, &c., with Gardening, and Country Walks and Drives, are highly conducive to the comfort and mental improvement of the Inmates.

An Ornamental Cottage within the Grounds has been appropriated to the accommodation of a few Patients of the Highest Class, who, while under treatment, can be attended if required by their own domestics.

Carriage exercise is at the command of all who require it.

Terms and other information may be obtained of Mr. NICHOLS and Dr. RANKING, in Norwich, and Mr. WATSON, at the Asylum.

References are permitted to the following Gentlemen:—

Professor BOND, M.D., Regius Professor of Medicine in the University of Cambridge.

The Rev. J. W. DONALDSON, D.D., Cambridge.

The Rev. EDMUND MORTLOCK, B.D., Fellow of Christ's College, Cambridge; Moulton, near Newmarket.

SANDYWELL PARK,

NEAR CHELTENHAM, GLOUCESTERSHIRE.

CONDUCTED BY DR. HITCH

(Many years Physician to the Gloucester County Lunatic Asylum).

SANDYWELL PARK has been long known as one of the most admired and healthful residences in the county of Gloucester. The Mansion is situated in a finely-timbered Park of 120 acres in extent, with Gardens, Plantations, and a Farm attached to it. It is on the Cotswold Hills, overlooking the Vale of the Severn, amidst varied and beautiful scenery; and though only five miles from Cheltenham, is perfectly secluded, and affords every facility of access without publicity.

The Mansion has been much improved and considerably enlarged, and by means of additional buildings has been made to consist of two houses attached to each other, effecting not only a separate residence for the two sexes, but a complete classification of patients, with accommodations for either sex, on any required scale; whilst the arrangements are such as to afford separation or social intercourse, according to the varied condition of each invalid, or the wishes of the relatives or friends.

This Institution, therefore, possesses all the requisites for the successful treatment of every form of mental disorder. It embraces the means of domestic quiet, privacy, and security from observation, without close confinement; facility for exercise of all kinds in the open air, and of amusements within doors, suited to the wants as well as to the tastes and habits of the invalid; and as the Physician and his family reside in the house, and live with the patients, the establishment assimilates itself to that of a country gentleman, with this advantage, that it combines the solace of domestic life, and the benefits of social communion, with the indispensable watchfulness of the medical eye.

There are also separate houses on the Estate for those Patients whose friends wish them to avoid association with others.

A Chaplain is also attached to the Establishment.

The Commissioners in Lunacy report, at their visit in March, 1848, "That the arrangements appear to be extremely judicious, and that altogether they have never seen any Private Establishment with which, in point of situation, construction, and means of varied exercise and amusements, they have had greater reason to be satisfied."

For any other particulars, or for terms (which will depend on the accommodations required), applications made to Dr HITCH, Sandywell Park, near Cheltenham, will receive every attention.

MENTAL DERANGEMENT.

DR. SAMUEL G. BAKEWELL receives under his care, in the neighbourhood of CHURCH STRETTON, Salop, Ladies and Gentlemen suffering from MENTAL DERANGEMENT, in separate houses.

Dr. Bakewell conducted, during a period of seventeen years, the Private Asylum, originally established by his father, Mr. Thomas Bakewell, at Spring Vale, and which was subsequently carried on until recently at Hulton, near Stone, Staffordshire.

The neighbourhood of Church Stretton is retired and healthy, and its scenery is eminently beautiful and picturesque.

References are permitted to Dr. Henry Johnson, Shrewsbury; Edward Wilson, Esq., M.D., Newcastle-under-Lyme; Francis Elkington, Esq., M.D., Birmingham; and other Medical Gentlemen.

Church Stretton is a First-Class Station on the Shrewsbury and Hereford Railway, twelve miles from Shrewsbury.

MR. STILWELL, SURGEON,

CHURCH-STREET, EPSOM, SURREY,

Continues to receive into his family a limited number of Ladies suffering under the milder forms of Nervous and Mental Disorders.

The appearance of the House, and the Domestic arrangements, are those of a respectable private family, combined with Medical care, country air and exercise in a healthy and pleasant locality: circumstances conducive to comfort and recovery.

DROITWICH ASYLUM.

Established in 1791.

Many and great Improvements having taken place in this Establishment, it is now licensed to Sir Charles Hastings, M.D., D.C.L., and Mr Martin Ricketts, F.R.C.S., for the reception of private Patients only.

The Grounds are well arranged and extensive, which, combined with moderate charge for Board and Medical Attendance and the great preponderance in the proportion of cures over that of mortality, render it an Establishment well suited for the recovery of the Insane.

The Terms and Forms of Certificates may be obtained on application to Mr Francis I'on Bennett, M.R.C.S., Medical Superintendent, Asylum, Droitwich.

ELM HOUSE ASYLUM,

QUEEN'S ELM, BROMPTON, NEAR LONDON.

Established by Miss ELLIOTT, 1840.

Miss ELLIOTT continues to receive a limited number of Ladies mentally afflicted. The arrangements are conducted upon the plan of a private family, combining Medical and Moral Treatment. The House and Grounds are pleasantly situated, and have been recently much enlarged and improved. Experienced Nurses sent to any part of the country.

The above Establishment has been conducted by the present Proprietors for upwards of a quarter of a century, and possesses an uninterrupted series of favourable Reports from the Commissioners in Lunacy, the Visiting Justices, and from Recovered Patients and their Friends.

Terms moderate, and varying according to the accommodation required.

For particulars apply to Messrs. ILES, the Proprietors.

GROVE HALL ASYLUM,

BOW, LONDON.

The arrangements in this Asylum for Private Patients have been much increased, and are specially adapted for the accommodation of patients from the middle classes of society.

Terms, from One to Two Guineas per week.

The Asylum is within three minutes' walk of the Bow Station of the Camden Town Railway from Fenchurch street, and is one mile from the Stratford Station of the Eastern Counties Line.

Further particulars may be obtained on Application to the Proprietor or Resident Medical Superintendent.

GROVE HOUSE ASYLUM,

ACOMB, NEAR YORK,

Is pleasantly situated on an eminence commanding an extensive view of the surrounding country. It has a regular Medical Attendant, and the comfort of Patients is secured by the personal superintendence and management of Mr and Mrs PEARSON. Being situated within two miles of York, the Asylum is easily accessible. For terms, apply to the Proprietor, Mr PEARSON, Grove House, Acomb, York.

MENTAL AND NERVOUS AFFECTIONS.

HALLIFORD HOUSE, SUNBURY, MIDDLESEX.

This beautiful and secluded residence, standing in a small park of eighteen acres, and convenient of access, either by omnibus or railway, is appropriated to the reception of a limited number of patients suffering under the milder forms of Mental disorder. They have the advantage of the constant personal care and companionship of the Resident Physician and his family, and in all the arrangements relating to their domestic and moral management, great care is taken to avoid whatever may be calculated to remind patients of the circumstances necessitating their temporary separation from family and friends. They have also the advantage of cheerful society, carriage exercise, and a variety of amusements—chess, billiards, archery, &c. —and, in any case requiring it, a separate suit of apartments is available.

Terms and other particulars may be learned upon application to Dr. SEATON, the Resident Proprietor.

Dr. S. is at liberty to refer to several leading London Physicians, amongst others, to Dr. Roots.

HAY DOCK LODGE,

ASHTON-IN-MACKERFIELD, LANCASHIRE,

Two Miles from the Newton Bridge Station, on the Manchester and Liverpool Railway.

ASYLUM FOR MENTAL AND NERVOUS COMPLAINTS,

UNDER THE SUPERINTENDENCE OF MR. AND MRS. SUTTON.

Visiting Physician.—F. RENAUD, Esq., M.D., Manchester.

Resident Surgeon.—T. WHITE, Esq.

Chaplain.—The Rev. EDW. PIGOT, M.A.

This Mansion, pleasantly situated in an extensive park about three miles in circumference, and lying in a retired district, midway between Newton-le-Willows and Ashton-in-Mackerfield, possesses many natural advantages for the treatment and cure of persons afflicted with mental disorders. The soil is sandy, and lies on the red rock,—a circumstance that implies freedom from humidity and purity of water.

HAYDOCK LODGE, having been built about sixty years ago as the country seat of an opulent gentleman, is arranged internally and externally so as to ensure a large amount of domestic comfort. The day-rooms are large and lofty, and the sleeping apartments numerous and perfectly unexceptionable. Extensive lawns and woodlands surround the house, and a garden, four acres in superficial area, adjoins it. To these, as well as to the park, Patients have free access, under proper superintendence. There is also a farm of nearly sixty acres, upon which the Gentlemen Patients are very generally induced to employ themselves.

The alterations within the Mansion have been such only as were necessary to ensure domestic comfort and classification. Altogether, the house resembles a large private residence, rather than a public institution.

Out-door exercise, as an occupation, forms an essential part of treatment, when the weather is fair; and when the days are unpropitious, in-door amusements are substituted.

The religious wants of such of the Inmates as are in a fit state are provided for by the Rector of the parish.

The highest Medical and general references can be given, and further particulars, and blank forms of certificates, may be had on application to the Superintendent, whether personally or by letter.

PRIVATE LUNATIC ASYLUM, TRANENT,

COUNTY OF HADDINGTON, EAST LOTHIAN.

A Home for Invalids of both sexes, where all the arrangements are conducted in a way so as to resemble as near as possible a Private Family.

The House is situated in a very healthy locality, ten miles east of Edinburgh; the Garden and Grounds well enclosed, giving full scope for out-door exercise and amusement.

The Proprietor has had long experience in the management of the Insane, and his whole attention is devoted to their comfort and restoration.

Terms for Board, Clothing, and Medical Attendance, from 30*l.* to 40*l.* per annum. For extra accommodation, &c. &c., a higher rate is charged.

References to the Sheriff of Haddingtonshire, or any of the Medical Gentlemen in the locality.

For further particulars, apply to GEORGE DAVIE, Proprietor.

ST. MAURICE HOUSE, YORK.

Private Letreat for the reception of a select number of the Insane of both Sexes, and in easy circumstances. This Establishment is fitted up with every convenience for the improved Treatment of Patients, so successfully practised in the best-regulated Asylums, with extensive Airing Ground, and every accommodation for promoting their recovery and comfort. It is the especial aim of the Proprietress to make a feeling of home comfort the leading feature of the Establishment, which the select character and limited number of inmates greatly facilitates. A personal inspection on the part of Relatives and Medical Attendants of Patients is especially invited.

References permitted to the Rev. W. Busfield, Keighly Rectory; Rev. E. J. Raines, York; Rev. R. Daniel, York, &c.

Proprietress, Mrs Dawson; Medical Superintendent, Mr Jas. Allen; Dr Swaine, Visiting Physician.

THE MEDICAL PROFESSION, at the suggestion of an old and valued Member have endeavoured to found an Asylum for those of their Brethren, who, from ill health, want of success, or other adverse influences, have sunk into poverty, and for the Widows of Medical Men in reduced circumstances; with this is combined a School, devoted, in part, to the gratuitous education of Orphans of Medical Men. The purposes are as follows:—

FIRST,—To maintain an Asylum, in which 100 Pensioners, who must be duly-qualified Medical Men, or their Widows, not under 50 years of age (possessing incomes of at least £15 a year), shall be provided with three furnished rooms each, and with such additional assistance and accommodation as the funds may permit. The Council, however, confidently hope that the Institution will be enabled wholly to support some few deserving persons not possessed of the required income.

SECONDLY,—To provide a School, in which a liberal education will be given to 200 boys, the Sons of duly-qualified Medical Men; thirty-five of whom will be educated, boarded, clothed and maintained entirely at the expense of the Institution, while the remainder will be charged at the lowest rate which is found to be practicable.

THIRDLY,—To grant Annuities, and occasional pecuniary assistance to distressed Members of the Medical Profession or their families, as the funds of the College may from time to time permit.

There will be a Chapel for Divine worship, according to the ritual of the Church of England.

Donors of TEN GUINEAS are Life Governors of the College; Subscribers of ONE GUINEA Annually are Governors during the continuance of their Subscription.

The Governors vote by ballot, either personally or by proxy, and have votes in the proportion of one for each GUINEA subscribed annually, for every TEN GUINEAS given, for every TWENTY GUINEAS collected.

Any information with regard to the details of the Institution will gladly be communicated to parties addressing inquiries to the Secretary, at the Offices of the College, 37, Soho-square, by whom Subscriptions and Donations will be thankfully received. Subscriptions will also be received by the Treasurer, the Members of the Council, the Honorary Local Secretaries, and the following Bankers:—Messrs. Goslings and Sharpe, 19, Fleet-street; Coutts and Co., 59, Strand; Drummonds, Charing-cross; Glyn and Co. 67, Lombard-street; Scott and Co., Cavendish-square; Hoare and Co., Fleet-street; the Union Bank of London, Regent-street Branch; Williams, Deacon, Labouchere, and Co., Birchin-lane; and Cunliff and Co., Manchester.

The objects of the Society are—

1st. To provide a safe and efficient medium by which the Medical Profession may secure more certain and regular payment for their services; with every consideration for the convenience of those who are willing, but unable, directly to discharge their liabilities; with rigour from those who are able, but have not the disposition to remunerate medical men.

These ends to be accomplished without interfering with the valuable time of the Members of the Profession, or exposing them to the unpleasantness which necessarily attends applications for money, or the uncertain results of employing private collectors.

2nd. With the machinery necessary for carrying out the foregoing purposes, to establish a means of privately negotiating the transfer of practices and partnerships, and the providing of assistants and pupils.

3rd. To raise a Benevolent Fund by devoting to that object the profits arising from the general operations of the Society.

The Society consists of qualified Medical Practitioners only. Annual subscription, One Guinea; a firm, consisting of two partners, a Guinea and a half; a firm of three partners, Two Guineas.

The general business is carried on by a staff of officers at the central office, 43, Lincoln's-inn-fields, together with trustworthy agents appointed in town and country, the whole of whom are under the direction and superintendence of the Committee.

The Metropolitan Members of the Committee, with the Trustees, are responsible for all moneys received by the Society.

LATEST PROFESSIONAL TESTIMONIALS.

ARTHUR HILL HASSALL, Esq., M.D., F.R.S., Author of "Food and its Adulterations," &c., &c.

"I have analyzed several samples of the Pure Aromatized Cod-Liver Oil with Quinine of Messrs. Duncan Hogarth and Co., as also the Oil with which it is made. The samples were selected by myself from a large stock in the warehouse of Messrs. Hearon, M'Culloch, and Squire, the agents. I have found the Oil itself to be perfectly genuine and of the first quality, bland, and entirely free from rancidity; and the compound preparation to consist of Oil of the same quality, holding, dissolved, very nearly two grains of Quinine to the ounce, as well as a small quantity of an aromatic principle. The combination of Cod-Liver Oil and Quinine thus aromatized, and carefully manufactured from the finest materials, undoubtedly forms a valuable therapeutic agent.

"To Messrs. Duncan Hogarth & Co. "The Laboratory, Oct. 10th, 1856.

"Gentlemen,—I have carefully analyzed the sample of Aromatized Cod-Liver Oil with Quinine, and I find that the properties of the Oil are somewhat peculiar. It has an aromatic odour, and it tastes of quinine and volatile oil; and its reaction with concentrated sulphuric acid is very remarkable. These peculiarities are due to the presence of quinine and volatile oil, both of which are intimately combined with it, for the sample of original oil does not exhibit any such reactions. It contains very nearly two grains of Quinine in the fluid ounce, this represents about two grains and a half of the crystallized sulphate. It is my opinion the Oil has been carefully prepared, and that it contains the usual cholaic compounds which are present in good Cod-Liver Oil; and I have no doubt, when this alkaloid is indicated as a remedy, this mixture will be found an advantageous therapeutic agent.

PURE COD LIVER OIL.

PREPARED BY

MESSRS. REW AND CO.,

OPERATIVE AND DISPENSING CHEMISTS,

282, REGENT-STREET.

In soliciting the attention of the Medical Profession to our COD LIVER OIL, we beg to inform those gentlemen who may have been disappointed in their experience of this really valuable remedy, that we have been led to adopt measures for procuring an abundant supply of Oil from fresh livers of Cod Fish taken on our own shores, not only that we may be enabled at all times to guarantee its PURITY and FRESHNESS, but also to avoid the sophistication which nearly all the foreign Oil undergoes before it gets to the Patient; this has been particularly noticeable for the last three or four seasons, and to this must be attributed much of the disappointment consequent on the use of this remedy.

We have several instances where the ordinary Oil of commerce has been taken with no other effect than nausea and general disturbance of the system, while the Oil, as PREPARED BY US, has been attended with the most SUCCESSFUL RESULTS.

Having these proofs before us, we feel justified in calling the attention of the Profession to this article, and solicit its more general adoption.

For the use of Patients, it is sold in Bottles at 2s., 3s. 6d. and 6s. 6d.

For Surgeons, in Tins containing One or Two Gallons.

COD LIVER OIL AND QUININE.

(Oleum Morrhuæ cum Quina.)

This preparation, each ounce of which contains two grains of Quinine, affords a most convenient and efficacious form for the administration of Cod Liver Oil in combination with Quinine, and it has been found in numerous instances that the stomachs of Patients will retain and assimilate larger doses of Cod Liver Oil when thus associated than in any other form.

In Bottles at 2s. 9d. and 5s.

W. TWINBERROW

Begs respectfully to call the attention of the Medical Profession to the following Preparations manufactured in his Laboratory:—

COD LIVER OIL.

Prepared from carefully selected Livers, particular attention being paid to the temperature to which they are subjected during the process; the Oil is in consequence entirely free from all unpleasant odour or taste.

Orange Peel Flavoured Cod Liver Oil.

Adapted for Children and Invalids with delicate Stomachs.

Extract and Liquor of Taraxacum.

Possessing all the properties of the recent juice.

Essence of Fluid Extract of Sarsaparilla.

(Pharmacopœia Londinensis.)

This article is prepared by an improved process from the finest Sarsaparilla, the active principles being extracted solely by the action of Cold Water, great care being paid to its evaporation at a low temperature; by this means it is entirely free from Starch and other inert matter usually present, often occasioning the disappointments experienced in the exhibition of this medicine.

Essence of Sarsaparilla and Dandelion.

This preparation has been extensively used by some of the leading medical men in London, and has been much preferred to the Essence of Sarsaparilla alone.

Castor Oil, flavoured with Orange and Lemon Peel.

By this means the nauseous taste of the Oil is entirely covered, and is retained by the most delicate stomachs.

W. TWINBERROW is particularly desirous of submitting to the notice of the faculty his Medical Extracts, prepared from ATROPA BELLADONNA, COLCHICUM AUTUMNALE, CONIUM MACULATUM, COTYLEDON UMBILICUS, HYOSCYAMUS NIGER, &c., all of which contain the properties of the fresh juices, unimpaired in their manufacture, and have the characteristic colour and odour belonging to the plants. These Extracts will be found to possess far greater activity than those generally in use.

Essence of Wormwood.

A valuable tonic, capable of being taken when most other tonics disagree.

Liq. Galii Aparinis.

Now being successfully used in many Skin affections.

Liq. Parietariæ.

A valuable diuretic, &c.

Extract of Indian Hemp. (Prepared at Calcutta.)

Ætherial Tincture of Indian Hemp.

This preparation will be found a valuable sedative in many cases where Opium is inadmissible.

The greatest care exercised in the preparation of all Chemicals, &c., the purest drugs only being employed.

BROWN'S CANTHARIDINE BLISTERING TISSUE.

PREPARED FROM PURE CANTHARIDINE.

An elegant preparation, vesicating in much less time than the Emp. Lyttæ P.L., easily applied and removed, and will not produce strangury or troublesome after-sores. It has received the sanction and commendation of many of the most eminent Practitioners in the kingdom. In Tin Cases, containing ten square feet, 6s. 6d.; and small Cases, of five square feet, 3s. 6d. each.

BROWN'S TISSUE DRESSING.

An elegant, economical, and cleanly substitute for all ointments as a dressing for Burns and Blisters, and may be called a Companion to the above. In Tin Cases, containing twelve square feet, 1s. 6d. each.

Extract and Editorial Note from the 'New York Journal of Medicine.'

"March 1st, 1850.

"BROWN'S CANTHARIDINE TISSUE.—It presents peculiar claims to our notice in the inflammatory diseases of females and children, in whom the unpleasant consequences which so often follow the application of the Emp. Cantharides are most apt to occur. We have found it a reliable and peculiarly safe vesicant, and from the many trials we have given it, we are satisfied that it deserves the attention of the Medical Profession.

"Accompanying this article is a very simple and neat dressing."

"June 24th, 1850.

"Mr. Dalrymple presents his compliments to Mr. Brown, and is much obliged to him by his kindness in sending specimens of his Preparation for Blistering, &c. Mr. D. delayed answering his present until he had had an opportunity of testing it in practice, and is most happy to acknowledge its utility, elegance, and cheapness, and he has recommended it with great satisfaction.

"60, Grosvenor-street, London."

Prepared by THOMAS B. BROWN, Pharmaceutical Chemist, at his Laboratory, Stanwell Moor, Staines, Middlesex; And sold by the Sole Consignees, Messrs. Bailey and Wills, Horseleyfields Chemical Works, Wolverhampton, and all Wholesale and Retail Druggists and Medicine Agents throughout the British Empire.

NEW MEDICINES.

GLYCERINE with IODIDE of IRON. (Dose, from one to two fluid drachms).

GLYCERINE with BROMIDE of IRON. (Same strength as the above).

GLYCERINE with IODIDE of QUININE and IRON.

GLYCERINE with HYDRIODATE of QUININE.

These preparations are elegant in appearance, and are guaranteed to be accurate and pure representations of what they profess. The former (Glycerine with Iodide of Iron) has been employed very successfully by Dr Hawksley, at the Dispensary for Consumption, &c. Margaret-street, Cavendish-square, and is believed by him to possess special and valuable uses, in the treatment of phthisical and scrofulous cases.

Manufactured and supplied by J. B. BARNES, Pharmaceutical Chemist; also the various combinations of Chemicals with pure Cod-Liver Oil.—1, Trevor terrace, (opposite the Barracks,) Knightsbridge.

FRANCIS L. PUCKRIDGE,

Sole Inventor and Manufacturer of the late Mr. R. Liston's

WATERPROOF TRANSPARENT ISINGLASS MEMBRANE PLASTERS.

Now patronised by Mr. Liston's successor, Mr. Quain, in his hospital and private practice; patronized likewise by Mr. W. Fergusson, Surgeon of King's College Hospital, Mr. J. M. Arnott and Mr Wormald, of Bartholomew's Hospital. Used for Amputations and other serious wounds requiring observation without exposure to the air.

F. L. P. begs to state there are two qualities, and it is particularly beneficial for Spinal complaints, Ruptures, or any weakened part; likewise for Burns or Scalds, will remove the pain in a very short time. Also, a defensive Skin, to apply between the wound and the lint, and causes less pain in dressing. Likewise a superior Gauze Liese, of the same adhesive properties as the Membrane. Also, superior Tinted Court Plasters, and Tinted Gold-beater's Skin, by the yard and in cases.

F. L. P. offers his most grateful thanks for the encouragement and kind patronage he has received from the Medical Gentlemen of England and foreign parts, and hopes to merit a continuance of their favours by manufacturing his Plasters with the same unremitting care as heretofore.

F. L. P. begs particularly to introduce to the surgeon-dentist, for tender gums, a delicate Plaster, that will adhere to the gold or ivory, and at the same time heal and protect the gums from pressure.

May be had of the Proprietor, 4, York-place, Walworth-road, Surgical Instrument-maker, Chemist, &c., with improved directions how to apply.

STRUVE'S MINERAL WATERS,

ROYAL GERMAN SPA, BRIGHTON,

UNDER HER MAJESTY'S ESPECIAL PATRONAGE.

STRUVE and CO. beg to direct attention to the above establishment, where for nearly thirty years past all the most efficient Mineral Waters have been prepared, and have been admitted by the best English and foreign authorities to be identical in physical properties and medicinal effects with the natural ones. Numerous attempts are, however, made to impose inferior preparations upon the public, by using Struve and Co.'s old bottles, imitating their labels and stamps, and by the use of the designation "Brighton Seltzer," "Brighton Fachingen," &c., while a careful analysis of some of these, stated to be prepared "according to the most accurate analysis," has shown the total absence of iron in the professed chalybeates, and a general disregard to their true chemical composition.

Struve and Co. beg to state that they have not the remotest connection with any of these parties; and respectfully request the public to observe carefully that the name of "STRUVE" is on the label as well as on both sides of the red stamp over the cork, which has the words "ROYAL GERMAN SPA, BRIGHTON," beneath the Royal Arms.

The frauds alluded to relate more particularly to the Seltzer, Fachingen, and Vichy Waters. Orders for Struve's Bottled Mineral Waters continue to be executed by George Waugh and Co., Chemists to the Queen, 177 Regent-street (West side), London, and by numerous other respectable houses in London and the provincial towns, where a prospectus may be obtained gratis.

The Pump Room opens in May and closes in November.

TARRATT'S
BANDAGE AND STRENGTHENING PLASTER.

This Plaster, from the nature of the composition, and the material on which it is spread, is adapted for a permanent bandage, as it neither produces irritation of the skin, nor, when applied, does heat cause it to lose its adaptation to the part. Having these qualities, it is peculiarly valuable in the treatment of ulcerated legs, varicose veins, &c., where equal and constant support is required. Several of the most eminent surgeons continue to use this Plaster in their practice, preferring it in certain cases to any other. It is well suited for exportation and use in warm climates, the high temperature having less effect on it than on any other plaster.

The Profession are referred to Messrs. Westwoods and Hopkins, Wholesale Druggists, Newgate-street, where the Plaster may be had in packets, containing three yards, for 2s. 6d., or spread upon skins of chamois leather, at 3s. 6d.

Westwoods and Hopkins also call attention to their Compound Adhesive Plaster for fractures and wounds, as likewise to their Concentrated Preparations, Essences, &c.

J. BRADSHAW begs particularly to call the attention of the Profession to the improvements he has made in the above articles, whereby all the objections hitherto existing have been overcome.

J. B. has likewise made arrangements for the Manufacture of all Surgical Bandages in India-rubber, vulcanized on a principle whereby the elasticity is preserved and not affected by climate, the Bandages being all made from patterns taken from each particular case; a perfect fit is secured thereby, preventing the many evils arising from undue pressure being applied to any part, which must always be the case providing the Bandage is not adapted to each particular case.

Prices, which will be found as low as other makers', notwithstanding the advantages offered, together with directions for measurement, will be sent on application, per return of post.

BEST FOOD FOR INFANTS AND INVALIDS.

ROBINSON'S PATENT BARLEY

Is the only genuine article by which pure Barley water can be made in ten minutes. It produces an excellent mucilaginous beverage, more palatable than that made from Pearl Barley. Mothers, during the anxious period of suckling, will find it cooling and nutritious. In constitutions when stimulant and fermented liquors are inadmissible, it is an ample and productive source of comfort both to the parent and infant. It is also strongly recommended for light suppers, food for infants, and makes a most delicious custard pudding; for which purpose it has been used by families of the first distinction, and will be found suitable for the invalid or healthy, the infant or aged. It is also highly esteemed as an adjunct with new milk for the breakfast table.

ROBINSON'S PATENT GROATS.

The nourishing qualities of Oats, from which Groats are made, are in this country so well known as to need but little remark. In Scotland the food generally used is from this source—the result is a strong and healthy population. Many eminent Physicians speak of Oatmeal as of a cooling nature, and consequently prescribe it in fevers; but it is no less beneficial as a general food when deprived of the bitterness and unpleasant qualities, which produce heartburn and acidity in the stomach. The process by which Robinson's Patent Groats are made entirely obviates this latter objection. They are the purest flour of the oat that it is possible to produce; thus they are pre-eminent as a food for children—giving energy to the robust and strength to the delicate. They are equally serviceable to those labouring under indigestion, and form an excellent supper for the invalid or healthy during the winter months.

The addition of a caution is too often unheeded, perhaps because it is so commonly added to an announcement of this kind; but the recent inquiries into the composition of the various articles of food show that the purchaser may often be imposed upon. ROBINSON, BELVILLE, & CO. would therefore, while courting the fullest scrutiny into the quality of their Patent Barley and Patent Groats, desire to caution the Public not to be imposed on by receiving an article similar in external appearance, but wholly different in other respects to that bearing their name.

The Proprietors of Robinson's Patent Barley and Patent Groats, desirous that the public shall at all times purchase these preparations in a perfectly sweet and fresh condition, respectfully inform the public that every packet is now completely enveloped in the purest Tin Foil, over which is the usual and well-known paper wrapper.

EDWARD SPENCER & Co. have published instructions for its use, which remove much of the inconvenience complained of in some cases, and suggests increased adaptation.

 Dr. Arnott, the Inventor, has inspected the Beds manufactured by Edward Spencer and Co., and has expressed his approval of their construction and make.

THE ADJUSTING BED,

Recommended for LUNATIC PATIENTS, in such Cases where the Hydrostatic Bed cannot be used.—See Report of Commissioners, June, 1847, page 486. Prices Four and Five Guineas.

THE LIFTING BED,

Is a MECHANICAL ARRANGEMENT by which the Patient may be raised to any level required, or placed in any position without any exertion to the Attendant. This Bed is particularly suitable in all cases of heavy and helpless Patients, who often suffer much from the efforts used to move them, which this contrivance entirely obviates. It forms a beautiful combination with the Hydrostatic Bed. Price Ten Guineas, and upwards.

THE BED SITTING SUPPORTER,

Is a simple contrivance, relieving the Spine of all the superincumbent weight of the head and shoulders, and thus enabling many a patient to sit up and read and write, who could not have done so else. It is found to be a great relief in all cases of weakness from long confinement to bed, or, spinal affections. Price Two Guineas.

TO THE PROFESSION,

RELATIVE TO THE MEDICAL APPLICATION OF ELECTRICITY.

Six years have now elapsed since my arrival in England for the purpose of taking out patents for my inventions in Electro-Magnetic and Magneto-Electric Machines, Printing Telegraphs, Regulators, and Interrupters, and several differently constructed Galvanic Batteries. Out of these various productions I found the

HYDRO-ELECTRIC CHAIN,

now known in the scientific* works as PULVERMACHER'S PILE, to be the most efficient and convenient form for medical purposes. Its exceeding portability and flexible arrangement, either as a Battery of powerful intermittent action, or as an instrument of mild continuous current for permanent application on the body, instantly showed the many advantages it possessed over the old and cumbrous machines, which are productive only of limited effect, and unpleasant and often injurious shocks. As Physiologist and Engineer I did not at the time attach such importance to the Chain—although it was received with such flattering testimonials from the Academie de Medicine, Paris, and the Drs. Golding Bird, Pereira, and others—as to bring it unaided into the commercial world. Consequently, I gave it into the hands of a sole Agent, who unfortunately abused the trust I confided to him, and for which the French and English Courts condemned him to the sum of £10,000 Damages.

Therefore, I cannot be responsible for all apparatus circulated under my name in this country; but hope, now I have established central houses, under my own management, in London, 118, LEADENHALL-STREET, CITY, and 73, OXFORD-STREET (adjoining Princess's Theatre), to prove to the Profession, what every other country has readily acknowledged, that the REAL PULVERMACHER CHAIN is an effective and efficacious apparatus; and, as an incentive to believe which, I merely request them to peruse the pamphlet (price 6d. free) 'Practical Guide for the Electro-Medical Treatment' by these Chains, containing Extracts of Reports from the Academie de Medicine, Paris, and the celebrated professors of this and other countries; as well as numerous Testimonials given by the highest classes of society. It also has received a Reward from the Universal Exhibition of 1855.

Out of the many Reports given in England, a few Extracts are hereto annexed:—

"I have had the opportunity of testing the value of Mr. Pulvermacher's apparatus, and I find it capable of producing all the physiological effects of well-known Galvanic Pile. It is easily excited, and its power is very sistent. I can scarcely recommend Dr. Pulvermacher's invention too ngly to the notice of my medical brethren."—Dr. GOLDING BIRD, D., F.R.S., late Phys. and Lect. to Guy's Hospital.

"We have reason to believe that the Hydro-Electric Chains are coming o extensive use in this country, and that in cases of partial Paralysis, uralgic Head-aches, and many other nervous diseases, and also, in re- ed condition of the muscular fibre, it has proved very useful. It will refore be understood, that it is not merely a toy with a scientific name impose upon the ignorant, but a highly efficacious instrument."—ASSO- IATION MEDICAL JOURNAL, March 15, 1856.

"The Hydro-Electric Chains of Mr. Pulvermacher are so constructed as perform the office of a Galvanic Battery, the power of which may be reased and diminished at will, and may be beneficially brought to bear on the morbid conditions of the body."—MEDICAL TIMES AND GAZETTE, y 10, 1856.

"The Hydro-Electric Chain may be used by the medical attendant, or the patient himself. Several ingenious additions have been made to original Chain, and the operator can now diffuse the Galvanic influence r an extensive surface, or concentrate it on a single point of the body. these days of medico-galvanic quackery, it is a relief to observe the y plain and straightforward manner in which Mr. Pulvermacher's paratus is recommended to the profession."—LANCET, July 5, 1856.

MR. HOOPER'S WATER, OR AIR MATTRESSES, BEDS, and CUSHIONS.

FOR BED-SORES, GUN-SHOT WOUNDS, FEVER, CONSUMPTIVE AND OTHER INVALIDS, 7, PALL-MALL EAST, AND 55, GROSVENOR-STREET, LONDON.

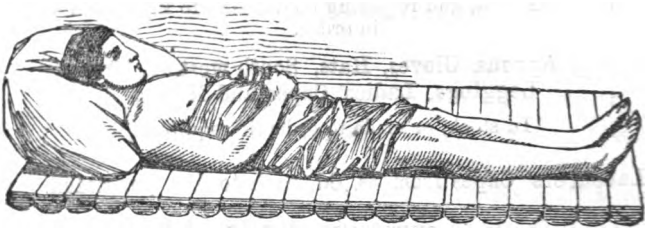
Full Size.



Middle Size.

Small Size.

The comfort afforded by the use of these Hydrostatic Beds or Mattresses has brought them into very general use, especially in cases of bed-sores, whether threatened with sloughing, or in which sloughing has actually taken place, spinal affections, paralysis, fever, fractures, consumptive, and other invalids.

The Medical Profession of the United Kingdom, France, Germany, America, and India report most favourably of them.

See communications from Mr. Cæsar Hawkins, Dr. Hake, Dr. Thorn, the late Dr. Pereira, and others, in the 'Lancet,' January 25, February 18, October 27; 'Medical Times,' March 20; 'Provincial and Surgical Medical Journal,' November 1; 'Institute,' February 8.

"As a preventative to bed-sores, I find Mr. Hooper's Water Mattresses invaluable."—Dr. Chalmers.

WILLIAM HOOPER (sole maker), 7, Pallmall East, and 55, Grosvenor-street.

WALTERS' RAILWAY URINALS,

FOR TRAVELLERS AND INVALIDS.

F. WALTERS having originally invented these Urinals, begs to warn the Profession of the many bad and useless imitations which are now sold, and he would advise them, before purchasing, to look that they are stamped with his name; as, unless that be the case, he cannot guarantee them.

Made of Solid India-rubber, with Patent Valve, and adapted for Ladies, Gentlemen, and Children.

Manufacturer also of the PATENT HYDROSTATIC TRUSS. One of the advantages of this Truss is, that the pad, being filled with water, adapts itself with perfect accuracy to the form of the body, thereby keeping up a firm but easy pressure on the internal ring.

F. Walters' Hydro-Pneumatic Enema Syringe.

The great objection to all Enema Syringes hitherto invented is the trouble which they give in using. This is entirely avoided by the use of the HYDRO-PNEUMATIC ENEMA SYRINGE. Instead of having to draw up and depress the piston continually during the whole time, it is only necessary to depress it twice. Being made in the form of a telescope, when out of use it is less than half the size of any other syringe which holds the same quantity of fluid. Being manufactured entirely of solid metal which will not corrode, it is not likely to get out of order. F. Walters will be happy to show it, and explain its use to all who will call on him for that purpose. Price 35s., with the usual professional discount.

Curvature of the Spine.

These cases require the greatest judgment, in order so to adapt the mechanical assistance that there may be support without undue pressure. F. Walters having paid great attention to the subject, and having studied anatomy at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, can confidently offer his services to those in the profession who may have Patients suffering under this disease.

Hot Fomentations.

WALTERS' INDIA-RUBBER BAGS for hot water will be found the most convenient and useful application for all cases of cholera, and whenever it may be necessary to apply heat to any part of the body. It is well known that, whatever may be the treatment for this disease, it is most important that the abdomen and the feet should be kept warm. Price from 12s. 6d.; by post, 15s.

New Truss for Hernia.

F. WALTERS begs to call attention to his New Truss, with improved water pad. The advantage of water is extreme softness, and the certainty of the pressure being always in the proper place. This Truss has received the approbation of the most eminent Surgeons, many of whom pronounce it the most perfect ever yet produced. Manufacturer of Trusses, Enema Syringes, and Anatomical and Surgical Instruments. Elastic Stockings to draw on without lacing. Suspenders for Riding and Hunting.

A Female to attend on Ladies.—N.B. Ladies' Entrance, Private Door.

NEW SYSTEM OF LIFE ASSURANCE.

The Directors of the NATIONAL ASSURANCE and INVESTMENT ASSOCIATION invite attention to the New System of Life Assurance exclusively adopted by this Association—viz., that of allowing Interest on all Premiums paid, instead of the remote and uncertain System of Bonuses usually adopted.

By this plan the Policyholder will secure to himself a constantly increasing annual income during life, as well as the payment of the sum assured to his representatives, at his death.

Tables of Rates specially adapted to this System of Assurance may be obtained at the Office of the Company, 3, Pall Mall East, or forward
